Mrs. John GREEN died Sunday at her home at Leiters Ford.   - - - GERMANY ITEMS.

Thursday, January 3, 1918

John KANNADA, 46, a well-to-do farmer residing three and one-half miles south of Leiters Ford, was asphyxiated Wednesday evening, his body being found by Mrs. Kannada in the garage where he had gone to charge the batteries in his automobile. A physician was called, but nothing could be done to restore life.

According to the story told by Mrs. Martha ZOLMAN, of Rochester, who was visiting at the home, Mr. Kannada told his wife about eight o’clock that he was going to the garage to look after his car, saying, “don’t stay up for me.” When he did not come back to the house, the wife got up and went to the garage, where she found her husband lying face downward on the floor beside the machine. The engine of the car (an Overland) was still running. The windows and doors of the garage were tightly closed.

Mr. Kannada was killed, just as several men have met death over the country, according to newspaper reports. Nat Willis, the well known actor, died in his garage several weeks ago as the result of running his machine in a closed building. Physicians assert that the victim does not realize the presence of so much gas until it is too late.

Mr. Kannada leaves a wife and several brothers and sisters. His mother lives with a daughter, Mrs. Ora TRACY, of near Macy. A brother, William [KANNADA], lives in Peru. Funeral arrangements later.

Clarence I. RANNELLS was born at Rochester, Indiana, Feb. 10th, 1876, the only son of William W. and Ellen J. RANNELLS. He graduated from the country schools at the age of 12, and entered the high school at Rochester, Indiana, under Professor SCULL, graduating in the class of 1894. He then entered Rochester college under Professor BANTA, and received his diploma in two years. Having taught mathematics the second year, he entered Purdue university 1897, with credits of one year for the four year course. In 1899 he made application to enter Michigan with a three year credit from Purdue. Michigan requires students from other colleges to take two years course before giving a diploma, but after examination he received his diploma in one year. He was married to Mabel BANTA, January 4, 1900, and immediately went to Johnstown, Pa., entering the Cambria steel works as comptist, where he continued for two years. In 1903 he entered the government service as civil engineer, where he continued until sickness compelled him to retire Nov. 3rd, 1914. He had charge of several of the principal dams on the Ohio river and was stationed at Parkersburg, W. Va., where his son, William [RANNELLS], was born, a daughter, Rhoda [RANNELLS], having been born at Johnstown, Pa. At Parkersburg, he was stricken with typhoid fever, which left him with the nervous condition which ultimately led to his death. He took membership with the Presbyterian church at Parkersburg 12 years ago and was a faithful member till death. He leaves his wife and two children and his father, William W. RANNELLS, besides many devoted friends who knew him to be perfect type of manhood. Funeral Monday, Dec. 31, at Evangelical church. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Charles E. MORRETT, 79, a veteran of the Civil war, died Monday evening at 9:30 at his home in Akron, after an illness lasting two weeks. Previous to his last illness, he had enjoyed perfect health all of his life. Funeral at 1:30 Thursday afternoon in the Methodist church in Akron.

Mr. Morrett was born in Pennsylvania, August 11, 1839. When very young, his parents moved to Fulton county and at the outbreak of the Civil war, he enlisted in the 40th Indiana, serving until the end. He was a member of the Akron post, G.A.R. Returning to Fulton county after the war, he became a railroad engineer, working in that capacity for years.

On April 11, 1872, he married Mary PONTIOUS, who survives. He leaves four children: William MORRETT, of near Perrysburg; Mrs. Bertha LUKENS, of near Disko; C. F. MORRETT, of Huntington and Bruce MORRETT of Rochester. He also leaves two brothers and three sisters: John [MORRETT] and Newton MORRETT, of Kansas, Mrs. Mollie CASE and Mrs. Ella TUDOR, of Kansas and Mrs. Katherine GRIFFITH, of Summitville, Ind.

John W. CONDON, 88, died Monday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. A. Search, who lives south of the city. Death was due to senility. Funeral Wednesday afternoon at two o’clock in the Search home; burial at Logansport.

Mr. Condon was born in Baltimore, Maryland, August 31, 1829. In 1855, he married Mary CRALK, who survives him. They were the parents of five children, four of whom are living: H. C. CONDON and Mrs. M. A. SEARCH of Rochester, and Mrs. Ida HUTCHESON and Mrs. Arthur BAKER of Logansport.

Mr. Condon was well known in Rochester where he lived for several years at a local hotel. His entire life was given to investigation and invention. He claimed to be the first inventor of the modern type of ice cream freezer, out of which he made a small fortune. His earnings on useful ideas were all spent in further inventions, mainly along culinary lines. He placed the first baking machinery upon the market and it laid the foundation for machines now in use but cost him all his savings.

Mr. Condon had been in every important city in the United States and Canada. His early married life was spent in various places, the five children being born in as many different states.

Alonzo SARBER, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. SARBER, of Peru, was drowned Wednesday at Camp Shelby, Miss., according to a telegram received by his parents. The body will be shipped to Peru for burial. No particulars of the accident are known.

He enlisted in Indianapolis, May 25th, 1917, and at the time of his death was a member of the 139th Machine Gun Battalion at Camp Shelby. Mr. Sarber is a nephew of John J. WERNER, who lives southwest of Rochester, and visited often in this city.

Dr. Newton J. CLYMER, 81, a pioneer physician of Fulton county, died Wednesday evening at seven o’clock in his home on West Eighth Street after a three weeks illness due largely to hardening of the arteries. Just previous to that time, Mr. Clymer had been in fairly good health and visited his office daily, altho he was seriously ill for some time during the winter.

Dr. Clymer was born in Miami county, March 24, 1837, the son of Joseph and Eliza (KEEVER) CLYMER. Dr. Clymer spent his youth upon the farm. When 20 years of age, he began the study of medicine in the office of his brother, Dr. Keever CLYMER of Waupecong, Indiana. Two years later he moved to Illinois and later to Bourbon, Indiana. In 1862, he came to Fulton county locating at Talma, where he remained until 1893, when he moved to Rochester. On February 9, 1860, Dr. Clymer married Lenora A. MOORE who survives, to which union five children were born, three of whom are living, George [CLYMER] of Peru, Harry C. CLYMER of near Talma and Mrs. Florence HAIMBAUGH of Denver, Colorado. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Eliza KING of Ft. Benton, Montana, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Dr. Clymer was a member of the Odd Fellows and Masonic lodges, being one of the organizers of the I.O.O.F. lodge at Talma. He was once a candidate on the democratic ticket for joint representative from Pulaski and Fulton counties, being defeated by 15 votes. In 1893, he was appointed examiner for the bureau of pensions at Rochester, serving two years.

Of late years, his advanced age prevented much active practice, but he was at his office almost every day, and really worked at his job until his last illness forced him to stop.

Mrs. Margaret DAUGHERTY went today to Tiosa to attend the funeral of her cousin, Margaret LEEDY.

[NOTE: Jean C. & Wendell C. Tombaugh, Fulton County Indiana Cemeteries, Richland Center I.O.O.F. Cemetery, Richland Twp.: Mannasseh LEEDY, father, Co H 11 Reg Ind Vol, Dec 17, 1847 - Nov 24, 1914; Margaret M. WYNN LEEDY, his wife, mother, Jan 28, 1846 - May 21, 1918]
In accordance with his oft-repeated request, burial of the body of Alonzo SARVER, soldier, who drowned near Hattiesburg, Miss., last week, was made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery here Sunday afternoon, after funeral services in Peru. The Sarvers formerly lived near Rochester and the young man had spent much time here. He was a nephew of John [WERNER], Phillip [WERNER] and William WERNER.

Sarver’s death was the second by drowning in Leaf river since the cantonment was formed at Camp Shelby. A companion saw Sarver’s difficulty, but was not strong enough a swimmer to reach him. The body was quickly recovered and sent to the home of the soldier’s father, Amos C. SARVER, Peru, Ind., in the charge of Corporal Oscar W. WERNER. Sarver was a member of the 139th machine gun batallion. In reporting the drowning, Captain John B. DILWORTH, his commander, said that Sarver had been an excellent soldier and that he died in the line of duty. His beneficiaries will therefore realize on his war risk insurance.

Rochester relatives received a telegram Sunday afternoon announcing the death in a hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y., of Mrs. Robert MARSH, 56, a former resident of Rochester and a sister of Mrs. John RANK, Mrs. Angelina BURTON, Mrs. John McMAHAN, Mrs. Sylvester ALSPACH and Mrs. Frank MARSH, all of this city.

