

FULTON COUNTY INDIANA NEWSPAPER EXCERPTS

1874

ROCHESTER UNION-SPY, Thursday, January 1, 1874

TURN PIKE ROADS. -The time for Pike roads has arrived. The mud roads throughout this county, at this season of the year, are, in many places almost impassable. Stock companies should be organized, and at least a few miles built this coming summer. Nothing would have a greater tendency to increase the value of farms and property through which they pass. Mr. ABNER THOMPSON, of Akron first called our attention to this work, and says he is ready to take stock in this enterprise

CHRISTMAS DINNER [lengthy report of Christmas dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor] who are the hospitable owners of a beautiful suburban villa, just north of town (Names mentioned) Mr. and Mrs. A. DIED. - ELLENOR MOW, widow of DAVID MOW, and daughter of JAMES P. and MARGARET HOLDSTOCK, died near Rochester, Dec. 23, 1873, aged 44 years, 1 month and 6 days.

She was the mother of ten children who live to mourn her loss. In character, she was mild and quiet - pondering her trials in her own heart. In her last sickness she remarked to a friend, "her's had been a hard lot through life but she had not murmured nor complained." She adorned her Christian profession with a well ordered life, and has gone to rest. She lived a widow four years, and leaves her helpless family to the kindness of friends, especially the members of the orders of Odd Fellows and Masons, of which institutions her husband was a worthy member. -C. SKINNER.

W. H. MATTINGLY and wife, who have been on a visit to the editor's family for three or four weeks past, left last Friday morning to visit friends in the vicinity of Cleveland, Ohio. - BOURBON MIRROR.

HISTORY OF LINCOLN, INDIANA - Business Review - concluded.

We now resume our task of writing the concluding portion of the history of the village.

CARL & ENYARTIS DRY GOODS AND GROCERY FIRM. -Mr. Carl engaged in the grocery business about the time the railroad was completed. He pursued this avocation until some time last summer, when he formed a partnership with Mr. ENYART. The firm was then changed to that of dry goods, grocery, etc. They have the reputation of being fair, square dealers, and are doing a thriving business. In addition to dry goods and groceries, they deal in ready-made clothing, queensware, and in fact everything that can be found in a first-class store.

W. H. HATCH'S DRY GOODS STORE. -Mr. Hatch came to this place about three years ago and has been in business ever since. He held the position of freight agent at this place sixteen months, during which time he was also engaged in the grain shipping business. It is hardly necessary to enumerate the various kinds of goods kept in the store, but suffice it to say they are first-class in every respect and are of such styles and prices that they will suit any body. Through fair dealing and close attention to business, Mr. Hatch has merited a good share of patronage.

N. D. HUDSON'S DRUG STORE. -Mr. Hudson started a drug store at this place about two years ago, and has made the business successful. He deals in drugs, medicines, paints and oils, dye stuffs, lamps, coal oil, etc., etc. Mr. Hudson keeps a large stock of the latest series of school books, and proposes to sell as cheap as any book firm in this part of the country. Physician prescriptions will receive prompt attention and filled carefully. Mr. Hudson has achieved the reputation of being a competent druggist as well as that of an enterprising business man.

DAVID GOLDSMITH'S DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING STORE. -Mr. Goldsmith has been engaged in business at this place about eight months. He has on hand an extensive stock of dry goods, ready-made clothing, etc., and reports his cash sales at sixteen hundred dollars per month, which is certainly a good business for the size of this place. He contemplates erecting at no distant time, a large commodious building to take the place of the unpretending one he now occupies. To those who contemplate buying ready-made clothing, we would respectfully advise them to call and examine Mr. Goldsmith's stock and prices before going elsewhere.

WILLIAM TRACY'S BOOT AND SHOE STORE. -Mr. Tracy is an old and experienced workman, and it would be useless for us to say that he is a thorough master of his trade. He manufactures boots and shoes of all styles and prices, and warrants satisfaction in all cases. He has permanently located here, having come to this place about three months ago and is doing a successful business. All orders left with him will receive prompt attention.

D. K. OGDEN'S BOOT AND SHOE SHOP. -Mr. Ogden has been in the boot and shoe business, we believe, ever since or even before the railroad was completed, and has partly won the appellation of "king of the lap stone." He is a first-class workman and enjoys a large share of public patronage. He works as reasonable as anybody and guarantees satisfaction when requested.

DR. A. C. ORR. -Dr. Orr removed to this place some time last summer and intends to make the village his permanent residence. He was well known through this part of the country before he came to this place, having formerly been engaged in the medical profession at Millark, a village a few miles east of this place. Dr. Orr seems to be a well informed physician, and if we may judge by his success, he has few equals in this part of the country.

H. C. EWING'S HOTEL - EWING HOUSE. -Mr. Ewing's hotel is 30x40 feet square, two stories high, and was erected during the past summer at a cost of two thousand dollars. The hotel is first-class in all its departments, and compares favorably with first-class hotels of larger towns. This hotel has not only supplied a want to the traveling public, but to boarders in general who may always count on first-class accommodations at this place. It may not be improper for us to say that Mr. Ewing has found hotel keeping a lucrative business.

DR. D. M. BOGGS. -Dr. Boggs is a physician of twenty-five years experience, and as a matter of course, he understands his business. He came to this village a few years ago, and has done a great deal towards relieving suffering humanity of the "ills to which flesh is heir to." We deem it unnecessary for us to say anything in regard to his career and success as a physician, as he is well known all over this section of country, and moreover our feeble pen would fail to convey a true idea of what he has accomplished in this noble calling.

JOHN BLACKBURN'S SAW MILL. -This saw mill has supplied a want that has long been felt by the citizens of this place. The mill is in successful operation, and must necessarily be beneficial to the building interests of our town.

JOB LOREE'S HARDWARE STORE. -Mr. Loree engaged in the hardware trade during the past summer, and has found it a lucrative business. He keeps every thing that is generally kept by hardware stores, and sells as cheap as any firm in Peru or elsewhere. Persons who feel it their duty to patronize home interests should manifest this disposition by patronizing this house.

GEORGE SWIHART & CO'S FLOURING MILL. -This flouring mill was erected about a year ago by GEORGE SWIHART and J. F. WAGONER, and cost $16,000. The building is about 40x50 feet in size, and four stories high. The machinery is all new and of the most approved style. Every thing pertaining to the mill is all that could be desired for durability and efficiency of work. The mill is now owned by George SWIHART and DANIEL SWIHART, brother of George. The proprietors have procured the services of an efficient miller and are now making a first-class article of flour. The mill is running three set of burrs.

In order to complete our work, we append the names of those whose professions and trades do not come under the head of "business review."

Justices of the Peace - LEW M. ENYART and H. M. NEAL.

Attorney LEW M. ENYART.

Ministers ISAAC STALLARD, GEO. WILKINSON and WILLIAM FENIMORE.

Insurance Agent - LEW M. ENYART.

Post Master - MILTON ENYART.

It is JAMES BALDWIN's house that came so near being burned this time. Mrs. Baldwin was sewing on the machine and had the lamp sitting on it. The jarring of the machine caused the lamp to fall to the floor... She finally extinguished it ...

DIED. We are now called upon to record the sad death of an infant son of WILLIAM MEYERS, living about one mile south of Rochester. The child died from the effects of burns, received on Wednesday, Jan. 7, 1874. The mother of the child having left it in the house, while she went out after some water, and returning soon she was horrified to see her darling lying on the floor with its clothing all burned off excepting on its back. The child was playing with matches, and, happening to strike some and communicated the fire to its garments. The mother in haste dashed a pail of water on the child and thus extinguished the fire. This she should not have done, but taken other means. The attending physician, Dr. BRACKETT, says the flesh was burned quite deep on the arms and breast. The child suffered great pain until death relieved it last Friday.

LINCOLN, IND.

We took a little trip down to Lincoln last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of seeing old friends and attending the supper and festival given by the ladies of the Christian church. Arriving in due time we sallied up to the hotel and warmed our toes, after which Esq. ENYART's was the point of interest, who shook us a hearty welcome, wishing the UNION-SPY good speed. We found W. H. HATCH behind the counter selling goods, and after a friendly chat with him, in company with Mr. JOHN CHAMP we went to the new church, where we found quite a number of persons already assembled to enjoy the entertainment. Those who had in charge the preparation of the supper were doing everything possible to arrange the abundance of provisions in good order for the comfort and convenience of their numerous patrons which they had a right to expect. The church was soon filled with seekers after the enjoyments of the evening, and the long expected good time commenced. Every one present appeared to be possessed with a happy spirit cultivated especially for the occasion.

The supper was superb, consisting of all the good things that town and country could produce, and after two hundred persons had fared sumptuously, more than twelve baskets full were left, which was sold at auction, at greatly reduced prices. Esq. WRIGHT was the auctioneer.

Among the many good people we met these, old friends and new, we call to mind the following: JOSEPH CHAMP and lady, Esq. NEAL and lady, DAVID FOOR, JAMES W. HURST, WILLARD HATCH, Mr. and Mrs. JOHN CHAMP, Mr. and Mrs. FRED. HOFFMAN, Mr. and Mrs. EASTON GUYER, Miss AMANDA HATCH, Mr. and Mrs. D. MUSSELMAN, Mrs. W. H. DENISTON, of Peru, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. ORR, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. HORTON, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. HORTON, J. A. WERTZ., and WILL CARRUTHERS.

Everything during the evening was done respectfully and in order, and we can only say it was a grand success in every respect, and everybody seemed well pleased.

The entertainment was beautifully interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. At the close nearly all who were present, about one hundred and fifty voices, joined in singing Elder LEMON's happifying song of "Stand, stand the storm.," when we were declared adjourned. Receipts $102.

I. P. & C. RAILROAD.

If there ever was a road which apparently sought the contempt of the people living along its line it is the Indianapolis, Peru & Chicago railroad which runs through this place....

During this winter Messrs. FEDER & SILBERBERG, of this city, took a contract for shipping and packing a large quantity of ice from Lake Manitou. Mr. Feder went to Indianapolis to make the proper arrangements, and upon calling on O. P. MACY to secure the privilege to erect a shed on railroad grounds for the purpose of packing ice, was flatly refused, even though the ground was not in use and not likely to be for several years; and the least possible rates for which he would transport the ice to Indianapolis, was $22 per car.

The secret of the ice matter, however, is that the said Macy has an interest in shipping ice from Laporte, from which place it is carried to Indianapolis for only $16 per car load...

Because of the high tariffs a large amount of trade which should be centered at Rochester is carried to Plymouth, Logansport and other surrounding towns ... As it is goods can be conveyed from Peru and Logansport by wagon cheaper than by rail...

ITEMS

On last Monday afternoon, about three o'clock, JONATHAN ROSS met with a serious accident at BARNES & MILLER's furniture manufactory. While at work at a planer, "through some carelessness" as he says, his hand came in contact with the knives of the machine which clipped the index and middle finger nearly off between the first and second joints, which will cripple the fingers for life. Mr. Ross is dependent upon his daily labor for support, and this accident will seriously affect his present welfare...

WILLIS, son of WILLIAM CARTER, came near dying a watery death on Saturday last, at the lake. They had been cutting ice but a few days since, and the weather not having been very cold the ice had not frozen to be only about 3/4 of an inch thick over the hole. The boy being very venturesome, tried to cross it, but his weight broke the ice and he went down, but for the immediate assistance of one COOK, he was rescued...

