ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The compilers of this book are grateful for the assistance and encouragement generously given by Mary Durnan, Director, and Frances Hewitt, Museum Clerk, Marshall County Historical Museum, 317 West Monroe Street, Plymouth, Indiana 46563.

Also the township maps, which lend a professional look to our book, were made by our son, John B. Tombaugh, to whom we express our pride, our love and our thanks.

CROMLEY CEMETERY

Located one-half mile north of Fulton County Line on S. Union Rd., Southwest of Culver, Union Township, Marshall County, Indiana. The cemetery is easy to find, and is situated in a woods. The stones are mostly broken, difficult to read, being badly weathered with parts missing.

In the corner of Row 1 is a pile of parts of stones. We did not attempt to put them together because of the chance of snakes.

Information marked with * was obtained from the records of the Marshall County Historical Society.

The rows run north and south; rows are numbered from west to east; stones read from north to south.

Readings by Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh in 1984.

McDONALD CEMETERY
(Bucklew Cemetery)

Located on the east side of S. Quince Road, about one mile south-west of Rutland, Union Township, Marshall County, Indiana.

Most of the stones were unusually clear, and the cemetery was in a neat and clean condition. In Row 1 all but three of the stones have some decoration carved in them.

The rows run north and south; rows are numbered from west to east; stones read from north to south.

Readings by Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh in 1984.