Mrs. Marsh went to the hospital to undergo an operation for gall stones and other complaints. She had been in ill health for a year. She [Mary GOSS] was born in Fulton county, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George GOSS. Besides her husband, Robert MARSH, she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Roxie SOWERS, of Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh moved to Brooklyn from Rochester about 11 years ago. He was long in business here.

The body will be brought here Tuesday for the funeral at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester ALSPACH. Mrs. Charles TAYLOR, a niece, was on her way to Brooklyn Sunday, when a telegram reached her at Lima, O., announcing the death. She returned home atonce.

After lying perfectly helpless for six months, as the result of strokes of paralysis, Mrs. Sarah Ann EMERSON, 73, died Sunday afternoon at four o’clock in the Arlington block apartments of her daughter, Mrs. B. L. Perschbacher.

William WILDERMUTH, 73, one of Rochester’s most revered citizens, died Friday at 5:00 p.m. at his home on So. Jefferson St., after a severe illness of five weeks duration. Death was due to arterio sclerosis. Funeral at the Evangelical church Sunday afternoon at two o’clock, Rev. E. Q. LAUDERMAN in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

William Wildermuth was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, Oct 7th, 1844. In February 1864, he enlisted as a volunteer in the 17th Ohio Infantry, serving until the end of the war in 1865, when he followed his parents to Fulton county where they moved. Here he taught school for a period of four years.

In April 1866, he was united in marriage to Miss Lucinda ZABST and to this union two children were born, Mrs. John LAIDLAW and Mrs. Jerome SWIHART, who with the widow, three sisters, Mrs. Isberry FERREE, of Hammond, Mrs. Rebecca ROUCH, Fulton, and Mrs. Oscar MARTIN, Los Angeles, Calif., and three brothers, Joseph [WILDERMUTH], South Bend, Daniel [WILDERMUTH], Wagoners and St.Clair [WILDERMUTH], Fulton, survive. He was a member of McClung Post G.A.R.

Mr. Wildermuth, who had united with the Evangelical church when young, in 1871 became a licensed minister of the church, in which capacity he served about 25 years. About 11 years ago he lost his eye sight, due to paralysis of the optic nerve. Since that time he manufactured household novelties in a work shop at his home, until several months ago when he was forced to quit. During the period of his life in which he was blind, he was able to find his way all over the city. Five weeks ago he began to fail rapidly and from that time, until death came, he was unable to recline. In his last illness, while suffering greatly, he was very patient. Mrs. Wildermuth, the daughters and several friends and neighbors were with him at the time of his death. Arrangements were made Saturday morning to have six ministers of the city act as pall bearers at the funeral.
Word has been received here of the death of O. P. ENYART, 50, which occurred in Barrytown, Mich., with funeral there last Sunday. The widow and five children survive. Enyart was well known here. He formerly lived in Macy.

Akron, Ind., July 9 -- Peter DENNEY, 25, colored, drowned in Summit Lake Monday evening at about five o’clock when a boat, in which he and several other men were fishing, sank.

Denney was an assistant cook with a gang of R.R. surveyors working on the Erie near here. After supper, several of the men decided that they would go fishing. The boat in which they started out was not a very good one and was overloaded, with the result that it filled with water and sank when about 40 or 50 feet from shore. Denney was able to swim, altho not very well and fell behind the other men. When they looked around for him he was gone and his cap was seen floating on the water.

They immediately started a search for the body, which evidently sank but once, as no cry was heard from the drowning man.

He was last seen when about 10 or 15 feet from shore. The body was found later in the evening by Mr. DUNLAP, chief of the gang of survey.

It was in about seven feet of water and was in an erect position, entangled in moss.

The body was taken to Akron where it remains pending word from Denney’s brother at Mobile, Ala. Little of the dead man’s history could be learned except for the fact that his residence had formerly been in Mobile, where his brother now lives.

Fulton, July 26 -- Charles LENHART, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo LENHART, south of Fulton, drowned at 4:30 p.m., Thursday at Fletcher’s Lake, when he jumped off a springing board and for some unknown reason was unable to swim back to shore.

Lenhart, who was employed by Harley MOORE on his farm near Metea, had gone to the lake with Moore late in the afternoon. While Moore was washing a buggy, Lenhart jumped in the lake for a dip, and Moore’s attention was attracted to Lenhart by his call for help. Lenhart only came up once and Moore’s frantic efforts to pull him out were of no avail. Assistance was immediately summoned and a search instituted for the body, which was not recovered until three hours later.

The body was taken to the home of his parents, just across the Cass county line on the Michigan road. The parents and three brothers, all residents of this county, survive.

Lenhart was recently discharged from military service at Camp Taylor, Ky., on account of defective hearing.

Jacob POLAY had word Wednesday evening from the adjutant general’s office at Washington that his brother-in-law, Jacob GOLUB, a private in the U. S. Infantry, has been missing in action since July 19. Promise was made that information would be furnished as soon as received.

Golub, who is about 23 years old, is a brother of Mrs. POLAY, and previous to enlistment in the spring of 1917, made his home with her for about two years. It will be remembered that he entered the army following a bet of $10 with Abe BEREBITSKY, who wagered that the recruiting officer would take him. Golub thought he wouldn’t and lost.

He was sent to Columbus Barracks, O., with Willie DOVICHI and assigned to an infantry regiment, which sailed for France early in the summer of 1917. Since then, the Polays had word from him several times. While here, Golub bought junk.

Private LeRoy SHELTON, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. SHELTON, of Mt. Zion, was killed in action in France on Saturday, August 10th, according to an official communication received by his parents from the War department Friday night. Private Shelton is the first Fulton county boy to give his life for his country on the firing line in France.

Private Shelton was first reported killed in a letter from a Rochester girl in Washington to a friend in this city and also in letters from Harley ANDERSON, George BIGGS and Harvey CLARY. The Anderson boy said in his letter that Shelton’s death was too horrible to be told. He is supposed to have been killed by a bomb.

Shelton was in a draft contingent that left Rochester for Camp Taylor, Ky., early in April. His brother, Private Ray SHELTON, who left with the same unit, was gassed on June 26th, taken to base hospital 32 and according to latest reports, is now in a replacement camp.

After a week at Camp Taylor, Shelton and the others were sent to Long Island, where they remained for two weeks, sailing for France just three weeks after leaving Rochester. He was a member of Company A, 111th Infantry, 28th Division, A.E.F. The last letter received from him was written on July 31st. The parents, two brothers, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Van DUYNE, of Mt. Zion, survive. Shelton was born in Fulton county on September 1st, 1886.

The other brother, Private Ralph SHELTON, who was in the last draft, went to Camp Taylor on June 3rd last and after two weeks there, was sent to Camp McClellan, Ala., where he is now stationed.

Rev. Joseph Henry LACEY, 71, died at seven o’clock Friday evening at his home on South Madison St., after an illness of several years duration, the last two of which he was an invalid. Death was caused by hardening of the arteries and complications.

The widow, Mrs. Elizabeth LACEY, a daughter, Mrs. L. W. FELDER, of Fulton, and two sons, C. H. LACEY, of Fostoria, Ohio, and R. W. LACEY, of Elkhart, survive. A daughter preceded him. Funeral Sunday morning at 11:00 o’clock at the Christian church, Rev. C. W. CAUBLE, of Indianapolis, in charge. Interment at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Joseph Henry Lacey was born March 28th, 1847 in Nottingham, England. He moved to the United States when he was 21 years of age and for the past 25 or 30 years had been a resident of Rochester and Fulton county. He preached at the Rochester Christian church for one year about 27 years ago and had occupied the pulpit of several other Indiana churches. He was educated in Liverpool, England, and became a citizen of the U.S. soon after coming to this country.

Monday, September 23, 1918

Word was received here Monday morning of the death Sunday night at 11:55 in the hospital at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Chicago, of Dean W. MIKESELL, 22, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. MIKESELL of near Wagoners.

He was taken to the hospital on Sunday, Sept. 8, suffering with grip and pneumonia, and as his case was quarantined, it is believed that he was afflicted with Spanish Influenza, an epidemic of which is now sweeping the country. With him at the end, were his parents and Miss Dawn REED, of Akron.

Mikesell was a radio student at the station, having entered June 7, of this year. He was a 1915 graduate of the Rochester high school and after a normal course at Tri State college, Angola, Ind., taught school in this county for three years, the last at Woodrow school, near Rochester.

Besides the parents, who were expected home Monday afternoon, there survive four brothers, Von [MIKESELL], Victor [MIKESELL], Kenneth [MIKESELL] and Arthur [MIKESELL] and a sister, Orpha [MIKESELL].