MOUNT NEBO ITEMS, Feb. 7, 1874

Ed. UNION-SPY: -In presenting ourselves to you in the capacity of a local correspondent we do so with that degree of timidity so characteristic in the unexperienced. It shall be our chief aim to present some matters which occurred in Richland township, in this county, in the year A.D. 1833, but may be news to the many readers of the SPY. In that year there lived a family of Indians by the name of Aubbeenaubbee, on the same ground where CHARLEY HOLMAN now lives, and the old Chief AUBBEENAUBBEE had killed his squaw and one of his sons and acquitted according to their customs and trials that will appear in this article in the year 1833. Old Aubbeenaubbee killed another son, they then called another court which was their custom in such cases and the decision was that his oldest son was to kill him within six days or else he was liable to be punished. On the sixth day he stabbed his father and killed him. They then built a puncheon pen around a sapling and set the old Indian up against the sapling. The writer of this article saw him after his head had rotted off and fell down in his lap. So it was said that Aubbeenaubbee raised from the dead and built a white house and striped it with red.

The Mt. Nebo school is progressing finely under the superintendence of Miss JENNIE DAVIS, who is a number one teacher with an attendance of thirty-two scholars ...

ROCHESTER UNION-SPY. Thursday, Februarv 19, 1874,

SPY REPORTS

Miss ELLA WALLACE has been quite sick for the past two weeks.

"N. Quad" mentions the fire at Mr. JOHN CHAMP's residence which we forgot to write last week. It was a narrow escape. Loss about $50.

We are sorry to deprive our readers of the I. P. & C. time table, but the managers of that one-horse road refuse to issue passes for this year and we refuse to continue their card.

JOHN BITTERS, Esq., of Akron, from whom all the BITTERS in this State descended, hopped briskly into our sanctum the other day, and left a nice little present. He was six years old at the commencement of this century, and looks as though he was going to see it through.

LINCOLN ITEMS

JOB LOREE has purchased GEORGE SWIHART's interest in the LINCOLN FLOURING MILL.

JOHN GARNER has traded his property in this place for a farm situated a few miles east of the village.

SPRINKLEBURG ITEMS, Feb. 16, 1874

Somebody's dogs have been indulging in the luxury of mutton chops. S. SIBERT and H. VAN METER furnished the sheep.

MARRIED: To-day. -ADD. SIBERT and Miss ELIZABETH VINCENT.

AKRON DOTTINGS

ARNOLD, STRONG & CO. feel good over their well filled ice house.

Mrs. BLAIN starts to Ohio on a visit next Wednesday.

Dr. JOHNSON is making arrangements to build a nice residence in the spring. JACOB WHITTENBERGER is also preparing to build a large bank barn, and several others are making arrangements for building. The best of all is a real SIDEWALK on Main street; the lumber is engaged and it means business

The AKRON MILL is increasing in business every day. WALLACE knows how to make good flour.

WILLIAM GRINDEL has a portable saw mill, and he goes from farm to farm like a threshing machine. He is now sawing out a house for B. MOORE after which he is to come and saw out J. WHITTENBERGER's barn.

ALEX. CURTIS sold a nice lot of porkers to RANCE, of Silver Lake, last week, at $5 gross ...

REUB. WHITTENBERGER wants a name for a bran new girl.

WM. BEMENDERFER and one of his scholars didn't agree very well last week. They are now trying to settle the dispute by law.

SPY REPORTS

ED. CHINN, CHAS. PLANK, CHES. CHINN, MARION REITER, SHERMAN CHANDLER, WILLIE CHINN, HORACE KEWNEY, LAKE CORY and another red headed young man placed us under some obligations and a small amount of difficulty by carrying up a load of stove wood and placing it on the landing of our office stairs, Sunday evening. We appreciate the kindness intended, but preferred the first position of the wood.

Mr. FEDER says we were wrongly informed. He did not deal with President MACY but with Mr. ROBINSON, the superintendent of the I. P. & C. road, and his request to build an ice house on railroad grounds were granted and allowed to ship ice from this place to Indianapolis for $20 per car, the same as charged from Laporte. Mr. Robinson is a gentleman who works for the interest of the road, but Macy for the interests of a sharper's clique of which he is one.

We learn that three city dogs went out to THEODORE MONTGOMERY'S, west of town, last Sunday morning a week, and held another mutton festival on three of his best sheep, which were valued at $25 apiece ... One of the bloodthirsty whelps was tracked to his death the same day...

DAVID RADER, Esq., is not only a veteran soldier, but a veteran subscriber to the UNION-SPY. He walked deliberately into our office last Monday and gave us the wherewith to pay for his paper three years in advance... He also subscribed one year for a brother, A. RADER, at Prescott, Wisconsin....

[letter from Cedar Falls, Iowa, dated Feb. 14, 1874, signed B. F. BROWN, renewing subscription to the UNION-SPY]

DANIEL MILLER, Esq., son of Mrs. OBED ALLEN, of this place, a sprig of the law, came over from Rensselaer last week and remained a few days seeing old friends... His sister, MAGGIE, a young lady of good qualities and amiable disposition, returned with him, expecting to teach during the summer.

Mr. J. E. CATES, of Bloomingsburg, was in town last Saturday, and gave us a call.

DIED. -In Rochester, Monday morning, March 9, 1874, Mrs. MARY ANNA REYNOLDS, aged about 17 years.

Mrs. Reynolds, nee Miss MARY A. STIGLITZ, daughter of C. F. STIGLITZ, was married about two months ago to her now bereaved husband, Mr. C. E. REYNOLDS, who has been long and well known as the telegraph operator at this place. Mrs. Reynolds' death was caused, as we learn, by a sinking chill, which took her off in a very short time. She was well known and respected by all who knew her, and her sudden death brought sorrow to the hearts of the whole community. As an evidence of the love and esteem in which she was held by her many friends, we mention that her funeral was attended by a large concourse of people, filling every seat at the Baptist church at which place an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. ELLIOTT

MUD CREEK EPISTLES, March 2, 1874

DIED. -Feb. 26, 1874, Mother ONSTOTT, aged about 63 years. Her illness continued about seventy days, during which she suffered severely; she departed this life willingly and seemed anxious to go where she might be at rest. She often spoke that she must die, and that her disease could only be remedied by her Master. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. FOOT and BABCOCK. ... Mother Onstott was a resident of this neighborhood about two years, in which time she formed a friendly relation with her neighbors who deeply mourn their loss, for none knew her but to love her.

ZION CHURCH. -We are informed that the new Presbyterian church, now in course of erection, at Zion, will be completed and ready for dedication about the middle of April. Some time ago the work came to a stand-still for the want of means, but we are told that Mr. JOSEPH WHITTENBERGER, one of the persons who are particularly interested in the erection of this fine edifice, is pushing the work to completion by the use of his own private means, and trusting to Providence and the benevolence of the people to get it back; if so Mr. Whittenberger is deserving of much credit, and a large amount of the blessing in store for the faithful.

CARRIAGE SPRING EQUALIZER. -One of the most simple and useful improvements for all kinds of spring vehicles has been lately INVENTED by Mr. NEFF, of the firm of MILLER & NEFF, carriage makers, of this city. It is called a spring equalizer and is much better than straps or braces of any kind; preventing the top from jostling, racking, or rubbing against the wheels, and really acting as a support for the whole buggy; requiring a less amount of spring, &c. The invention is certainly a very useful one, and is calculated to secure a fortune to the inventor. We cannot give a full description of it here but it can be seen at all times at their shops or at Mr. DAVIDSON's livery stable.

BIRTHDAY DINNER. -It was our good fortune last Thursday noon, in company with Mrs. B. and our responsibilities, to attend a birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. JOHN P. MYERS to celebrate the twenty-eighth anniversary of the life of the last named person. Not wishing to make any display, only a few were invited, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Dr. BOSWELL, Mrs. E. J. THE FIRST IN THE COUNTY. -In the Fulton Circuit Court, yesterday, Hon. E. V. LONG, Judge, rendered a judgment against JAMES W. BRAMEN, at the suit of SARAH E. MOON, for $737, for damages caused by said Bramen selling intoxicating liquors to her husband, JOHN MOON. Suit brought under Sec. 12 of the Baxter bill.

ODD FELLOWS CEMETERY. -Through the kindness of Mr. D. R. MARTIN, the keeper, we had a nice little buggy ride to the above named burying grounds owned and conducted by the Odd Fellows' Lodge of this city...

These grounds were purchased and laid out in October, 1855. The first person interred was CATHERINE, wife of A. S. ROSS, who died in the year 1856, aged 43 years, 5 months and 18 days. The number now resting there is 391, being an average of about 21 per year.

There are a few graves that have no mark of recognition, and a few designated with boards, but a large majority have marble head stones or monuments. Among the fine monuments of American and Italian marble we noted the following: Dr. CHAS. BRACKETT, Mrs. CHRIS. HOOVER, A. J. HOLMES, HUGH MILLER, Dr. W. W. MANN, I. W. HOLEMAN, Mrs. Dr. A. E. PLANK, MARY A. GEARSON, LUCY SHEPHERD, Mrs. JONAS MYERS, RACHEL MACKAY, JOHN F. HOPPE.

Among the incidents are these: Mrs. JAMES ROBBINS had three children, by three husbands, buried side by side, who died in the same year, 1865, as follows: February 24th, August 4th, September 5th. Seven little orphan children are quietly sleeping, head and foot, in one little green mound, without a slab to mark the spot of their repose...

Mr. Martin has attended nearly every burial at the yard, and is conversant with the name of person and place of interment of nearly all in the cemetery...

Dr. L. H. SHATTO, of Kewanna, brought us some new names and several greenbacks last Thursday, for the UNION-SPY.

One of M. BRIGHT's children is lying at the point of death.

DAVE MITCHELL is dangerously sick with typhoid fever, and V. SHAFER's son is also in the hands of the doctor.

WILLIAM BITTERS is making arrangements to burn brick this summer. Akron will come out all right railroad or no railroad.

PETER NOYER returning home from the Akron exhibition, with his wife, two children and a young lady, all in a single buggy, were crossing the bridge one-half mile north of Akron and when about midway the horse took fright and backed the buggy off the bridge. One boy and the young lady jumped out, but Peter, wife and baby went overboard in the water and mud which is three feet deep. He had just got his wife and baby on their feet when the horse fell off knocking the baby in the water the second time. They all got out alive. He claims damages of road district on account of bad bridges.

C. R. BITTERS and F. C. STRONG went to Mt Zion exhibition, in a single buggy. Their horse took fright at the umbrella and ran away; kicking the leather out of the dash, broke the shafts, spilled the boys out, then stopped to see them pick themselves up. Damages about eight dollar.

WM. KUHN broke his whip, G. BELL had his stolen and F. DANIELS lost the way coming home. Mt. Zion was rather hard on the Akron boys.

BURNED TO DEATH. -A little son of JAMES H. THOMPSON, living just south of Rochester, was out in the fields playing, in company with a little sister, when his clothes caught fire from a burning stump. The daughter started for the house to give the alarm, and the little boy followed after, fighting the fire as best he could, but before he was discovered by his parents he was so badly burned that there was but little hope of his recovery. Dr. BROWN, of this city, was called, who did all that could be done for the little sufferer, but the child was burned so badly over the region of the stomach and bowels that it was impossible to save his life. The accident occurred Monday, but the child lingered till Tuesday morning, when death released him of the torturing pain. The funeral took place at the M.E. Church Wednesday.

DIED. -In Rochester, April 2, 1874, of congestion of the stomach, Miss ELIZABETH, daughter of JOHN and NANCY BLANCHARD, aged 16 years, 1 month and 18 days.

Miss Blanchard was born in Jennings county, Indiana, and came to Rochester with her parents when but three years old. Being reared and educated in this city she was known and beloved by many. She loved her books and would doubtless have made a bright scholar had her life been spared to realize her expectations. She possessed all the qualifications of a lady, and was kind and affectionate towards her parents and associates. Being sick but two days previous to her decease, death came very unexpected and proved a very severe affliction to the family. Mr. Blachard was absent at the time of her death and knew nothing of the sad event until his return. The funeral was attended at the M.E. Church, Saturday. Services by Rev. Mr. LORD.

DIED. -On the 19th of March, 1874, near Rensselaer, Indiana, Mr. L. A. OSBORN, who was for many years a citizen of this county. Mr. Osborn was engaged in helping to raise a house, and as they were about finishing, one of the plates fell on him and broke one of his legs. The shock was too much for him. On the very next morning he passed into a deep sleep, and in a few hours passed away without a struggle. He was a faithful member of the M.E. Church and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for many years, and was really a good man and a useful citizen. His family has the sympathy of the whole community; and may the order in which he spent a good share of his life, see to it that the family receive all the benefits and attention due them. There are many persons who will remember Bro. Osborn as a sweet singer, both in the church and the Lodge room.

BANK CLOSED. -We now have the sorrowful news to record of the closing of the FARMERS' LOAN AND DEPOSIT BANK, of this city. This bank withstood the late financial storm and seemed well able to meet all claims at any time, but very unexpectedly to all, it was compelled to close its doors last Monday. Mr. WM. ASHTON, the owner of the bank, left home this day aweek for the purpose, as he says, of securing some means with which to cash his checks and accounts until outstanding funds could be collected but during his absence the clerk was compelled to borrow money and finally closed the bank and awaited the return of Mr. Ashton, who arrived on the midnight train Tuesday.

Wednesday morning the depositors assembled and appointed a committee to wait on the banker, who received them kindly, and stated to them that he was willing to assign every dollar's worth of his real and personal property for the security of his depositors and creditors. The committee and Mr. Ashton stated the same to the assembled depositors, who immediately designated Mr. A. C. SHEPHERD, Mr. JONATHAN DAWSON and Mr. CALVIN VANTRUMP, as proper assignees to examine the condition of the bank, and also of his personal effects and real estate. All creditors seem kindly disposed, and feel hopeful that they will yet recover a large per cent, if not the full amount deposited. All confidence has been placed in the bank and banker, and in consequence large deposits were made by citizens of town and county, and should the bank prove unable to finally meet its demands it will be detrimental to the business interests of this city. What the investigation may develop we hardly dare surmine.

DIED. -On Tuesday evening, April 28, 1874, at the residence of B. B. PATTON, of consumption, LAFAYETTE WEBER, aged 19 years and 4 months.

Deceased was a talented young man, but all his secular prospects were crushed when seized with that dreadful disease, consumption. He had been suffering for about two years, but was not thought incurable until about six months ago. He was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs two weeks before his death, and had been confined to his bed ever since. He was an orphan; his father having died of the same disease eleven years before. He united with the M.E. church when 17 years old, and when he found he must die, was perfectly resigned to his fate; he died in full hope of a glorious resurrection. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. SKINNER, on Thursday.

(Dissolution) Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between WILLIAM MILLER and ELISHA NEFF, known by the firm name of MILLER & NEFF, wagon and carriage manufacturers, is this day dissolved by mutual consent... HISTORY OF A KEY.

-B. C. WILSON, Esq., of Richland township, left at office, Wednesday morning, a large iron key, perhaps the only remaining part of the old log jail which one day stood near the present site of HARTER's fine residence, on east Pearl street. The history of the key in our possession is about as follows:

During the time Mr. WILSON was sheriff of this county (from 1845 to 1848) a desperado by name of RICHARD G. ENO was confined for stealing horses. Beneath the first floor of the prison was a cell for the confinement of desperate characters and high criminals, which was entered through a trap door in the floor. In this cell Eno was confined with a chain to his leg that he might be fastened to the bull ring during the night time. During meal time, as was the custom, the prisoner, or prisoners, would be allowed to come up into the prison proper to partake of the food furnished them by their keeper.

On the 13th of August, 1848, Sheriff Wilson carried in Eno's dinner, as usual, but being in somewhat of a hurry he left the prison door standing ajar while he arranged the victuals and opened the trap door for the prisoner to come up. As soon as Eno had reached the floor he discovered that the outside door was not secured, and with chain in hand, he made a desperate leap for liberty, which he obtained, closing the door behind him, turning the lock and carrying the key away. But now the fun commenced. Wilson in jail yelling like an Indian for the purpose of arousing the neighbors, and Eno giving leg ball for the woods. JACOB KITT, who died in 1851, was the only person who pursued the flying culprit, but being barefoot at the time he did not continue in the chase very far, while the sheriff finding the tables had been turned on him, quietly waited until he was chopped out of prison by his friends.

Eno of course made good his escape for some time, but taking sick on the journey he was compelled to fetch up at the residence of one WALKER, a farmer on the bank of the Kankakee river, at which place he left the key. After recuperating for a few days he set sail down the river, but a reward of one hundred dollars offered by the county was too much for him, and through the influence of a couple of hardy yeomen he was persuaded to return and take lodging in his former habitation, the old cell. The court sent him to State's prison for two years.

The key was thrown by Mr. Walker among a lot of old iron which was several years afterward sold to one HAVENS, a blacksmith. The large key attracted his attention, and after learning how Mr. Walker had come by it, he concluded to keep it as a memento of the event.

Last week B. S. LYON, Esq., was visiting up in that neighborhood when the incident was mentioned, and the key hunted up and returned to Mr. Wilson as a relic of the old log jail and a reminder of the time he became a prisoner in his own prison.

The key can be seen at this office.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING. -A son of THOMAS BARKER, residing in Liberty township, aged about twelve years, while out hunting on Tuesday last, was crippled for life by the accidental discharge of a shot gun, the whole charge being poured into one of his ankles. Amputation became immediately necessary. It is supposed the child fell down causing the discharge of the gun.

MARRIED. -At the residence of JOHN W. DAVIS, Esq., in this city, on Sunday evening, May 24, 1874, by the Rev. N. L. LORD, Mr. JOSEPH W. BEEBER and Miss HATTIE DAVIS.

This union is the culmination of years of friendship and association, ... The wedding was intended to be quiet and unassuming, and in consequence only the relatives and a few friends were invited; about thirty persons in all were present... the bride's father led the way into the dining room, where a splendid supper had been prepared under the direction of Mrs. DAVIS and the younger daughters. At the proper time a conveyance was furnished and the bridal party was taken to the depot where they took the midnight train for Indianapolis.

-At the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, on Sabbath evening, May 24th, 1874, by the Rev. N. L. LORD, Mr. JAMES T. GAINER and Miss MOLLIE ELAM.

... They were united after a protracted courtship with a full understanding of each other's affections, and with matured plans they will no doubt sail safely and smoothly over the sea of life together. Personally each of the above parties are representatives of good families careful, temperate and truthful, and will continue to become still more useful as citizens, and an honor to society. This couple also went on a visit to Indianapolis.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT to the Memory of SILAS A. TRUSLOW, Hall of Taylor Lodge, No. 36. I.O.G.T.... W. H. LINE, J. G. PEARSON, ED. F. CHINN, Committee.

DIED. -At Rochester, Fulton County, Indiana, June 15, 1874, Miss MARY A. BARNUM, aged 31 years and 7 months.

Her funeral was attended from the house of her step-father, E. LONG, where her home has been these many years. Her native place was Kalamazoo, Michigan. Miss Barnum had been in bad health during the last seventeen years. Hence she never knew the ordinary pleasures of youth. But she was the object, during her long affliction, of the kind sympathies and attentions of her parental home. She possessed a mind thoughtful, quiet and cheerful. In her Christian faith and hope she found consolation. She was not wont to murmur or repine at her condition; but for months before her decease she longed to depart. Her example has taught all who knew her the lesson to be patient under trials, and to lay up their treasure in heaven. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. N. L. LORD.

Our two sisters and brothers, Mrs. C. S. HORTON, Mrs. P. M. CARVEY and Mr. A. P. CARVEY, made us a visit one day last week, and spent a few hours in an old fashioned chit chat. We are glad to see them. Come again.

I am a Democrat, but consult my own interests regardless of party or political matters. As long as we tolerate the principle of prejudice and won't support as good a paper as SPY, just because it does not agree with us in our political views, just so long we are drawing the wool over our own eyes. Now let us join together and be as a unit and try to elect such men as we think will work for the interests of the People, whether Democrat or Republican. Take the paper most deeply interested in the people's welfare generally. -W. W. CARVEY.

ED TUCKER had on exhibition in our town, a few days ago, the finest specimen of a durham gentleman ox ... He is three years old, and weighs 1,488 pounds.

A FEW HINTS. -It was certainly a bad move when some of our merchants adopted the plan of placing before their places of business HITCHING POSTS. This fact can be verified by passing up Main street on a very warm, sultry evening, when a stench, arising from around these places, comes in contact with the nasal organs that is truly disgusting, to say nothing of the possibility of its breeding disease... Farmers and others will find a good hitching rack around the court house fence, originally and intentionally designed for their especial benefit.

Horses, hogs and cattle are all alike allowed the free use of our STREETS and sidewalks. Of these, the hog stands highest in the rank of nuisances. Around every public well, without enclosures, is a hog-hole in which a porker may be found at all times of day...

There are several places in town where the dishwater and offals of the table are thrown from the kitchen into the alley near the house, and one or two places where all slops are thrown from the door in the yard. If any member of the family of those who practice this slovenly and uncleanly habit, should be taken sick, no further inquiry than their door yard or alley need be made...

Mr. A. L. SHORE, a well known grocer of this place, left for Monticello, Missouri, Tuesday last. He is an honest and industrious young man and deserves to be successful.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AND FAMILY REUNION, -The birthday party and family reunion mentioned two weeks ago to be held at the residence of JOHN BITTERS, Esq., one-fourth of a mile east of Akron, in this county, proved to be one of the happiest events known to the lives of the aged parents, and a very enjoyable occasion for the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and all other relatives present. We did not make an exact count, but from a careful estimate would say that the attendance would number about sixty.

This being the first reunion ever held in this family there was a lack of experience in the arrangement, and the time being short some did not receive the notice until it was too late to arrange their business so as to be able to attend, nevertheless all who were present expressed themselves well pleased with all the surroundings, and the only regret we heard was that others were not present.

Grandpa BITTERS, as he is familiarly known, whose eightieth birthday was commemorated on this occasion, was born in Northampton county, Pennsylvania, July 5, 1794, which place he made his home until 1842, and where all but one of his eleven children were born. When a young man he learned the carpenter's trade, and at the expiration of his apprenticeship he spent some time exploring the then uncivilized western world, traveling the Indian trails through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, and navigated the Mississippi river from St. Louis to New Orleans as a dry goods clerk on a boat propelled by polling, and on one occasion walked up the west bank of that river from the last named city to the present site of Vicksburg.