The body will be brought here for burial. Arrangements later.

Arthur MOORE, 56, died Saturday evening at his home in Athens, a victim of dementia. There survive a sister, Miss Laura [MOORE], with whom he lived on the Moore homestead, two brothers, Wilson [MOORE], of Logansport, and Marion [MOORE], of Athens, and three other sisters, Mrs. John MOORE, of Winamac, Mrs. Chas. DRUDGE and Mrs. Sol BURNS, of this county. Mr. Moore was a bachelor. Funeral Tuesday morning at 10:30 o’clock at the Mt. Hope church. Burial at the Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed DAY, who reside just south of the city, have received word that their son-in-law, A. Gordon WEAVER, of Indianapolis, has been killed in action in France. He was well known here where he spent a winter several years ago, employed in the South Side barber shop.

Official notification came to Mrs. Weaver just recently altho she had heard indirectly of her husband’s death before. She is expected here soon to visit her parents. Weaver was shot thru the arm earlier in the year, but had recovered and gone back to the firing line. He was a native of Edinburg, Ind., where his parents now reside. A brother is in the service. Weaver was drafted from Indianapolis in October, 1917.

So large a crowd attended the services at the Evangelical church Sunday evening that Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN abandoned his program and devoted the entire service to the memorial for Leroy SHELTON, who was killed in action. This was particularly fitting, as Sunday was Heroes’ Day in Indiana.
Mrs. Wilson DRUDGE will go this evening to Athens to attend the funeral of her uncle, Albert MOORE.

Tuesday, September 24, 1918

Funeral services for Dean W. MIKESELL, who died Sunday at Great Lakes, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock at the Evangelical church, Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge, assisted by Rev. H. G. GAIGE. The body was brought here Tuesday morning.

Rev. Schuyler NORRIS, of Culver, will preach a memorial sermon Sunday morning at 11:00 in the Green Oak church, in honor of Leroy SHELTON, first Fulton county boy killed in action. All Odd Fellows who come, are to meet at their hall near the church at 10:00 and march to the service in a body. Shelton was a member of this lodge.

Several members of the Royal Neighbor and Eastern Star orders attended the funeral of Mrs. Archie LATIMER, at Mentone, Friday afternoon. - - - AKRON ITEMS.

The funeral services for Pvt. Martin Augustine IRVINE, who died of Spanish influenza in New York on Wednesday, will be held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. IRVINE, West 12th St., Sunday morning at 10:00 o’clock, Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery. The Rochester lodge, L.O.O.M. and the Rochester company of Liberty Guards will be in attendance.

A delay in the arrival of the body, which did not reach this city until Saturday morning, necessitated the change in the funeral arrangements, which had been formerly set for Saturday afternoon.
Spanish influenza took a toll of three in Fulton county over the week end: Mrs. Ed. SQUIRES, of Rochester, Miss Lannie BECK, north of Rochester, and Robert WAGONER, south of the city.

Despite this fact, Dr. C. J. LORING, county health officer, stated Monday morning that “in the past two or three days, we have been getting the upper hand of the epidemic.” The death rate here has been small.

Dr. Archie Brown, city health officer, said that while many new cases were reported, he did not believe that the epidemic was growing. “There are just as many recoveries as there are new cases,” he said.

Dr. Brown also said that if city residents continued to ignore his order regarding the burning of leaves after four o’clock, prosecutions would follow. When there is so much throat and lung sickness abroad, the smoky atmosphere induced by burning leaves, causes increased irritation.

Mrs. Etta SQUIRES, 28, wife of Edward SQUIRES, died at 1:30 a.m. Monday at her home on Monroe St., a victim of pneumonia, developing from Spanish influenza. She was taken ill on Thursday last.

Besides the husband, who is under a physician’s care with the same disease, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison MARTIN, west of Rochester survive. A brother and sister are dead.

Miss Lannie BECK, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John BECK, north of Rochester, died Monday morning at four o’clock at the home of her parents, a victim of Spanish influenza. She was ill only a week.

There survive the parents, four sisters, Norah [BECK], of Rochester; Martha [BECK], of Claypool and Jennie [BECK] and Etta [BECK], who live with the parents, and three brothers, B. B. BECK, of this city; George [BECK] of Indianapolis, and Tom [BECK], who is in a military camp in Georgia.

Funeral arrangements later.

Robert WAGONER, six, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward WAGONER, died Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents, six miles south of Rochester, after less than a weeks illness. Death was caused by Spanish influenza, from which the entire family is suffering, altho none is seriously ill.

Besides the parents, three brothers, Russell [WAGONER], Melvin [WAGONER] and Milo [WAGONER], who live with the parents, survive.

Funeral in the yard at the home at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Among the list of those dead from disease in Monday’s casualties is the name of Clarence O. BENG, whose near relative is listed as Miss Almeda BENG, emergency address, Akron, Ind.

Inquiry develops that Benge was a nephew of Dan SECOR, Akron hardware man, with whom he and his sister, Miss Almeda, formerly made their home. The young man, who was about 26 years of age, enlisted in California, several years ago, as a mechanic in a heavy artillery unit and had been abroad just a few months. Akron relatives had had two letters from him “over there.” Besides the sister named, who is now Mrs. Jess ONSTOTT, of Kokomo, another sister survives. The parents are dead.
One of the county’s aged and respected citizens turned his face to the wall Tuesday morning at 7:00 o’clock, when Joseph HARDING, 87, died at his home just north of Loyal, after a general breakdown lasting a little more than 10 days. The end was gradual and peaceful.

Mr. Harding had resided on the farm where he died for a period of about 45 years, coming there from Miami county. He was born in Buckingham, England in 1831 and came to this country when about 21 years of age, settling in Ohio, after traveling considerably.

In 1853, he married Mary E. VANKIRK, of Newport, Ohio, and to this union, seven children were born, two of whom, Edward [HARDING] and an infant, are dead. Those surviving are: Mrs. Lou ZOOK, Manchester, Tenn.; Mrs. Mason PERRY, Akron; Dr. G. W. HARDING, Warsaw; Mrs. Oscar TILDEN, near Portland, Ore.; and Mrs. Milton H. POFFENBERGER, near Loyal.

Mr. Harding married again, after his first wife died, and after the second wife passed away, wedded Mrs. Eliza EMMONS, of Rochester, 13 years ago this month. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and spent practically all of his life on a farm. A brother died in this country two years ago and a sister in England, several years ago. There are no other relatives.

Funeral at 11:00 a.m. Thursday from the home. No flowers.

T. Fred McKAY, 34, died at the hospital Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. another Fulton county victim of Spanish influenza. McKay, who was stricken with the disease just a week before his death, gradually grew worse until Monday night, when on account of the illness of his wife, Mrs. Pearl McKay, he was taken to the hospital in a dying condition.

Besides the widow, his mother, Mrs. Viola McKay, of Kokomo, two sisters, Mrs. Minnie IRVIN, of Kokomo and Mrs. Mary HALL, of Oklahoma, and a brother, Commodore McKay, of Bremen, survive. The body will be taken to Kokomo for burial.

T. Fred McKay was born in Kokomo on September 9th, 1884, where he made his home with his parents until his marriage in 1907. Three years ago he moved to Rochester where he opened a wallpaper and paint shop, conducting his business in this city until his demise.

Mrs. McKay was able to be up on Monday, and the grief stricken, was believed to be in a much improved condition on Tuesday.

Another death, that of Mrs. Estil GRAFFIS, was added to the influenza toll Wednesday, while several other cases, notably that of Mrs. Milo COPLEN, of Rochester, were reported very serious. Health officers insist, however, that the epidemic is abating.

Mrs. Estil Graffis, 29, died Tuesday evening at nine o’clock at her home five miles northeast of Rochester, a victim of Spanish influenza. She had recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, was taken ill with the influenza about two weeks ago and later contracted pneumonia. Outdoor funeral at the home Thursday at 2:00 p.m. Burial in Rochester I.O.O.F. cemetery.

There survive the husband; three children, Wendell [GRAFFIS], Ruth Marjorie [GRAFFIS] and Levi Jacob [GRAFFIS], Jr.; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob ZIMPLEMAN, of North Manchester; a sister, Carrie [ZIMPLEMAN], of Wisconsin; and five brothers, George [ZIMPLEMAN], Clarence [ZIMPLEMAN], Roy [ZIMPLEMAN] and Russell ZIMPLEMAN, of North Manchester, and Orvin ZIMPLEMAN, of Pulaski county.
The funeral services for Mrs. Edward SQUIRES were held at the home, corner Seventh and Monroe Sts., Wednesday at 2:00 p.m., Rev. Geo B. CRANE in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

The funeral services of Fred McKAY, who died at the hospital Tuesday afternoon, will be held Thursday at Kokomo, at the home of Mrs. McKay’s sister, Mrs. Ernest MUMAUGH, on 741 South Macan St.