In 1820, in the twenty-sixth year of his age, he was married to Miss SARAH ANN MAJOR, a young lady of reputed beauty and intelligence, who has been his constant companion, sharing with him all the joys and sorrows of nearly fifty-five years of married life. Grandma, as she is now called, was born also in Northampton county, in 1804, and was therefor just "sweet sixteen" when married, making her seventy at the present time, with a vigor of life which would seem to secure to her yet many years to her already old age. The only remarkable feature about this aged couple is their unusual sprightliness and good health, which undoubtedly is all creditable to being "temperate in all things." Judging from appearance and activity they are rarely supposed to be over fifty and sixty years of age.

Of the eleven children born, eight are still living. Eight became the parents of sixty-nine children. Five out of these eight children are now the parents of seven children each, and five have buried two children each, as follows: LEMUEL, 11 children, 2 dead. CATHERINE 7 children, 2 dead. HETTIE L., 7 children, 4 dead. WILLIAM, 7 children. MARGARET, 5 children, 2 dead. REBECCA, 7 children, 2 dead. JOHN D., 7 children, 2 dead. T. MAJOR, 3 children, 1 dead.

The total number of children, decendant from these now great-grandparents, is as follows: Children, 11; grandchildren, 69; great-grandchildren, 24; total, 104; total number now living 78.

We do not give these figures for the purpose of showing to the public the status of the family, but for the benefit of the many family ties residing in the east and west, who are interested in knowing some things herein stated.....

MARRIED. -At the residence of the bride's father, eight miles south of Rochester, on the 2d of July, by the Rev. Mr. RANDOLPH, Mr. THOS S. GORDON, of Randolph county, and Miss LIZZIE GREEN.

This bit of news, although not entirely unexpected, takes us somewhat by surprise. Strong suspicions were entertained that something of the kind was under contemplation when Miss Green declined accepting the position of teacher in the graded school at this place for another term, however her many friends will be content to know that she is happy with her present "engagement." Miss Lizzie was a lady in every sense of the term, and no doubt as Mrs. Gordon she will prove herself worthy the love and esteem of her liege lord and all her new acquaintances. Ourselves and many others would be glad to hear from her through the columns of the SPY. A long life and happiness is our ardent hope.

SLABTOWN PLANKS

The good people of SLABTOWN have our thanks for their kindness and benevolence while sickness prevailed in our family. We would speak especially of Mrs. PLEASANT VICKERY, who has been a mother to us as well as to many others in this neighborhood in similar circumstances.

Mr. JOHN SALES has a new house about completed. PHILIP ANDERSON is boss carpenter ...

If anybody wants to see a nice, clean garden go to Grandma RARRICK'S. ... Her age is 64, and she works her garden herself. Grandpa RARRICK raked and bound his part after the cradle in the harvest field seven days and a half. His age is seventy-four years.

Mr. THOMAS KING and wife are the oldest married couple in this neighborhood, having lived together near fifty-two years, twenty-four of which has been spent in this township. Grandma King's mother, who resides in the north part of Ireland, is still living, and near one hundred years old. They are Scotch descent and Protestants, belonging to the Presbyterian church.

We have had a beautiful example left us in the way Mr. JOHN LEITER brought up his family; he taught them from infants that their place was at the Sabbath school, as well as to help him make money, and at the Sabbath school you always found them, and not along the river, or somewhere playing cards. Religion first, education next, and then work, and now out of nine children, all belong to church and are workers in earnest in the Sabbath school ...

ROCHESTER UNION-SPY, Thursday, July 30, 1874

LETTER FROM CAPT. G. P. ANDERSON, St. Croix Falls, Wis., July 16. -Having seen a copy of your lively and valuable paper, and being satisfied that it is the most newsy and interesting paper that has been published in Rochester for the past 23 years, I send you a few lines with a little cash, and ask you to send it to me in the far off wilderness. I am well acquainted with many of your readers, and it does me much good to see that many of the old settlers are still permitted to breath the free air of Fulton county; such as Col. K. G. SHRYOCK, JESSE SHIELDS, S. DAVIDSON, N. L. LORD, FRANK ERNSPERGER, SAM KEELY, CHES CHAMBERLAIN, Dr. ROBBINS, Dr. PLANK and JOHN DAWSON. I came to Fulton county in 1851; at that time Rochester had but one street and three stores. R. N. RANNELLS kept the main store, WM. TRIMBLE the next, and A. L. & C. H. ROBBINS the other. .. I think, Mr. Editor, I know you, but am not certain. I think you was a member of Co. K, 155th Regt. Indiana infantry, and wrote a certain letter to a Peru paper, which caused quite a commotion among the officers of the bloody 155th..... GEO. P. ANDERSON.

Last Saturday while ROLA MARTIN, a carpenter, was at work on a house, he hung his watch, a valuable one, on the window casing, and on going to supper forgot to take it with him. After supper he returned in search of the watch but found that it had been removed... Seeing a small boy just going from the building... secured a search warrant and the residence of the boy's father, a Mr. HILEMAN, was searched by constable STILES. However the watch was not found it is reported other goods were seen which confirms the reputation the family bears for finding a great many valuables.

Failing to recover the watch Mr. Martin secured the service of two or three little boys to spy around, and on last Tuesday one of them pulled it out from under the barn floor, and now Mr. Martin is happy.

PERSONAL

Dr. ERNSPERGER, of Gilead, was in town yesterday. He is working up a good practice.

A VISIT TO UNION. Through the kindness of Mr. J. PENCE, who conveyed us out and back, we were permitted to spend a very pleasant day in the country last Sabbath. We attended Sabbath school in the forenoon and remained for regular service, Rev. M. CALIFF preaching a short practical sermon. From thence in company with Mr. and Mrs. ELI RUSSEL, Mr. and Mrs. PENCE and family, the above named minister and several other friends, we return to Mr. Pence's residence, where all partook of just such a dinner as is usually found at a first class farm house.

Mr. Pence purchased and settled on the farm which he still holds as his residence, some thirty-eight years ago, however he has bought and sold a great many other farms since. His present dwelling, which is comparatively new, is situated on a beautiful elevation, near the south end of Manitou lake, overlooking the lake, with beautiful landscape scenery for many miles around. From the upper plaza or the observatory on the roof, one can see farms and residences of JOSEPH ROBBINS, C. CORNELIUS, Mr. GROVES, WM. McMAHAN, Mr. DRAKES, Mr. SINKS, C. W. COLWELL, ED. ALSPAUGH, ISAAC BLACKBURN, B. F. PORTER, L. RICHARDSON, E. R. POWERS, WM. CARRUTHERS, and many other places we could not name, also one large white house away beyond Tippecanoe river.

Mr. Pence being one of the first settlers of this county and residing here ever since, has not only become one of our most wealthy and respectable citizens, but a man of large experience and good judgment, who by his labor and industry has added much to the wealth and enterprise of the community in which he resides.

FATAL ACCIDENT. -DANIEL FREMONT COOPER, son of Mr. and Mrs. DAVID COOPER, of this place, went on a visit last Friday, to his uncle, Mr. EBEN BELL, near Chili, in Miami county. On Monday afternoon he was out with a team that was engaged hauling gravel. It appears that he was on the wagon when one of the bottom boards worked forward and a single-tree became displaced on the end of it, when the boy went forward to detach it. Just as he had adjusted the single-tree and straightened up on his feet, one of the horses kicked out violently at the boy, striking him squarely in the abdomen. At the time he did not seem much hurt, and got off the wagon without assistance. Later in the evening he began to complain, growing worse and worse until Tuesday afternoon at 2:20 he silently passed away.

The parents were sent for in due time, and with the aid of the physicians all efforts were made for his recovery but to no purpose. His body was brought home on the midnight train Tuesday, and the funeral took place from their residence on Main street, at 1 o'clock yesterday.

MONT was a robust healthy boy, always cheerful and happy, fond of his associates and friends. His age was 12 years, 2 months and 5 days. His death is the most sorrowful event known to the family, which will never be forgotten. ...

AN ATTEMPT AT HIGHWAY ROBBERY. -Last Sunday evening, about eleven o'clock, Mr. ENOCH McCOY was returning from a visit in the country on horse back. When about three miles south of town he was attacked by two ruffians who evidently meant to relieve him of his valuables and a small lining of greenbacks... the one on his right side demanded him to halt, at the same time taking hold of Enoch's leg and aiming a revolver at his head. By a vigorous kick he freed himself from the robber's grasp, bringing both heels into the sides of his steed, which gave a sudden bound, leaving the rascals, but at the same time Enoch turned in his saddle and fired one shot... He says that after he shot, the would-be robber called to his partner: "JIM, for God's sake come and help me; I am shot."...

GREEN OAK GRAPES, Aug. 22., 1874

It will be interesting, no doubt, to some of our lady friends ... to know that EDWIN SMITH, a gay young Hoosier of some twenty-five summers, has just returned to his father's home, near Green Oak, from a two years' tramp in Kansas and the Indian Territory...

Mr. GEORGE MILLER, a wealthy farmer living in the vicinity of Ebenezer church, had his house entered and $996 carried off by some enterprising rogue, while he and his family were attending the Grange picnic at Rochester on the 20th.

A TRIP TO LINCOLN.

-Last Monday evening, in company with three Rochester boys, we paid Lincoln a short visit, for the purpose of attending the birthday party of Miss LIBBY THOMPSON. We arrived at nine o'clock, and stopping at the hotel kept by HANK EWING, (we have forgotten the name) proceeded to "scrub up," which process finished, we repaired to the house of Mr. THOMPSON. We were rather surprised to see such a large number present, about twenty couple: but all appeared to enjoy themselves.... Miss Thompson was twenty years of age last Monday. She is handsome and intellectual, and possesses an affable and kind manner which adds much to her personal beauty...

We were surprised at the number of pretty girls who live in and around Lincoln. But we're sorry to say that the young men are homely and rather backward, consequently the ladies waste a great deal of their sweetness on desert air.

The "GRANGE STORE" is about half finished, and will be a very respectable building when completed.

We met Mr. JACOB NEAL and Mr. WM. HATCH. The latter reports the dry goods business in a flourishing condition.

SPY REPORTS

We learn that WILLIAM MOSTELLER, who lives east of the lake, has been quite sick.

A drayman started a report that a new depot was to be erected in this place immediately. Mr. CLIFFORD, the freight and ticket agent, says the rumor is unfounded.

Last Tuesday Miss ELLA WILLHELM, after the regular duties at the residence of J. DAWSON., layed down on the lounge for rest. After sleeping for a short time she awoke, being unable to speak or move a limb. Mrs. DAWSON resorted to warm cloths to produce perspiration, and to alum to be taken inwardly to enable her to breathe, but, for the time being, all to no avail. Dr. ROBBINS was then called, who administered to the wants of the patient by giving chloroform. Miss Willhelm, at present writing, is better, and under skillful treatment will, it is hoped, soon recover.

PERSONAL

Miss ALLIE RYLAND, daughter of Mrs. JOSIE RYLAND, and grand-daughter to Col. SHRYOCK, returned from a two months' visit at Richmond, last week.

Mrs. JOHN W. ELAM, who with her children, has been spending the summer at Valparaiso, returned home last week, apparently much improved in health.

J. S. RANNELLS, Esq., of Perrysburg, gave us a friendly call last Thursday. He is now a reader of the SPY.

Miss LUELLA LONG, of this city, has been engaged to teach the first grade at the new school building in the south-east part of town...

B. C. WILSON, Esq., who has been so long confined to his bed, is again able to move about...

BASSET WEST, of Peru, who had his arm severely mashed while coupling cars at this place, some four weeks ago, called at our office last week, and reported himself doing exceedingly well...