Word has been received here of the death of Andrew AULT, brother of Lon AULT, and a former resident of this city, at Shelbyville, Indiana. He was a victim of Spanish influenza.

The body of Fred HOFFMAN, son of Mrs. Susan HOFFMAN of Grass Creek, was shipped to his home Tuesday. He died at Camp Taylor Tuesday, a victim of influenza.

Harry Elmer GINTHER, son of Mr. and Mrs. John GINTHER, was born near Leiters Ford, Ind., April 26 1885, departed this life Oct 8, 1918, age 33 years, five months 12 days. In the spring of 1909 he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie CAMERER, of Rochester, Ind.; to this union was born one daughter, Marjorie Roslyn [GINTHER]. Besides a wife and daughter he leaves a father, mother, two brothers, Henry [GINTHER], of Pueblo, Colo., William [GINTHER], of Culver, Ind., one sister, Louise [GINTHER], at home, a grandmother and many other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death. Harry was a kind and loving husband, father, son and brother and his death has cast a dark cloud over all.

Mrs. Matilda SHORT has returned to her home in Kokomo after being called here on account of the death of her son-in-law, Fred McKAY.

Thursday, October 17, 1918

Edward William THOMPSON, 35, died at his home in East Rochester, Wednesday evening at seven o’clock, after being ill with Spanish influenza for less than a week. During the last three days of his illness, Mr. Thompson was delirious and spoke of nothing but the bridge factory, where he had been employed for the past 11 years. Mrs. Thompson is also ill with the prevalent disease.

There survive the widow, Mrs. Hertha THOMPSON; two children, Everett [THOMPSON], seven, and Marjorie [THOMPSON], four; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel THOMPSON, of Leiters Ford; three brothers, James [THOMPSON], of Churubusco, Elva [THOMPSON], of Talma, and Frank [THOMPSON], of South Carolina, and a sister, Mrs. Fred BATZ, of Leiters Ford. A son, Lloyd [THOMPSON], died just a year ago.

Edward William Thompson was born in Fulton county on February 6th, 1883. On July 27th, 1907 he was married to Miss Hertha RUSSELL. He had been a life long resident of Fulton county and Rochester.

Funeral arrangements later.

The body of Mrs. Clyde HOPPER, 33, who died Monday morning at her home in Rockford, Ill., of Spanish influenza, was brot to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.George W. MITCHELL Wednesday.

She is survived by the husband, three children, Raymond [HOPPER], Max [HOPPER] and Phyllis BRYANT, the parents, two sisters, Mrs. Daisy KELLEY and Mrs. C. M.
RHODES, Rochester, and two brothers, W. T. MITCHELL, of Rockford and Roscoe MITCHELL, of Amerett, Minn.

FLU BAN EXTENDED TO OCT. 26

By International News Service

Indianapolis, Oct 18 -- Dr. J. N. HURTY, secretary of the State Board of Health, announced today that the ban on schools, churches and all public meetings in Indiana would not be lifted until midnight of October 26.

The ban was to have been lifted Sunday night, but following receipt of reports from 43 counties, Dr. Hurty said he was convinced that influenza epidemic was not well enough in hand to permit the opening of public places on Sunday. New cases reported Thursday totalled 2,688.

One more death occurred in Fulton county as a result of the Spanish influenza, that of Mrs. Milo COPLEN, 26, of this city. Mrs. Boyd BIDWELL, a former resident of this city, was also a victim. Her death occurred in New Mexico.

City and county physicians Friday were much cheered by the drop in temperature, the general consensus of their opinion being that clear frosty weather would do more towards crushing the influenza epidemic than anything else.

It was again emphasized, however, that too much care cannot be taken to avoid the malady, nor can persons afflicted, or those caring for the sick, take too many precautions against spreading the disease.

Particular stress is being laid upon the absolute necessity for using gauze breathing masks when near those who are ill.

Mrs. Milo COPLEN, 26, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion PORTER, East 14th St., Thursday night at 11 o’clock a victim of Spanish influenza. She was taken ill just 10 days preceding her death. The husband, parents and a son, Francis Porter COPLEN, three, survive. Funeral at the house Saturday afternoon, Rev. F. Z. BURKETTE, of Greensburg, in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Mrs. Hannabel COPLEN was born in Rochester on March 25th, 1892, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Marion PORTER. She was educated in this city, making her home with her parents until her marriage in August 1914 to Milo COPLEN. Just before the wedding she was for some time the bookkeeper at the SENTINEL office.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Boyd BIDWELL, formerly Miss Ethel O’DAFFER, of this city. Mrs. Bidwell was enroute from her home to Los Angeles, California, to South Bend, for a visit with her parents, when she became ill with Spanish influenza on the train. She was in New Mexico at the time of her death. Besides her husband, she leaves a mother, father, two brothers and two sisters. The body will probably be brought to this city for burial.

Funeral services for Ed THOMPSON, who died Wednesday evening, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o’clock in the yard at the home, the Moose lodge in charge and the service by Rev. George CRANE. A brother, Frank THOMPSON, stationed at Camp Sevier,
S.C., is expected here Saturday. Burial at the I.O.O.F. cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Marie HARDING, who died at her home south of Macy Wednesday morning, at the age of 80 years, was held at the home, conducted by Rev. S. C.
NORRIS, of Culver, assisted by Rev. DAVIES, of the Macy M.E. church. Burial was made in Plainview cemetery west of town. - - - MACY ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McGEE and daughter, Grace [McGEE], and Fred ROWE attended the funeral of Claud MOORE at Adamsboro last Thursday. - - - ATHENS ITEMS.

Saturday, October 19, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. John DUVALL, northeast of this city, received a telegram Friday stating that their son, Ben [DUVALL], of Jamestown, North Dakota, had died of influenza. They formerly lived west of this city, but nine years ago he moved his family to North Dakota, where he resided until the time of his death. Benjamin DUVALL was born in Illinois, Sept 27, 1872. He leaves a wife, six children, father, mother and one brother, Bert DUVALL.

The body of Mrs. Sherman PECK, aged about 43, who died in Watford City, N.D., Friday will be brought here for burial, relatives here learned Saturday. She had been an invalid for a number of years. The Pecks formerly lived in Rochester. The husband survives, and West HARTMAN, of Peru, is a brother.

[NOTE: Jean C. & Wendell C. Tombaugh, Fulton County Indiana Cemeteries,
Rochester I.O.O.F. Cemetery: Sherman J. PECK, 1869-1933; Lydia PECK, 1872-1918;
Thomas W. PECK, 1872-1902]

Monday, October 21, 1918

Alfred MECHLING, 65, of near Tippecanoe, committed suicide Monday morning by shooting himself, it was learned here late in the afternoon.

The funeral services for Mrs. Sherman PECK, who died last week at her home in Watford City, N.D., were held privately Monday afternoon from the Hoover chapel, Rev. A.
E. WRENTMORE being in charge. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery. Among those here to attend the funeral were Mr. PECK, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley HARTMAN, of Peru, Harley HARTMAN, of South Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed CRON, (nee Marguerite HARTMAN), of Virginia City, Minn., and Frank PECK, of Rochester.

The Spanish influenza epidemic exacted a toll of three more lives in Fulton county over the week end and there are still several people who are said to be lying at death’s door with the disease. Those who succumbed were Estil GRAFFIS, northeast of the city, Claude CHESNUT, Rochester and Emil [DAGGY], son of Del DAGGY, Rochester.

It was stated, however, by local and county physicians that the epidemic has abated to some extent and with cold weather promised, it is believed that another week will see a marked change in this locality.

Claude CHESNUT, 25, died at three o’clock Sunday afternoon at his home on South Elm St., after a short illness. Death was caused by Spanish influenza. The widow, Mrs. Esther CHESNUT, and daughter, Myrtle Jane [CHESNUT], who are also afflicted, were reported somewhat improved Monday.

Besides the widow and daughter, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. CHESNUT and two sisters, Misses Edith [CHESNUT] and Irene CHESNUT, of Chicago, survive. For some time, he has been employed at the bridge factory.

Funeral at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles CHESNUT, corner of 14th and Elm Sts., on Tuesday afternoon, at 2:00 p.m. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Estil GRAFFIS, 28, died Monday morning at four o’clock at his farm home northeast of Rochester, a victim of Spanish influenza, just six days after the death of his wife from the same cause. There survive three children, Wendell [GRAFFIS], Ruth Marjorie [GRAFFIS] and Levi Jacob [GRAFFIS]; the father, Levi M. GRAFFIS, of Rochester; a brother, Clarence GRAFFIS, southwest of the city and a sister, Mrs. Ray DULL, of Monroe, Mich. Outdoor funeral at the house Tuesday afternoon at two o’clock, Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Emil Ray DAGGY, 21 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Del DAGGY, Elm St., died Sunday afternoon after an illness of one week of Spanish influenza. The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at the home and burial was made in the I.O.O.F. cemetery. The Daggyys have resided in this city for the past three years. The father, who is employed at the bridge factory, and the six surviving children are suffering from the disease.

The body of Mrs. Boyd BIDWELL, who died of influenza in California, will be brought to Rochester for burial some time this week. The party did not start home until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry MOON, Mr. and Mrs. Frank YOUNG and Mr. and Mrs. Otto RICHARDSON, all of Logansport, Mr. and Mrs. L. BABCOCK, of Peru, Mr. and Mrs. Voris LOWE, of Marion and Walter PORTER, of Pontiac, Ill., attended the funeral of Mrs. Milo COPLEN in this city Saturday.

Lannie Viola BECK, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John BECK, was born in Fulton county, Indiana, July 20, 1899, died October 14, 1918, age 19 years, two months and 13 days.

When but a small child she united with the Sand Hill M.E. church. Since that time she has taken an active interest in church work and at her death was Secretary of the Sand Hill Sunday school. She was a member of the Rebekah lodge.

She graduated from the common school at Sand Hill and had started on her fourth year of high school. She was interested in school work and was very anxious to obtain an education.

She leaves to mourn their loss a loving father and mother, four sisters, Mrs. Jessie HALTERMAN and Mrs. Ettie OVERMYER of near Sand Hill, Mrs. Nora BALDWIN, of

Although health officers Friday believed that influenza was abating in the county, the epidemic struck this community one of its most severe blows at 12:55 p.m., when it caused the death of Dell KESSLER, 38, a well known citizen, at his home just north of the city on the Michigan road, where he had lived since his mother died four years ago.

Mr. Kessler, who was one of the leading insurance men of the city and the candidate on the democratic ticket for county treasurer, became ill with the prevailing disease just a week ago Thursday and gradually grew worse. On Thursday his case developed into pneumonia and on Friday morning delirium came. Weak lungs are believed to have aided in bringing the end.

Dell Kessler was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. KESSLER, and was born in March 1880, on a farm north of where he died. His youth was spent on the farm, after which he taught school for five years and then entered the insurance and loan business. At the time of his death, he was a partner in the firm of KESSLER and MILLER, a successful insurance concern. Practically all of his life, with the exception of several winters in the West, was spent in this county.

In November, 1899, he married Miss Etta CONNER, who, with four children, Homer [KESSLER], Ralph [KESSLER], Marie [KESSLER] and George [KESSLER], survive, together with the father; a brother, Martin [KESSLER], of Detroit and a sister, Mrs. Charles JACKSON, of near Rochester.

He was a prominent member of the I.O.O.F. and Masonic lodges.

Funeral arrangements later.

Tuesday, October 29, 1918

George Washington DuBois, 71, ex-county auditor, dropped dead of heart failure while eating breakfast at his farm home south of Rochester early Tuesday morning. The death was a shock to the family, as Mr. DuBois had been apparently hale and hearty, having visited Rochester Monday, at which time he paid his taxes and visited with many friends in the city.

George Washington DuBois was born in 1847 at Green Oak, on the old DuBois homestead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Methusalem DuBois. He lived with his parents until he reached young manhood when he moved to Roscoe, Mo., where for some time he conducted a general store.

Returning to Fulton county, he was united in marriage to Miss Amy Horton in 1870. He later moved to Cass county where he at that time owned a farm and resided for about 10 years.

Moving back to Fulton county he resided on several farms, in later years purchasing the present home south of Rochester.

At two different times Mr. DuBois was a candidate for county treasurer on the democratic ticket. He was in 1906 elected on the same ticket to the office of county auditor, retiring from public life at the expiration of his term of office in 1911.

Mr. DuBois was a member of the Masonic lodge, a strong advocate of temperance and a life long member of the democratic party.

Funeral arrangements later.

The body of James Leroy Snyder, who died at Camp Taylor, of influenza, was brought Tuesday morning to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snyder, near Mt. Zion. - - - MACY ITEMS.

Henry Joy [HITTLE], son of Mr. and Mrs. William HITTLE, was born in Green Tp., Marshall Co., Ind., Sept 3, 1896 and died Oct 20, 1918, aged 22 years, one month and 17 days.

Joy attended the Santa Anna school until his graduation in 1914. His schooling was piece-meal, because he was an asthma sufferer since a child and health never permitted him to go to school as other children. He was ambitious and so much desired to finish common school that he studied whenever possible to keep pace with his classmates, finally graduating with class honors.

In Dec 1916, he united with the Jordan Baptist church and remained a true Christian till he was called.

Sunday Oct. 13, he became afflicted with influenza and after a weeks intense suffering his frail form succumbed to the disease. Four brothers and four sisters preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn, his heartbroken parents, three brothers: Ernest [HITTLE] in service in France; Lawrence [HITTLE], in training at Camp Sheridan, too ill to attend the funeral, and Ralph [HITTLE], at home; two sisters, Iva [HITTLE] at home and Mrs. Gladys PERSONETTE, besides numerous other relatives and friends.

On account of the prevailing epidemic and illness of other members of the family, the funeral was held Monday afternoon at the Jordan cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. A. L. VERMILLION. - - - GILEAD-JORDAN ITEMS.

The body of Fred HARTZ was brought here Saturday from Fort Benjamin Harrison for burial, which took place Sunday afternoon. The funeral was held at the house. Rev. J. HARRIS was in charge of services and burial was at Leiters Ford.

Fred was one of a family of twelve children, of Mrs. Elias HARTZ. His father and one brother preceded him in death. Aside from the brother, Benjamin [HARTZ], who is with the American forces in France, all the children attended the funeral. Fred entered the service early in Sept., first at Camp Taylor and then at the camp where he died of pneumonia. - - - DELONG ITEMS.

Isaiah [SWIHART], son of Joshua and Katherine SWIHART, was born in Wabash county, Ind., 1847; died at his home in Athens, Ind., Oct 31, 1918, aged 71 yrs., eight months and 19 days. On Sept 12, 1873 he was united in marriage to Mary Elizabeth MOORE, who preceded him in death in 1915. To this union were born 10 children, three sons and seven daughter, all of whom survive him. He also leaves one brother, Annanias [SWIHART], of Akron, and two sisters, Mrs. Susan THOMPSON, of Akron, and Mrs. Katherine DAVIDSON, of Nova, Ohio, and seventeen grandchildren.

Early in life he united with the Brethren church in which faith he remained until death. His last illness was fraught with much pain but he bore it patiently and expressed his willingness to go. He was a kind husband, a loving father and a helpful neighbor. He leaves a host of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at the home on Saturday, conducted by Rev. D. A. HOPKINS, of Twelve Mile, and interment was made in the Mt. Hope cemetery.

Friday, November 8, 1918

Charles BURGENER, 56, a farmer living near Converse, died Friday morning at 10:30 o’clock at the hospital from injuries sustained when the car in which he and his son, Guy [BURGENER], were driving thru to LaPorte to visit another son ill in a hospital there, was struck by a west bound Erie express train at the Main St. crossing at 5:45 a.m. Friday. The train does not stop here.

The son, late Friday afternoon, was still in a critical condition, but the exact chance he stood for recovery could not be definitely stated.

Another son, H. O. BURGENER, of Marion, arrived in this city Friday morning. The dead man also leaves a widow, Mrs. Lucinda BURGENER.

Young Burgener’s injury consisted of two severe fractures of the skull and had flesh lacerations while the other occupant of the ill fated car suffered a broken leg, broken arm, crushed elbow and was badly cut and bruised. The car in which the men were traveling is a complete wreck.

The victims were not found until six o’clock, when Robert QUINN, Erie night man, discovered that there had ben an accident and summoned aid to get the victims to the hospital.