Mr. and Mrs. FRED HOFFMAN, of near Lincoln, was in town last Thursday, and attended the Granger picnic...

Mrs. LOUISA JONES, of near Mexico, formerly a teacher in the Rochester Graded School, who has been for several years one of our esteemed friends, attended the granger picnic last Thursday. Mrs. Jones, nee Miss ZIMMERMAN, is a lady of culture and refinement, enjoying quite a reputation as a painter of portraits, having been employed as an instructor of the same in one of the best academies in the country.

Miss MARY VAN METER will please accept the thanks and good wishes of our good-looking compositors for a delicious cake.

Mr. A. HUNNESHAGEN, of Kewanna, ... called to renew his subscription last Saturday...

Rev. WILSON BECKNER, pastor of the M.E. church, will preach his last sermon next Sabbath. Mr. Beckner is an able minister, but on account of feeble health he will take a light work, if any, for the coming conference year ...

Several young ladies, pupils of Rochester Graded Schools, have set about procuring an organ for the high school room. A vigorous canvass is being made for funds, and many are the pocket books that wither under the sweet smiles and loving words of the fair solicitors.

DIED. -In this place Thursday morning last, at 2 o'clock, Mr. ADAM SCHOLDER, aged 48 years, three months and 15 days.

Mr. Scholder was sick but a few days. His death was unexpected and is now lamented by all. He had been a resident of this place for many years, the latter part of which time he had been engaged in the grocery business. He leaves a wife and four children, who deeply feel the loss of a kind husband and father.

Early last Thursday morning the family of Mr. GEO. MILLER, residing some distance south-east of this place, concluded it would be a nice thing to come to town and attend the Granger picnic. Mr. Miller, it seems was absent on a neighboring farm assisting a party of threshers. There being $942 in greenbacks in the house the family was in a quandry what was best to do with it, but after a little consultation concluded to put it under the carpet in a bed room, and it was done, when they hied themselves away to town. Now it appears that one AL. HIGHT, a relative to the family, who is not considered strictly compos mentis, knew of the money being in the house, and for ought we know was acquainted with the above transaction. At all events after the family had fairly gone, he entered the house, pocketed the money and struck out for Wagoner's Station where he purchased a pocket book and a ticket for parts unknown, leaving the impression, however by word and act that all was not right.

On the return of the family in the afternoon the money was non est inventus (in plain English not to be found). The alarm was immediately given and the question went from mouth to mouth, "who's got the money." Circumstances, the great evidence furnisher, pointed to Al. Hight.

On Friday Mr. Miller and Sheriff MOON took a train going south for the purpose of looking up the thief and the greenbacks, the sheriff boasting that he would bring him back without doubt; yes, sir, if he had to follow him to California. They returned on the midnight train Saturday.

On Sunday morning Sheriff Moon recounted their adventure about as follows: "We found Al. Hight near Greenwood, in Johnson county, fourteen miles south of Indianapolis. Hight had purchased two new suits of clothes, and had in his possession only $623.55, which we secured. We brought him to Indianapolis, stopping at the Illinois House, and while I was gone to the postoffice to mail some letters, Hight got away from Mr. Miller. I secured the services of several police and scoured the city, but our prisoner was no where to be found, and we were compelled to come home without him."

We are informed that later in the day some one whispered in Moon's ear that his story was not a safe one to tell and it was changed to the effect that while the sheriff was absent Mr. Miller designedly let the prisoner get away and there was no search made for him.

But that the matter might be fully understood inquiry was made of Mr. Miller as to Hight's escape, and he says that after they had found Hight and taken all the money in his possession they let him go scott free on the spot, and never brought him to Indianapolis, for the reason that he was not a man of very sound mind, a relative, &c., and that Hight cried and begged to be let go; he did not want to come back and be sent to State prison, &c.

We leave our readers to judge which of the above stories are most likely to be true, and also if Moon always tells the truth, and is a competent officer.

Later we learn that Sheriff Moon telegraphed to Indianapolis offering a reward of $50 for the apprehension of the thief, and still later that he had said if the detectives do arrest him, and bring him to Rochester, that he would have Mr. ESSICK, the Prosecuting Attorney, nol. pros., the suit, and save the fellow from going to the penitentiary.

In our own opinion the sheriff became a little muddled in the matter and did not know just what to do or what to say, but got his foot in it and thereby exposed his ignorance and several other bad qualifications.

Miss MARY MERCER has been installed organist at the M.E. Church.

We learn that Dr. H. B. ERNSPERGER, of Gilead, will take to himself one of the fair daughters of Miami county...

Dr. A. CANFIELD, of Fulton, returned Tuesday evening from a visit to his family who reside at Sank Centre, Minnesota. He was called home by the sickness of a daughter, who died a few days after his arrival.

Mr. WILLIAM E. WOOLEY, wholesale and retail dealer in Saddlery, Hardware, Leather and Findings, went on a visit to his family in Miami county last Saturday. He expects to move to this place in about two weeks. They will occupy the house where Mr. CHARLES JACKSON now lives.

THE NEW STAVE FACTORY. -CLARK & WEAVER possess the true grit. Almost immediately after their factory was burned down they commenced clearing away the debris preparatory to erecting other buildings on the site of the old factory. Last Thursday afternoon they called to their aid about one hundred citizens who carried three divisions of the large sheds, formerly used as dry houses, and placed them in position to be converted into buildings for the use of the factory. In a few weeks the machinery will again be in running order. Heretofore the Stave Factory was one of the most profitable manufactories in the county. It furnishes a market for just such timber as Fulton county possesses, and gives employment to more men than any other one establishment. Our hope is that Messrs. Clark & Weaver will be more successful in the future than in the past, and that they will remain and enlarge their factory to its former size and capacity.

TOWNSHIP OFFICES. -The following are the names of the candidates for township offices in Rochester township and the votes each one received:

For Trustee: JAMES B. ELLIOTT, 486, MARION ERNSPERGER, 100, JOHN SHOUP, 343.

For Justice: HUGH VAN METER, 451, L. W. SHELTON, 469, CHAS. J. STRADLEY, 517, WILLIAM REES, 373, B. STAMM, 111, LEVI HEILBRUN, 331, ROBERT WALLACE, 283, CHARLES E. REYNOLDS, 13, JOHN W. DAVIS, 410, ELI R. HERMAN, 487.

It will be seen by the above that Rochester township has elected a Republican trustee, three justices and four constables. We swept the field with the exception of one justice of the peace.

DIED. -At his residence, south-west of Rochester, Tuesday night, October 13, 1874, of typhoid fever, Mr. SAMUEL GARRETT, aged about 60 years.

Another highly esteemed citizen has gone to his eternal resting place. He was taken sick on the 13th of August and had been confined to his bed of pain ever since until God in his infinite mercy saw fit to give him rest. In the loss of Mr. Garrett we have lost a respected neighbor and a true friend -- one that will not be forgotten in a few days. To the sorrowing family and more especially to the aged and feeble widow, do their many friends offer their heartfelt sympathy...

GEO. WHITESIDE drives the milk wagon while J. S. TAYLOR sits on the jury. George is an experienced hand at the business, having served a faithful apprenticeship in Peru, some years ago.

STREET LAMPS. -We would not that Rochester should be putting on too many city airs, yet it would add much to the comfort, convenience and appearance of the place if a lamp was erected in front of each of the principal business houses on Main street; say one at the Central House, Wallace House, Zimmerman's, Danziger's, Ernspurger's, Plank's, Dawson's, Feder & Silberberg's, Heilbrun & Wile's and Chinn's. They could be put up by the proprietors at a trifling expense and would not only be a thing of beauty but a joy to all nocturnal pedestrians. Furthermore they would serve as an advertisement to the place of business. They should be lighted at night fall and extinguished at nine o'clock, or whenever the place of business is closed up.

If the council will not see that the sidewalks are kept in proper order something must be done to prevent people from breaking their necks.

Miss BESSIE SWEET, of Rochester, paid a flying visit on last Saturday.

Mr. JAQUA has got the Rosedale school, and intends moving to that place in a few days. Mr. JOHN COVERT is also talking of moving there.

DIED. -At his residence in this place, on Saturday morning, Oct. 31, 1874, of consumption, JAMES CORBET, aged 61 years. He leaves a widow and five children to mourn the loss. Funeral discourse by Elder McGRAW, at the Baptist church, on the following Sabbath. His remains were then followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends.

SPRINNEBURG ITEMS

JAMES VAN METER went out hunting the other morning, and killed three wild turkeys before breakfast

"Uncle JOHN" MONTGOMERY lost his pocket-book last Saturday, and now mourneth to the extent of about fourteen dollars.

ROBBERY. -Last Saturday night some thieving rascals pried the front doors of C. C. WOLF's jewelry store open but did not get anything; the valuables being all inside his large safe.

-The same evening JOE WEIDNER's saloon was entered, some money and liquor was taken. Some parties were arrested on suspicion but discharged for want of evidence.

SPY REPORTS

Mr. H. DUDGEON, one of our useful and enterprising Fulton county farmers, has built for himself, this summer, a very fine country residence, and is getting ready to move into it.

The sidewalk in front of MIESCH's saloon should be repaired. Many a good person might be judged drunk while walking over the loose boards who had really not tasted a drop of intoxicating liquor.

Perhaps we would not be considered a faithful chronicler of events if we did not mention the fact of a separation which took place some two weeks since between Mr. and Mrs. Dr.

BROWN. Of the cause we know nothing.

Mr. JACOB STAHL has traded his town property for SHEPHERD's farm, four miles east of town, and will move on it in the spring. He will continue to do first class carpenter work up to that time and perhaps afterward.

The rebuilt STAVE FACTORY, we are told by Mr. CLARK, one of the proprietors, will steam up this week and do some cutting. Other departments will be in running order in due time. Success to the enterprising firm.

It has been said that the HUGH MILLER family once boasted that they would have a representative in the court house so long as a human vestige of the family remained. It is to be hoped that CAFFYN is the tail end of that family, and that he will be defeated.

SAMUEL MILLER is a man who lives up to his promises. He promised to bring us a big jug of cider and renew his subscription by the time it expired, and he fulfilled his contract to a dot...

Mr. C. W. MORSE, of Defiance county, Ohio, has lately purchased and moved on the ANDREWS farm, west of town...

DAVID CLEMENS, Esq., one of the oldest settlers in this county, paid his annual visit to our sanctuary this week, and renewed his subscription for another year ...

Mr. M. MILLER, the old reliable gunsmith, at one time talked of selling out and moving away, but our readers will be glad to learn that he has leased a building lot of DENISTON & VANTRUMP, north of JESSE SHIELD's store, and is preparing to erect a gunsmith shop after his own liking, which will be the first and only building put up on Main street this year.

ANDREW HOOVER, the butcher, came near putting a period to his existence Monday by the bursting of a rifle. His face was burned and one eye considerably injured.

Although JOHN P. MYERS couldn't be elected sheriff of this county he is nevertheless good at catching criminals. He bagged an escaped prisoner from Peru at Claypool, in Kosciusko county, this week, and returned him to the proper authorities and took the swag.

DIED. -At Greencastle, Indiana, on Sunday evening, November 8, 1874, Mrs. ORA McCRAY, aged about 27 years.