Miss Bertha PRILL, of the R. P. TRUE restaurant, stated that shortly after five o’clock two men, one young and the other evidently the father, came into the restaurant and inquired the road to Plymouth. They told Miss Prill that they were from Grant county. (Converse is almost on the Miami-Grant county line) and were enroute to LaPorte, where they had a brother and son in the hospital.

The men were taken to the hospital in the Arlington bus, and given surgical and medical attention. At an early hour Friday, it was stated that neither had much chance for recovery, as the exposure and shock, coupled with the nature of their injuries, made their cases very critical. Young Burgner’s skull was so badly crushed that it was necessary to remove a piece nearly two inches square.

Word was received here today of the death in October of Miss Mary A. EAMEN, of Detroit, Mich. She was 79 years old. Several years ago after the death of her brother, who was well known here, she presented the Presbyterian church in this city with a pipe organ in fulfillment of a wish she had often heard him express.

Saturday, November 9, 1918

Tuesday, November 26, 1918

Mrs. George SHONTZ, of this city, received word Saturday that her nephew, Corp. Donald C. BRYAN, of Mishawaka, had died in France, as the result of wounds received in action on October 9th. Corp. Bryan was 23 years old and previously employed by the Gillette Motor Car Co. He was a member of the First Christian church of Mishawaka.

John W. BLACK, 24, died at 10:00 o’clock Monday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George BLACK, over the postoffice, a victim of cerebro spinal meningitis, contracted from Spanish influenza. Besides the parents, a brother, Tom BLACK, in training at West Point, Ky., survives. The brother was summoned to Rochester, but did not arrive.

John Black was born in Rochester on June 16, 1894. He was graduated from the high school of this city, later taking employment at the Bridge factory and then at W. A. Howard’s jewelry store, where he was in charge of the Victrola department. During the past six months he was employed in Indianapolis, joining the Red Cross in Chicago for ambulance driving three weeks ago. He was in training at Camp Scott, Chicago, when he was taken ill. He came home to Rochester just a week before his death. During his illness he was delirious much of the time.

He was a member of the Methodist church and of Rochester lodge No. 79, F. and A. M. He was well known and popular in Rochester, numbering his friends by the score. He had made numerous attempts to get into the service, but failed each time, because of physical shortcomings. He was rejected for an officer’s training camp, for conscription and for Y. M. C. A. service, but finally was admitted to training as a Red Cross ambulance driver.

Red Cross authorities at Chicago have advised that John Black be buried in his Red Cross uniform and be given full military honors.

Funeral Thursday at 2:00 p.m., Rev. George CRAIG in charge.

Word was received here Monday of the death of Mrs. Ray C. NUDING at her home in Elwood, from complications following Spanish influenza. Mrs. Nuding had often been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph BROWNE, So. Main St., and was well known here. Her health had been bad for several years and it is believed that this may have hastened the end. Mr. Nuding is an Elwood hardware dealer.

Word was received here that Noble ROBBINS, a son-in-law of Wm. ALSPACH, had died. No particulars were learned. He had been in an aviation camp in California. He lived here with his parents a number of years ago. - - - MACY ITEMS.

George Henry (Dick) ELKINS, 55, a well known character of this city, was found dead in his chair over Sheward’s feed store early Friday morning.

The body, which was discovered by Tom SHAFFER and O. L. OSBORNE, who also have rooms over Sheward’s, was found sitting in a chair. He had evidently been dead for a number of hours as the body was cold and rigor mortis had set in. A cat was found lying on his lap.

Elkins had taken Thanksgiving dinner Thursday with his daughter, Mrs. A. D. MUTCHEL, whose house he had left at about four o’clock in the afternoon. His habit had been to stop in and visit Shaffer and Osborne before retiring for the night, but altho Shaffer and Osborne heard him enter his rooms late in the afternoon, he did not come back and visit them. This aroused their suspicions, especially as they heard nothing of him in the morning, with the result that they entered his room and found him dead.

Elkins had often told friends that he was injured internally from a fall sustained a year or two ago in a local livery barn. Besides the daughter, a half-sister, Mrs. Riley McIntire, of this city, and a half-brother, Frank Collins, of Tiosa, survive.

Funeral Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. MUTCHEL, east Rochester, Rev. W. J. Niven in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

The Methodist church was well filled Thursday afternoon with those who attended funeral services for John W. BLACK. The body rested in state at the church from 1:30 to 2:00 p.m.
Saturday, November 30, 1918

The death of George Henry (Dick) ELKINS was caused by organic heart trouble, probably arterio sclerosis, according to Dr. A. E. STINSON, of Athens, county coroner.

Word has been received here of the death in Indianapolis Friday afternoon of Mrs. Thusnelda PEEMOLLER, aged about 75, formerly of Rochester, a step-daughter of the late Mrs. Henrietta HUDTWALKER and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Eliza HUDTWALKER, of this city. There survive a daughter, Mrs. Thusnelda BARRETT, of Indianapolis, and a son, John [PEEMOLLER], of St. Paul, Minn. Funeral Monday with burial probably here.

Monday, December 2, 1918

Funeral services for Mrs. Thusnelda PEEMOLLER were held Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thusnelda BARRETT, 6500 Central Ave., Indianapolis. Burial at Crown Hill cemetery in that city.

Cancer of the abdomen proved fatal to Mrs. George CUNNINGHAM, 33, who died at 5:10 p.m. Monday in her home, 1120 Pontiac St., after an operation performed 15 weeks ago in an attempt to give her relief. The end was peaceful.

Elsie Matilda WAGONER was the daughter of John and Matilda WAGONER and was born Aug 17, 1884, in Fulton county, where she resided most of her life. About 15 years ago, she was married to George CUNNINGHAM, who survives, with five children, Claude [CUNNINGHAM], Ethel [CUNNINGHAM], Wilbur [CUNNINGHAM], Puges [CUNNINGHAM] and Avonelle [CUNNINGHAM], ranging in age from 13 to five.

There are also five brothers living: Edward [WAGONER], Wallace [WAGONER], Charles [WAGONER], Harry [WAGONER] and Del [WAGONER]. The father died about a year ago, but the mother resides on So. Main St.

Perry Michael SHORE, 86, a pioneer citizen of Fulton county, and for 45 years one of Rochester’s leading business men, died at his home, corner Fifth and Pontiac Streets, Tuesday morning at 8:45 o’clock. Mr. Shore has been ill for the past six months. Death was due to apoplexy and complications.

Perry M. Shore was born on December 7th, 1852, on the old Shore homestead, five miles north of Rochester. He was one of a family of five children born to Tolbert C. and Lydia Anne SHORE, deceased. His brothers, Kline W. [SHORE], of this city; A. L. [SHORE], of Los Angeles, Calif.; Tolbert C. [SHORE] of San Diego, Calif.; and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth SIDELL, of Arcadia, Calif., all survive.

When a young man, Mr. Shore moved to Rochester where he started in business for himself, launching into his prosperous career with a peanut stand, which was later developed into the leading drug and general business of the city. With the exception of a short period, during which Mr. Shore was the proprietor of a drug store in Monticello, Mo., he was in business in this city all of his life, retiring from active work about 12 years ago.

In 1874 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary A. SMITH, of Bruce Lake, who survives. To this union were born three children, all now residents of this city: Earl SHORE and Arthur SHORE and Mrs. Artella WILSON.

Mr. Shore was a republican and active in politics. For three successive terms he sat in the chair of the town council and was once elected a member of the city council.

Funeral at the Presbyterian church Thursday at 2:00 p.m., Rev. H. Gerald GAIGE in charge. Interment at I.O.O.F. cemetery. The body may be viewed at the church Thursday between the hours of one and two o’clock.

Word was received here Tuesday noon of the death at 11:00 o’clock of Frank BUNN, 63, a farmer, who had lived near Richland Center all his life. He had been ill for more than a year with paralysis. Besides the widow, there survive five children, Mrs. Perry LOWMAN and Mrs. Clyde LOUGH, of Rochester, Mrs. Ralph BRESICK, of Preble and Bert [BUNN] and Ed BUNN.

A telegram was received here Monday from Garrett, Ind., saying David CARTER was killed by the bursting of pipes in the water works and electric plant plant there. He had been employed as head man in that plant for many years. He was a half-brother of Mrs. Sam WENGER and Mrs. Marsh HILL, of Rochester.

Wednesday, December 4, 1918

Mrs. Levi CREG was found dead in bed Saturday night by her husband. She had been ill for some time. She was the mother of eight children, all of whom are living. Two sons are in the service, on in France, and one in camp here. Burial will be made at Washington cemetery, Monday morning a 10:30. - - - POPLAR GROVE ITEMS.