Mrs. McCray was the oldest daughter of WILLIAM R. CARTER, of this place, who was telegraphed last Sunday evening but did not arrive until after her death. Returning Wednesday morning informed us of the sad event. She was married to Mr. LEVI McCRAY some six years ago, and has been a resident of Putnam county ever since. She leaves a devoted husband and one child to mourn the loss of a faithful wife and a fond mother. On her death bed she expressed a desire to live and continue to enjoy the society of her family and friends, but it was God's will she was ready to depart in peace. The funeral was attended by a large concourse of friends and relations and the members of the Brick Chapel Grange, of which she was a worthy and influential member. Services by Rev. S. TALLMAN.

A series of dances will be given by the members of J. G. PEARSON'S BRASS BAND, each Saturday night during the coming winter months, commencing on next Saturday evening, at the Music Hall in the MASONIC BUILDING. Good order will be maintained, and no gentleman admitted unless accompanied by a lady. A cordial invitation is given to all. Admission 50 cents. Rochester, Nov. 4., 1874.

FIRE MEETING. -Pursuant to call of the fire company of Rochester, a meeting was held at the Court house last Monday evening for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of purchasing a hand or steam FIRE ENGINE. MILO R. SMITH was elected chairman. Several speeches were made, the burden of which was against the purchase of a machine at the present time. The prevailing opinion was that the scarcity of water is the only matter that particularly concerns our safety at present. A motion was offered to the effect that the council be petitioned to put in two wells for each square on Main street, from Columbia street to Vine, and that said wells be furnished with good substantial pumps, kept constantly in working order, which passed, though we have our doubts whether any further action will be taken in the matter....

CITY DRIFT - by B. F. DAWSON

JAMES DAWSON is very sick with typhoid fever.

J. M. REITER has built an addition to his residence.

ED RANNELLS, of Logansport, was in town last Sunday.

MILO BRIGHT shipped 700 pounds of honey to Cincinnati, last week.

CHARLES JACKSON has erected a woodshed; and will soon begin the erection of a barn.

The alley running east and west between B. S. LYON's and ADAM AULT's residences has been opened.

The Rochester High School has made application to the State Board of Education to become commissioned.

The south-eastern portion of town is familiarly known as PARKERSBURG. A new barn is being built in that suburb.

D. W. LYON will be ASHTON's successor in the banking business; he having been appointed Receiver at the Laporte meeting last Tuesday.

The old NATIONAL CULVER HOUSE on north Main street has recently received a new roof and an external coat of white-wash.

G. M. SARGENT has placed a new roof on his barn, moved his horse-power straw cutter and otherwise repaired his new property.

Two women entered GUS. MEISCH's saloon last Friday night and "ordered up" the drinks. This was learned from good authority.

It is said that when D. W. LYON went to Oxford, Ohio, a short time since to see his daughter, he was supposed to be a minister. Why?

E. KIRTLAND has complied with the street lamp request -he keeps a lighted lantern hanging in front of his business house every evening.

WILLIAM MOORE, an old resident of this county, but later of the State of Missouri, is back here looking after the interests in the bank failure.

Only one of the two weddings mentioned last week occurred; and the happy persons were Mr. ALVIN ROBBINS and Mrs. SARAH HOLMES. Success!

ELIAS PECK and his son, ALBERT, from Greenville, Michigan, are here visiting. Mr. Peck was a resident of Rochester until 1868, when he moved to his present home.

As a catchist J. P. MYERS is a successist. He was the man who "lassoed" FRANK WHITTENBERGER, the young Peru thief, at Claypool, Kosciusko county, last Monday morning, just as the young gent was ready to start for Canada. He was brought to Rochester and taken home on the noon train.

The residence of THOMAS WOOD, situated in Henry township, ten miles east of Rochester and near the Warsaw road, was consumed by fire last Saturday evening. It was a total loss, inasmuch as none of the contents was saved; even all his own clothes except the suit he had on. It was evidently the work of an incendiary, since there had been no fire in the house for three or four days.

ROCHESTER UNION-SPY, Thursday, November 19, 1874

[Special election held for office of Auditor because of a tie, resulted in the election of CAFFYN]

A GRAND OLD DRUNK! The Democrats received the news rather early in the evening, and concluded to have a Mollification meeting. At about 9 o'clock they built a bonfire of stolen boxes in front of the Continental building; in a short time they moved to the south-west corner of the public square; then again to the front of the Wallace House.

The principal speakers (most all of whom were stimulated) were ROBERT WALLACE, PETER APT, J. S. SLICK, Hon. GEORGE LOWERY, MACK McINTIRE, J. ROSENBERG, ED GEARING, LEVI MONTGOMERY, V. ZIMMERMAN, CAL VAN TRUMP, S. R. MOON and WILLIAM STURGEON. Loud calls were given for JAMES MANN, Esq. (colored), Hon. J. D. VANDECARR, CHARLES CAFFYN, Hon. GUS MEISCH, GEORGE HAZLETT, BEN CRAWFORD and A. T. BITTERS, but they were unable to appear.

The scene of the celebration seemed to be shaken by an earthquake or some other kind of a "quake," during the whole proceedings. Men (!) were seen reeling to-and-fro, leaning against each other and clinging to trees and fences to keep from falling.

"Boss" SLICK was the last man to address the meeting. At the conclusion he said the Democrats were greatly indebted to the SENTINEL ring for their success, therefore he thought they ought to have three rousing cheers; says slick and three or four other voices: "Hip, hip, (hic) hurrah! hip hur(hic)rah! (hic)hurrah!" He was afraid to say "three cheers for Slick" for fear an honest man (BEN ELLIOTT) would knock him down; but of course included himself in the ring.

A drunken New Castle township Democrat procured a black hen which he threw into the fire alive, and roasted in the flames. Black generally means corruption. We don't know what it means in this case unless it signifies kukluxism, and death to all opposition.

About 10:30 o'clock the drunken jollifiers who could not walk the sidewalk might have been seen traveling down Main Street ku klux style, each bearing a fire brand....

SPRINKLEBURG ITEMS

JAMES THOMPSON, Esq., is now canvassing for subscribers to one of the most useful books before the American people. It is "An Illustrated History of the Great Republic."

PIN HOOK POINTS

On last Saturday J. P. CHANCE returned from a protracted visit in Ohio.

JOHN GOTTSCHALK has built a dwelling house which reminds us very forcibly of a light-house.

GEORGE HOOK has added to possessions a blacksmith shop, twenty acres of fine timber land and a small farm.

The Saw-mill school house is being fenced in. Every one in this township should be served the same way.

WILLIAM KIRKENDOLL makes a very accommodating constable. He takes a two horse wagon and hauls his prisoners and their witnesses into town.

Miss IRENE SELLERS and Miss LIZZIE McGRAW, of Kewanna, paid our town a visit last week...

I will just say it was a false statement I made in my last concerning JOHN COVERT's moving to Rosedale. It is to Colfax he intends going, but he thinks he will not go until spring.

The first oyster supper of the season was held at RADLIFF MARTIN's a short distance north of town, last Tuesday night... the crowd was very small. Boys, bring your girls next time.

JOHN MEVON is having a new fence erected around his lot ...

Mr. GEORGE COOK has been repairing his house.

Mr. WILLIAM BLACKBURN has at last commenced his building.

A few nights ago, some low-bred rascal entered Mr. AITKIN's store, and took about $25 worth of postage stamps; nothing else ... They were also in the drug store, where they made free use of the liquor.

Miss BESSTE SWEET was elected teacher of the Fulton school last night...

Mrs. COVERT, of this place, is at present with her mother in Kokomo, who is dangerously ill.

DIED: -Yesterday the sad intelligence reached us that Miss MAGGIE SIMONTON is dead. She was with us only three weeks ago, well as usual, teaching music in our family. We will all miss her very much.

(Notice to Non-Residents) ... SARAH E. PETTIT vs JAMES D. PETTIT... plaintiff, by ENOCH STURGEON, Attorney... that said Defendant is not a resident of the State of Indiana... this 18th day of November, A.D. 1874, SAMUEL KEELY, Clerk.

Every lover of nice fresh beef, veal, mutton or pork, is willing to testify that the very best meats can always be secured of SHIELDS & TRACY, at the sign of the cross-eyed steer. Sausage for sale nearly every day.

BEN CRAVEN takes special pains in copying and enlarging old pictures, having the only instrument in town for that business. He is fully prepared to enlarge and finish them in India Ink or Oil.

LOST. A pair of gold spectacles. Think they were dropped between the residence of Mr. H. B. JAMISON and that of the undersigned... K. G. SHRYOCK. Rochester, Nov. 16, 1874.

SPY REPORTS

WILLIAM KINDIG has gone to California.

J. S. TAYLOR pays for four copies of the UNION-SPY.

Miss BELL BARNES has returned from her extended visit to New York.

J. C. STRADLEY, the newly elected justice, has opened an office over Ernsperger's store.

S. LINE is constructing a monument for Mr. ALVIN ROBBINS of superior design and finish.

BILL REAM labored hard Tuesday to secure the job of watering the trees in the court house yard for the summers of 1875-6. It's a fat appointment.

Grandma WILEY lately returned from a visit to Virginia, bringing home a pair of genuine home tanned, home made buckskin gloves for each of her sons.

It is reported that Boss SLICK will withdraw from the editorial staff of the SENTINEL after this week, and hereafter be known only as an occasional correspondent. This will end our fight with that paper unless personally attacked. Let us have peace.

PERSONAL

F. M. ASHTON and Mrs. H. B. JAMISON were telegraphed to Lima, Ohio, last Saturday. Mrs. EMMA ASHTON, whom they went to see, died on Monday.

Miss NAN M. RANNELLS, of Urbana, Ohio is here visiting her numerous friends. In years she has long gone by the bloom of youth, though she retains her youthful beauty, possessing an intelligent and dignified appearance

Miss IDA MARTIN, of Fulton, better known as "DELL," who furnishes the SPY with the "FULTON SCRIBBLINGS," looked in on us yesterday morning for the first time ...

BLUE GRASS LOCALS, Nov. 14, 1874

There was a sale at widow BAILEY's last Saturday, and one at widow BEATIE's Wednesday.

Miss McCOY is elected teacher of the Lake school, which will commence December 17th.

Miss McGRAW will teach the Marshtown school. This is her third term there.

We noticed that JOHN KEDD is erecting a fine, large house.

I understand that BENJ. EGMAN is going to buy hogs this winter.

JOHN MATHEWS contemplates a visit to Ohio in a week or two.

MARRIED. -There was quite a sensation in church last Sunday, in the form of a wedding; the persons having the ceremony writ performed was WILLIAM FOSTER and HANNAH HAINES -- there was quite a contrast in their ages, but they seemed to be satisfied, and we will have to be, although our prospects seem to diminish almost every week.

JESSE JULIAN killed two fine swans on the lake last week.

-On Thursday, November 12, 1874, by the Rev. J. MILLER, Mr. WINFIELD T. CARR and Mrs. SARAH E. EATON.

Rev. Miller informs us that the last named couple met him in the road near his residence and informed him of their desires. He invited them to come into the house, but the anxious groom replied, never mind, it will do just as well out here in the buggy, and so they were united. The happy couple have each tasted of the sweets of matrimony before, and they well knew the principal enjoyment is not in making a big display.

DIED. -In Rochester, Tuesday, November 24, 1874, ISAAC TRUE, aged 64 years, 8 months and 2 days.