Miss Ellen HUDTWALKER and Mrs. E. ALEXANDER have returned from Indianapolis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. T. PEEMOLLER Monday.

Thursday, December 5, 1918

Altho the guns have been silent in France for almost a month and peace reigns the world over, many American homes are still waiting anxiously to hear from loved ones in France.

Such anxiety turned to deepest grief in a Rochester abode Wednesday night, when a message from Admiral General Harris, at Washington, brought word to Mrs. Gertrude MADARY that her son, Private Verle MADARY, 23, 60th C.A.C. Company, was killed in action in France, Oct. 14. The last word from Pvt Madary came in a letter written Oct. 4, at which time he was near the front lines. He is the second Fulton county boy to be killed in action.

Madary enlisted here early in March, of this year, joining the Coast Artillery, being sent first to Columbus, O., and then to Camp Stewart, Newport News, Va. He went overseas about the first of May and for some time was located near Bordeaux, assisting in dental work in a training camp. Later, he was placed in charge of an ambulance in the Medical Corps, C.A.C., and went up to the front lines in September. There are no particulars available regarding his death.

Verle Madary was born near Fulton and came to Rochester with his family about the time of the death of his father, 10 years ago. He attended the city schools, held a number of positions, including a reportorial job on the SENTINEL, and developed considerable vocal ability. He was very active in the Baptist church, of which he was a member. Besides his mother, there survive a sister, Miss Inez [MADARY], and a brother, Roy [MADARY], who is a SENTINEL, carrier. They reside on So. Main St.

Friday, December 6, 1918

The following persons from out of town attended the funeral of P. M. SHORE Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. Harry SMITH, of Goshen; Mr. and Mrs. Sam SMITH, Mr. and Mrs. Dan SMITH, Mr. and Mrs. Frank SMITH, Mr. and Mrs. Ben SMITH and Mr. and Mrs. Frank HUDKINS, all of Kewanna; George SMITH and Slas SMITH and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. SHINE, of Bruce Lake.

In an effort to verify and learn particulars of the death of Pvt. Clarance Verle MADARY in France, Ernest GREEN, his uncle, of near this city, has cabled Lieut. ENGLISH of the 60th C.A.C. Co., and other communications have been sent to officials who might be able to give information. It was learned Friday that Pvt. Madary had $10,000 war risk insurance, which in due course of time will come to his family here.

Rev. W. J. NIVEN, who wired Congressman BARNHART for information, Friday received a confirming telegram from the representative, in which he explained that the delay in the notification (Madary was killed Oct 14th) was due to confusion in names cabled from overseas.

Monday, December 16, 1918

Mrs. Walter STICKLES, recently of Elkhart, but formerly of Rochester, died at Los Angeles, Calif. The husband, two daughters and one son survive. Mr. Stickles was for years a well known Rochester printer and his wife was active in local church and lodge work.

Fred Stewart McKinney, eldest son of John and Mary McKinney, was born near Piper City, Ill., October 25, 1881. He died of influenza, December 12, 1918, age 37 years, one month, 18 days - - - - -

It is easy to think of Fred as the same, his character needed so little to fit it for the better world. He was always forgetting self, in interest of others. His loving devotion to the family never interfered with the loyalty to his friends or the interest with the welfare of the community. His sympathies were broad in this world. He glorified friendship, making it not only for time but for eternity. The memories of his friendship will never die. His cheerful patience and careful consideration of those about him for the family made the closing days of his life a benediction to them all. But we will still think of him as the same. - - - - -

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church, of Rochester. He leaves to mourn his loss the father, mother, two brothers, James [McKinney] at home and John W. [McKinney], near Rochester, and three sisters, Mabel [McKinney], at home, Bessie Werner and Anna BEARSS.

Mrs. Frank DAVIDSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe ANDERSON, northeast of Rochester, died Tuesday morning at her home in Chicago, of heart trouble, according to word received by Rochester relatives. Besides the husband and arents, a daughter, Marjorie [DAVIDSON], two brothers and two sisters. The body will be brot to this city Thursday for burial.
The funeral of Martin KELLER, of Monterey, was held Tuesday at the home. Mr. Keller took sick several weeks ago and while very ill, the news was received that his son had been killed in action in France. Despite his constant demands for information concerning the boy, the death report was held until it was thought that he was out of danger. When told the sorrowful news, the father immediately became worse and died the next day.

How Private Verle MADARY met death from a piece of a high explosive shell, while at his post of duty, is described in a letter written Oct 20 and received Tuesday by his mother, Mrs. Gertrude MADARY, from Major Edward M. COLIS, Medical Corps, 60th Artillery C.A.C. The dead Fulton county boy’s officer speaks highly of him. The letter follows:

“My Dear Mrs. Madary:

“By the time that this note of appreciation arrives at your home, you will have had notice thru official channels that you have at once lost and won a boy. I put it this way because as surgeon in this regiment, I am in contact with the men who made up the regiment and particularly with the medical department men, of whom Verle was one.

“He was, as his mother should know, a real man, young in years, of which all of the men who have spoken to me have remarked. He made himself felt, that is what I meant by winning men of that type are not permanently lost. That thought would be unsupportable. The sense of loss to all too recent for any word of mine, however appreciative, to mitigate it. But please feel that you have given and given fully and freely that those things which we at home held most dear and sacred may be preserved.

“He was killed by a scrap of a high explosive shell which entred the house where he was working. He was at his post of duty at the moment. He was, you know, assistant to one of our dentists. His grave lies under my window in a small flower garden and there are with him ten others one of whom was struck down in the same way. The other day I saw one of the boys gathering a bunch of such flowers as still bloom. He reverently placed them upon the mound which covers not Verle, but that which was Verle’s body.

“If you are as certain as I am, that there is nothing wasted in this world and I believe it in spite of what I have to see here, then feel very proud that you have given so largely for that which we cannot clearly see, but which our faith tells us is surely there.”

Funeral services for Charles HIATT were held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon in the yard of the home at Leiters Ford. The body was to be taken to Darlington, Ind., for burial.

Thursday, December 19, 1918

The body of Mrs. Frank DAVIDSON, Jr., who died in Chicago, arrived in this city Thursday afternoon. Funeral arrangements later.

Theodore DAVIDSON, of Ohio, is in this city on account of the death of Mrs. Frank DAVIDSON, Jr.

Silas CLEMANS, 60, died Monday morning of heart disease, following influenza. For several years he had suffered from paralysis. He was at his home, two miles southeast of Macy, and had gone out to feed some pigs, but failed to return. His son went in search of him and found him unconscious but before the physician arrived he had died.

Besides the widow, he leaves a son, Marvin [CLEMANS], a step-daughter, Miss Helen MILLER, two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. E. A. HENDRICKS, of Deedsville, Mrs. M. J.
WHITMORE, of Pulaski, New York, John [CLEMANS] and Thomas CLEMANS, near Macy.

Funeral services were held from the home Thursday morning, Rev. Thomas DAVIS in charge. Burial in Plainview cemetery.

Mrs. Malissa HOFFMAN, 56, died Friday morning at the home on South Elm Street, after a short illness caused by pneumonia, which followed an attack of influenza.

Mrs. Hoffman was born near Loyal, Ind., and on March 13, 1883, married Phillip HOFFMAN. They were the parents of three children, two of whom survive, Mrs. Charles E. BRAMAN, and Mrs. Ray B. FRETZ of this city.

After the death of Phillip HOFFMAN, on June 22, 1892, she married Harvey HOFFMAN on March 1st, 1893. They moved to Rochester in 1900.

She leaves one sister and two brothers, Mrs. John WALTER, of this city, George HARVEY, of Elbing, Kans., and Frank HARVEY of near Rochester. She was a member of the Christian church.

Funeral Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home, Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank DAVIDSON, Jr., who died in Chicago, Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o’clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe ANDERSON, northeast of this city. Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Saturday, December 21, 1918

Fort Wayne, Dec. 21 -- The body of Dr. George GROGG, of Roann, Ind., who escaped from a sanitarium here, was found dangling from the end of a rope in a sheep shed on the farm of John REBBER, near here Friday. Dr. Grogg, a veterinary surgeon, suffered from the delusion that government officials were after him and this is believed to have led him to taking his life.

According to relatives, the SENTINEL erred Friday in stating that Mrs. Malissa HOFFMAN’s death was caused by pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza. They assert that she die not have influenza.