Isaac True was born in Cumberland county, Maine, February 21, 1810, and was married to LOUISA SMOCK, in Marion county, Indiana, March 1, 1832. He has been a member of the order of I. O. O. F. 25 years. He united with the M.E. Church when but 20 years of age, and was class leader for a number of years at this place. He is the father of eleven children, five of which now live to mourn their loss, but they do not mourn as those who have no hope, for it can be truly said of him that he was prepared to meet his God. Having endeavored to live a Christian life he had no fears of death, and sweetly and gently passed from this life into the hands of a just and all wise ruler.

WILL WILSON made a couple of good shots, Saturday last, killing three wild geese with one barrel as they were sitting and two with the other barrel as they started to fly. The five weighed 45 pounds.

A BAD LAY OUT. -From a correspondent we receive the following: on Saturday, November 14th, WILLIAM FINLEY and his son-in-law, CORNELIUS ADAMS, left their residence at Bruces Lake, and went to Winamac. While in the latter place they imbibed more of that beverage known as "fighting whisky" than would be considered consistent with religious professions. Upon their return, therefrom they became engaged in a fight, the result of which was that the son-in-law, Adams, broke three of his father-in-law's ribs, and tumbled him over in the grubs. Some time after, FRANK FINLEY, son of the injured man, passed that way with a companion, and hearing groans by the roadside, suggested that there was some one there suffering. It being dark, the companion, FRANZ BRUCE, replied that it was only a hog, and they passed on. There the old man Finley remained in agony until six o'clock the following morning, when he was found by a dog of some hunters, who were hunting coon, when he was taken to a neighboring house and kindly cared for. It is thought Finley will recover. Comment is unnecessary. The facts speak for themselves.

S. A. WALLACE has gotten up something new and beautiful in the way of a sign for LOL SAMUEL, the proprietor of the MERCHANT'S RESTAURANT.

Mr. THOS. NEWHOUSE, the farmer, hauled our new job stone from Line's marble yard to our office Tuesday. It is the finest marble slab we ever saw in a printing office

A. P. CARVEY, of Lincoln, would not allow us to pay the postage on his paper for 1875, and handed over the amount. He says the SPY is worth two dollars and the postage. and means to pay it.

Mr. J. E. CATES, Treasurer Fulton county elect, will sell all his live stock and farming implements, at his residence in Newcastle township, Thursday, December 24th. He will move to Rochester soon after, though he does not come in possession of his office until next September.

SOLOMON MILLER, of Aubbeenaubee township received his commission as justice of the peace last week. Being a granger he says he is now prepared to marry anybody and everybody at granger prices ...

FIRE. -Last Monday night, about eleven o'clock the residence of Mr. FRED PETING, east of the race, was entirely destroyed by fire. The building was occupied by Mr. PAUL MAY, who had time to save but a few articles of clothing and the cook stove. Both the proprietor and renter have been singularly unfortunate, and the last only adds another to their already long list of misfortunes. Total loss about $200.

EXPRESS OFFICE. -Since the death of R. P. SMITH, the former EXPRESS AGENT , considerable figuring has been done by two or three parties to secure the office in connection with their other business. Those in authority say that if Ernsperger, Jackson & Co. desire it continued at their place of business it shall be so, if not then the next best place shall be chosen, which of course would be ED. CHINN's grocery store, in the Beeber block.

Dr. M. M. REX, the enterprising Dentist, always up with the times in everything pertaining to his profession, has lately secured the new patented composition known as Celluloid. It is known to be superior in many respects to all former plates for sets of teeth...

MARRIED. -Thursday, November 26, 1874, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. MILLER, CHARLES ROBBINS and REBECCA COLLINS, all of Fulton county.

DIED. -WASHINGTON WOODFILL, November 24, 1874, aged 59 years, 6 months and 27 days.

He had been a resident of this county for about thirty-five years. In his death, the community has lost an excellent citizen; the church, a faithful member. His wife died in 1868. Five children are left to mourn the loss of both father and mother.

-In this place, of typhoid fever, Monday evening, November 30th, 1874, RICHARD P. SMITH, aged 42 years, 8 months and 27 days.

Mr. Smith had been a resident of this town and county for several years, and has always been known and recognized as one of the most orderly and respectable citizens. He leaves a devoted wife and several relatives to mourn the loss of a worthy husband and friend. The Masonic Lodge, of which he was a member, took charge of the burial Wednesday and deposited the remains in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Religious services were held at the M.E. Church by Rev. A. E. BABCOCK.

ROCHESTER UNION-SPY, Thursday, December 10, 1874

FRANK WHITTENBERGER, charged with stealing a horse, on change of venue from Miami county, was tried in our court last week, found guilty, fined $50, disfranchised for two years, and sentenced to a term of two years in our Northern Penitentiary. His father is a man of means and a most worthy citizen of Miami county. Frank is bright and prepossessing in appearance and might have made a useful and respectable man. But loose habits and bad company have done for him what they have done for many a promising young man before him and will do for many another. -WABASH PLAIN DEALER.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT. -The vexed question of who shall be trustee of Henry township has at last been settled... After consultation with the Board of Commissioners the Auditor named Rev. JACOB WHITTENBERGER to fill the position. Mr. Whittenberger is one of the oldest and best citizens of Henry township ... As an evidence of his worthiness and appreciation by the people... Mr. ISAAC PUNTIUS, Mr. A. THOMPSON and Mr. J. SHEVER came forward and offered to go on his bond.

ROCHESTER DURING 1874. -Rochester has... fallen far short this year of the progress made in 1873. The cost of buildings alone in this place for 1873 was carefully estimated at $100,000. This year the total cost of all new buildings erected will not exceed $35,000. With the exceptions of two fine residences erected on west Pearl street, by Mr. D. W. LYON, and Mr. CHAS. JACKSON, all others, so far as we know, are small dwellings in the outer edge of the town. But one building has been erected in the business portion of Rochester... This great dearth in improvement was principally caused by the failure of the FARMERS' LOAN AND DEPOSIT BANK...

DIED. -Tuesday night, December 8, 1874, MACK, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. JAMISON.

Little Mack was taken with the croup last Saturday, and all the skill of physicians and the care of the fond parents could not prevent the spirit's flight. A bright light has gone out of that household and the parents are left sorrowing. The funeral will take place at the residence to-day at 10 o'clock.

-[From the Limo, O., GAZETTE] -Mrs. EMMA ASHTON, wife of F. M. ASHTON, and daughter of HUDSON and HULDA WATT, died at her father's residence, on west Market street, Lima, Ohio, on the evening of November 16, A.D. 1874.

She was born May 12th, 1849, and was 25 years, 6 months and 3 days of age at her decease. She was the youngest of a family of eleven children, tenderly reared, religiously educated, and greatly loved by all her friends and acquaintances. She was married on Christmas day, 1867, with whose name she bears, and with whom she engaged to tread life's pathway, and to whom she clung, to life's close, with a quenchless affection. Since her marriage, her home has been most of the time in Rochester, Ind.; though in consequence of enfeebled health, most of her time was spent in Lima, with her parents, of whom she was tenderly beloved, and who spared no pains in bestowing the ministeries of relief and comfort that her condition demanded. She was not characteristically communicative in a general way, yet at times seemed to open her heart freely and fully. This was especially true of her with respect to her dearest friends. For some months there was seemingly an unsettled state of mind in regard to her spiritual interests, but as life drew to its close, and thought was bestowed upon the subject, there was an evident settling down upon the great doctrines of revealed religion, and a clearing away of doubt, until Christ and His salvation became ali-engrossing, and His cross embraced by faith, as her only hope. A few days before her death, in conversation with the writer of this, she said: "I have surrendered all to Christ. He is my only trust." To her father and mother and other friends, she made such communication from time to time, as afforded them indubitable assurance of her spiritual preparation for her approaching change. ... She remained conscious to the last, and with but seemingly a slight struggle yielded up her spirit to the sleep of death. Her mortal remains were borne to the old Cemetery for interment, and layed away with a number of others of the family, who have preceded her to the spirit land; to await the voice of the Son of God, which shall awake them to a new life, and a conscious immortality of being. - - - L. C. WEBSTER

ROBBERY. -Last Tuesday night, while the proverbially quiet denizens of Rochester were slumbering and dreaming, as they are wont to do, some rascally thief, or thieves, broke into LEVI EMRICK's cigar and tobacco store and extracted therefrom $230 worth of the precious weed, pipes, cigar holders, &c. The loss is a severe one to Mr. Emrick, especially at this time, just having embarked on the matrimonial sea. The same party, doubtless, not satisfied with this successful haul entered the post office, next door, and gobbled up some $5.00 in nickels and postage stamps, and made good their escape with their booty. It is possible that it was done by resident thieves, and it may be CHAS. WEST, ED. STANFORD and JOHN FRAZEE, "old hands at the business," who broke jail at Peru Saturday night last, found it convenient to "take in Rochester." We hope the rascals, whoever they are, may be brought into court and compelled to enter into a contract to serve the State for a good long term.

Mrs. A. E. GILES, of New York, has opened a Dress Making department in this place. We will tell our readers all about it next week.

WASHING MACHINE AND WRINGER. -F. G. HORTON having purchased the Patentee's right to make and sell the Knox Washing Machines & Wringer, combined, in Fulton county, and having exhibited the same several times on the Fair Grounds, he proposes to deliver Machines at Rochester for $16 cash, so that any one wishing to secure the Best Combined Machine that is made, will do well to address T. G. HORTON, Allen P.O., Miami County, Ind.

A SMASH UP. -Last Tuesday evening a two-mule team was halted near E. B. CHINN's grocery store, the driver trusting in the docility of his long-eared propellers threw the lines down and ran into the store to do some trading. The winter winds whistled wildly around the Beeber block which brought to the remembrance of the mules the warm stable and their waiting supper of corn and hay, and without consulting with their driver they determined to walk on slowly leaving him catch up if he felt so disposed. Hard by where the mule team was waiting, stood "Margret" (Chinn's old gray), expecting soon to deliver her last load of groceries for the day and also go home to rest. The mules either to sustain their reputation for awkwardness, create a local for the SPY or play a trick on ED. CHINN, ran with their heavy wagon against the hind wheels of Ed's fine delivery rig, capsizing and demolishing it generally. Margaret feeling somewhat chagrined at having her fancy vehicle smashed up by the long-eared step-sons, done her best to disengage the wagons, but to no effect. The mules pretending they did not know that anything unusual had happened, silently, and apparently in a meditative mood, pursued their course until requested to stop, which they did. Just who will be responsible for damages we are not informed.

MARRIED. -At the residence of Mr. O. P. OSGOOD, in Rochester, Sabbath evening, December 20, 1874, by Elder W. R. MIKHES, Mr. LEVI B. EMRICK and Miss ALLIE SPOTTS.

That blissful moment of ecstatic joy so long looked forward to has at last come, and the honey moon, whose silvery rays cast no forboding shadow, has appeared in a clear bright sky. Mr. Emrick is well known as the industrious tobacconist of this place, who has secured the confidence and respect of the people by his gentlemanly character. Miss SPOTTS is a sister to L. M.

SPOTTS, Esq., formerly one of the publishers of this paper. We wish the happy pair all the pleasure and comfort to be found in married life.

-on Thursday evening, Dec. 17, 1874, at the residence of the bride's father, one mile west of town, by Rev. N. L. LORD, Mr. ALVIN OSBORNE and Miss IDA MERRICK....