Monday, December 23, 1918

J. D. BONINE, Sunday received a letter from Miss Ruth P. MANAHAN, of Angola, stating that her brother, L. D. PARISH, a former employe of the Arlington hotel, who enlisted in July 1917 as a stretcher bearer, had been killed in France. Parish, who was about 23 years of age, is survived by a foster-mother, two sisters and two brothers. He was recently listed in the government casualty list as missing in action. Parish was employed in this city for more than five years.

Mrs. Flora Belle SINGLETON, 25, died at noon Sunday at her home on Cottage Avenue a victim of pneumonia contracted from influenza. She was ill only 10 days.

Besides the husband, Roland SINGLETON, there survive the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. CLINGER, of this city, three children, William [SINGLETON], Frederick [SINGLETON] and Benjamin [SINGLETON], two sisters, Mrs. George METZGER, of Aurora, Ill., and Mrs. Clarence O’BRINER of Logansport, and two brothers, Clyde CLINGER, of Texas and Charles D. CLINGER, of Rochester.

Funeral Tuesday at 2:00, Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Tuesday, December 24, 1918

Dr. Joseph S. GENTILE, of Chicago, who was fatally shot by a patient, whom he was called to attend, was a brother of Mrs. Ralph R. BONFIGLIO of Elkhart, a former resident of Rochester. The Bonfiglios formerly conducted a candy store in the room occupied by Elmer BORDEN.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. MURRAY, of Kewanna, who have been spending a few days here, went today to Huntington to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Walter PORTER, 28, of Frankfort, died Christmas day at El Paso, Texas. She was formerly Miss Vera KREIG, of this city. Mrs. Porter had gone to Texas on account of her very poor health but influenza was the direct cause of her death. She leaves a husband, two children and a brother, Charles KREIG, of Frankfort. Funeral services Sunday at Logansport.

Monday, December 30, 1918

The community was shocked Sunday and Monday by death reports -- five in all -- coming in rapid succession.

John B. McMAHAN passed away at 5:30 Sunday morning, after a long illness, and half an hour later, just two block away, Maier LEVI dropped dead. Complications following influenza proved fatal to Manson YIKE and Mrs. O. M. MILLER Sunday and heart trouble resulted in the death of Mrs. Claude BOWMAN, on the same day.
John B. McMAHAN, 73, for more than 70 years a resident of Fulton county, died at 5:30 o’clock Monday morning at his home on South Main St., a victim of heart trouble and complications, from which he had been suffering for the past year. Altho he had been very ill at times recently, he was able to be up for an hour Sunday.

John B. McMahan was born at Columbus, Ind., on October 4th, 1845, one of a family of 10 children born to Mrs. and Mrs. William McMAHAN, four of whom, Mrs. Frank MOORE, of Rochester; Miss Clara McMAHAN, south of the city; Mrs. Louise MYERS, of Leiters, and William W. McMAHAN, of Hammond, survive. Three sisters and two brothers preceded him.

When two years of age, he moved with his family to Fulton county residing from that time until 12 years ago on a farm south of Rochester. Upon retiring, he moved to Rochester where he lived until the time of his demise.

On December 8th, 1871, he was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca GOSS, who survives. To this union there were born 12 children, 10 of whom survive: Mrs. John SCHAAF, north of Rochester; Mrs. Mel HAY, Postmaster Otto McMAHAN, Hugh [McMAHAN], Tom [McMAHAN], John [McMAHAN], James [McMAHAN] and Miss Jesse [McMAHAN], all of Rochester, and Pat [McMAHAN] and Bill [McMAHAN], southwest of the city. Two daughters, Mrs. Dal BLACK and Mrs. Omar SMITH, are dead.

While not a member, Mr. McMahan’s religious tendencies were towards the Methodist church. He was a charter member of the Ben Hur and Maccabee lodges.

Funeral at the house Tuesday at 2:30 p.m., Rev. George CRAIG in charge. Interment in mausoleum.

Maier LEVI, 67, for more than 40 years a resident of this city, where he engaged in the drygoods business, dropped dead Monday morning at 6:30 o’clock at his house on South Pontiac St., while preparing to go to his store. Death was caused by apoplexy.

Mr. Levi, as was his custom, arose early and after dressing went downstairs. He was evidently headed for the kitchen, passing thru the dining room of his home where he dropped. Mrs. Levi hurried downstairs when she heard him fall, but death had been instantaneous.

Maier Levi was born in Furt, Germany, a son of Albert and Havetta LEVI, on January 17, 1851. In 1869 he came to the United States, spending some time in New York and Cincinnati. For a number of years previous to moving to Rochester, he was employed in Plymouth.

Moving to Rochester, he engaged in the drygoods business with Ben [HEILBRUN] and Levi HEILBRUN, continuing the store when his partners dropped out. In 1870, he was united in marriage to Miss Bertha HEILBRUN, of this city, who survives. To this union were born the two surviving children, Mrs. Clyde ENTSMINGER of this city, and Miss Florence LEVI, of Washington, D. C. Another child died in infancy. A brother, Joseph [LEVI], of Rochester, also survives.

Mr. Levi was a member of the Masonic, Maccabee, K. of P. and Eastern Star lodges.

Funeral arrangements later.

Mrs. O. M. MILLER, 40, died at 2:30 a.m. Sunday at the farm home southeast of Rochester, a victim of complications, following an attack of influenza. She was ill only a week.

There survive the husband, O. M. MILLER, an instructor in the Chicago university and Hyde Park, (Ill.) high school, four children, Allen [MILLER], Alida [MILLER], Robert [MILLER] and Donald [MILLER], a stepmother, Mrs. Mary POCOCK and sister, Miss Retta POCOCK, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and two half-brothers, Charles [POCOCK] and Frank POCOCK, of Shaney, Kansas. A daughter, Mabel [MILLER], is dead.
Funeral at the home Tuesday at 2:00 p.m., Rev. E. Q. LAUDEMAN in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Grace Ellen POCOCK, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E A. POCOCK, deceased, was born in Argos, March 12, 1878. She was a graduate of the Valparaiso high school and attended the Rochester university and Indiana University. With the exception of seven years spent in Chicago, her entire life was passed in Marshall and Fulton counties.

Manson L. YIKE, 34, died Sunday afternoon at five o’clock at his home on South Bancroft Ave., a victim of pneumonia, contracted from influenza. He had been ill only 10 days.

There survive four children, Claude [YIKE], Floyd [YIKE], Harold [YIKE], and Mary [YIKE], his mother, Mrs. Julia YIKE, who made her home with him, one brother, Link YIKE, of this city and three sisters, Mrs. John YODER, of Denver Mrs. P. F. YODER, of Peru, and Mrs. Milton HECKATHORNE, of Logansport. Mr. Yike was a widower, his wife having died more than a year ago.

Funeral at the home Tuesday afternoon at two o’clock, Rev. George CRANE in charge. Burial at I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Mrs. Claude BOWMAN, 28, died at six o’clock Sunday evening at her home in Lily Park, east of Rochester, a victim of heart failure. Mrs. Bowman had been suffering with her heart for some time, but was not confined to her bed.

Besides the husband, two daughters, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright P. BIRDLOW, of Vandalia, a brother at home and two sisters, Mrs. Pearl HEMINGER, of Newcastle, and Mrs. James BURK, of Vincennes, survive.

Funeral services at graveside, Oakdale cemetery, Peru, Wednesday noon.

Tuesday, December 31, 1918

Mrs. Mary HOUSTON, South Madison St., Tuesday received word of the death in Long Beach, Calif., Monday of her sister, Mrs. Isaiah WALKER, formerly a resident of this city. Death is supposed to have been caused by old age, as Mrs. Walker was almost 90 years old. She had been ill for some time.

Two daughters survive, Mrs. Con WELCH, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Isaac MONTGOMERY, of Glendora, Calif. Mr. Walker died several years ago.

Funeral services will be held Jan 2 at Long Beach, and the body will probably be brought here in the spring for burial.

Funeral services for the late Maier LEVI at the home, South Pontiac St., at 7:00 p.m., Wednesday, conducted by Rabbi WEINSTEIN, Ft. Wayne. Masons in charge of the interment at I.O.O.F. cemetery. Among those here for the funeral are Miss Florence LEVI, of Washington, D. C., Ben [HEILBRUN] and Ferd HEILBRUN, Osage City, Kan., Sam [HEILBRUN] and Joe HEILBRUN, Kansas City, Mo., Sidney HEILBRUN, Chicago and Mrs. Belle RICH, Nashville, Tenn.

Funeral services for Mrs. Susannah E. ELLIS, 81, widow of the late David ELLIS, who died Thursday, Dec. 26, were held at Athens last Friday. She was born in Missouri.