-In this place, on the 18 inst., at the residence of ROBERT GOULD, by Rev. A. FOOTE, Dr. GUSTAVINS A. DURR, of Marmont, Marshall county, and Miss MATILDA MILLER, of Monterey, Pulaski county.

The above is another sad union of December and May. The groom has passed through the frosts of sixty winters and the bride has tallied only fifteen summers. We leave our readers to comment on the subject at will.

DIED. -LOUISA, wife of ISAAC TRUE, Dec. 21, 1874, age 60 years, 7 months and 17 days.

The deceased was born in Shelby county, Kentucky, and removed to this county nearly 40 years ago, where she has resided since with her late husband, whose death took place but a few days ago. Since that time her constant prayer has been that she should go to him, and when death came she gently passed away. The children and friends of this bereft family have the heart-felt sympathies of the community.

-On Friday, Dec. 18, 1874, of pneumonia, Mr. JACOB GIFFIN.

Deceased was about 62 years old; came, originally, from Frederick county, Virginia has been a resident of Indiana for 23 years; and was known as a quiet, hard-working citizen and a good neighbor. He was a powerful man in his day, being almost 7 feet in height and possessed of immense strength.

-On Tuesday, Dec. 10, 1874, of fever, son of S. A. & E. SIBERT, aged 3 weeks and 1 day.

-At his residence in Richland township, Fulton county, on the 15th inst., of plura-Pneumonia, after an illness of but five and a half days, DAVID RALSTIN, aged 55 years, 8 months and 7 days.

He was born in Ohio; removed to Miami county, Indiana, when quite young; and to Richland township, Fulton county, about thirty-six years ago. He has left a wife and seven children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. He was entirely rational during his brief sickness. He called his family to his bed-side, told them what he desired them to do, and expressed his wishes in respect to his funeral. He expressed willingness to die. The funeral was attended from his late residence by a large concourse of neighbors and friends. Mr. Ralstin was a good citizen, a quiet and peaceful man. He was industrious and frugal, temperate, truthful and honest. Thus has suddenly passed away another of the pioneers, a class who have labored long and patiently to change the wilderness into fruitful fields and pleasant homes. To them the younger and coming generations will owe lasting obligations. Rochester, Dec. 22, 1874.

HENRY TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTITUTE... at the school building in Akron on Saturday, January 3, 1874... (names mentioned): C. K. BITTERS, Miss MELISSA FOWLER, D. G. HARTER, Miss JOSIE DAVIDSON, Mr. L. NOYER, A. L. SHAFER, R. C. WALLACE, W. BEMENDERFER, W. H. GREEN...

UNION TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTITUTE ... in the Graded School building ... December 27, 1873 ... (names mentioned): Rev. WM. READER, JOSEPH SLICK, P. S. TROUTMAN, JNO. F. WILSON, R. W. COX, Miss TAYLOR, R. B. MINTON., JENNIE EGMAN, DANIEL LOUGH, Jr., EMMA BARNETT, S. J. BARGER, Prof YARLOT, I. F. WILSON, Rev. Father SPARKS, Miss WEARY, Miss IRENE SELLERS, Elder E. M. MCGRAW, SAMUEL J. BARGER, Miss GENIEVA HYLAND, Miss BAINTEY, J. A. BARNETT.

The first and second days (of Circuit Court) were consumed in taking defaults and making up issues in the several cases. In the three cases of the State vs MARY J. HIATT, who stands charged with larceny, ENOCH STURGEON presented a petition to the Court asking a dismissal of the cases. It will be remembered by those who read the SENTINEL a few months ago that the said Mary J. Hiatt was caught in the act of doing a fair and square job of "SHOP LIFTING," the firms of Bibler & Babcock, Ernspenger, Jackson & Co., D. S. Gould, and Jesse Shields failing for various trinkets which she had set her heart; at neither place, however, was the amount taken sufficient to constitute grand larceny, for which the Grand Jury at its last session found three several indictments against her. Now, Enoch conceived the novel idea of having the Court violate its sacred obligations by dismissing the suits without a hearing, he alleging that the defendant had already been sufficiently punished by remorse of conscience and torture of mind; but the Judge very promptly and properly remarked to him that it was a question for the Prosecuting Attorney, and not for the Court, to determine. The Prosecutor did, subsequently, dismiss as to two cases, upon the ground that the value of the articles taken was not of sufficient value to constitute grand larceny, and she is yet held to answer to the charge of petty larceny. On Wednesday the case of the State vs CYRUS McCARTER, charged with shooting MARGARET WRIGHT with intent to commit murder, was called up, and, after considerable effort, a jury was empanelled, and the trial was proceeded with. The testimony for the State closed on Thursday evening, and the hearing of the evidence for the defendant consumed the time of the Court yesterday, and is not yet concluded. It is doubtful if a verdict in the case will be rendered this week. There is a great deal of interest manifested in the trial, and the Court room is generally crowded with spectators. The defense rely upon a plea of insanity to secure an acquittal. one whole week of the Court has gone, and not one case fully disposed of. Several other criminal cases appear upon the docket for trial, and doubt if a single civil case will be reached during the term. The abolishing of the COMMON PLEAS COURT has been a matter of doubtful propriety in our mind, and unless a greater length of our Circuit Court terms can be had, it would be advisable to return to the old system of Circuit and Common Pleas Courts.

AKRON NEWS, Tuesday, Jan. 6, 1874

The festival at this place on Christmas night was a success in every particular, the net proceeds being about $40.00. One of the most important features of the festival was the museum, under the special supervision of N. G. HUNTER... The post office conducted by Miss MAGGIE DAVIS was also a source of some revenue. ANDY STRONG, with his coat off and sleeves rolled up, dished the oysters up in every imaginable shape. MARRIED. -On Thursday evening, January 8, 1874, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. F. M. ELLIOTT, Mr. CHARLES E. REYNOLDS and Miss MARY STIEGLIETZ, all of this place....

By the death of Mr. CONGER, our Township Trustee, the appointment by the Auditor of JOHN R. SHOUP, to fill the vacancy, meets with the hearty approval of all so far as we can learn ...

DIED. -One by one the fathers of the country are passing away. On Saturday, January 3d, 1874, LEWIS B. CONGER passed from earth away at the advanced age of 70 years, 9 months and 15 days. He was born in New Jersey, but has been a resident of this State for over 56 years, the earlier portion of his life being spent in Dearborn County, where he held many positions of public trust, which were all discharged with fidelity and honor to himself and the people whose confidence he had. For many years he has lived in this immediate neighborhood, a quiet, peaceful and highly respected citizen. In the fall of 1872 he was nominated by the Democratic party, a party for which he had a zealous attachment, as Trustee of this, Rochester Township, and was elected by a large majority. His strict attention to the duties pertaining to the office and the economical administration of its affairs, has won for him the esteem and admiration of all. An examination of his books will reveal the fact that they were well kept and that he was a man capable of filling higher and more exalted positions. He was the head of a large family, many of whom, with the partner of his joys and sorrows, survive him. He has been a consistent member of the Baptist church for fifty years, and had been a member of the Masonic fraternity for nearly the same length of time, serving in its highest official positions with honor and distinction. His funeral obsequies, were attended last Sabbath by a large concourse of friends and relatives, the Masons of this place performing the rites and ceremonies. The sermon was preached at the Baptist church by Rev. Dr. ROWDEN, and was one of his best efforts.

Last week we briefly announced that JACOB GERSON had bought the mammoth stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. of Montgomery & Co. ... the goods ... have been removed to the north room of the Masonic building ... That popular salesman, CHAS. W. CAFFYN, may be found behind the counter ...

CIRCUIT COURT

We were not mistaken in our statement last week that not a single civil case for trial would be reached during this term of the Court. The case of the State of Indiana vs CYRUS McCARTER, of which we gave a brief notice last week, was called for trial on the third day of the term and has engaged the whole attention of the Court from that time up to Thursday noon of this week. It occupied more time and created more interest and excitement among the people than any case that has been tried in this County for many years. The array of witnesses on each side was very large, and the best efforts of the defense was put forth to prove the insanity of the defendant at the time the shooting occurred. The counsel for the State was M. L. ESSICK, the Prosecuting Attorney, and J. S. SLICK; those for the defense, Col. SHRYOCK, H. B. JAMISON and ENOCH STURGEON -- all of whom worked faithfully and zealously in the interest of their clients, with a strong determination to secure, if possible, a verdict favorable to their client. The jury was composed of some of the best men in the County, who, through the course of the whole trial, occupying eight days, with long night sessions, sat and and listened with marked attention to the long line of testimony introduced. Both parties rested their case on Tuesday night, the testimony having all been introduced, and on Wednesday morning the argument of counsel began. We were not present during all the argument, but hear it remarked upon as being masterly efforts, and reflecting much credit upon the speakers, save in their abuse of each other and some of the witnesses. Judge LONG's charge to the jury was a clear and comprehensive review of the entire case, listened to by jury and audience attentively. It would have afforded us much pleasure to have published the charge, believing that our readers would have enjoyed a perusal of it, but its great length and our limited time for putting it in type prevented us from so doing. After the charge the jury retired to deliberate upon the perplexing question of the sanity or insanity of Cyrus McCarter, who stood charged with shooting MARGARET WRIGHT with intent to commit murder. After a retirement of about four hours a verdict of guilty was returned, and an assessment of five dollars fine and imprisonment in the penitentiary for the term of three years. The diversity of opinion which existed among the people before the rendition of the verdict, was not changed any by its announcement. Whatever outside sentiments are, it cannot now change the state of affairs. He has had a fair and impartial trial. All regret the calamity that has befallen upon him and his friends, and extend their sympathy in their troubles.

(Estray Notice) Taken up by the subscriber, living in Union Township, on the 12th day of December, and reported to F. H. GRAHAM, a Justice of the Peace of said township, a stray steer... appraised at $11. JASON BENNETT.

HORRIBLE, IF TRUE. ... a horrible story comes to us, which, for atrociousness and villainy, has no parallel in this community, and we give it briefly, not because we love to do so, but because it is a duty demanded of us at the hands of our readers. The story, as it comes to us, and as we learn it from the records, is about as follows:

ANDREW J. ANDERSON is a man about forty years of age, has lived in this County a number of years, and now lives in Akron, this County, which has been his home for the past five years. He is a married man, having a wife and three or more daughters, two of whom have grown to womanhood and were both married on the same day to men by the name of STRONG some time in October last. The two married daughters, with their husbands, domiciled themselves at the saw mill a mile or more this side of Akron, while the youngest of the three, probably about fourteen years old, remained at home. Recent developments have proven to the world that this young girl is pregnant with a bastard child, the knowledge of which, naturally enough, created considerable neighborhood talk, and the crime was laid at the door of a young man residing in that vicinity. In a talk upon the subject between one of the married girls and her husband, she is said to have dropped the remark that it was probable that her father was the guilty one. This excited the suspicions of her husband, and she went on to relate how that from early girlhood up to within a short time of her marriage, she and her married sister were forced to submit to his embraces, and threatened with death upon a revelation of the fact. The husband lost no time in coming to town and securing the arrest of his father-in-law upon a charge of incest, and he was placed under a bond of $1,000 for his appearance before Esquire REES on next Wednesday. Anderson then took his youngest daughter before Esquire BIRCH, and had her file an affidavit against the young man suspected with being the father of the unborn child. Since then the other married daughter has filed her affidavit against her father, charging him with incest also, and also an affidavit against him for surety of the peace. The unfortunate and unhappy father will probably waive an examination and give additional bonds for his appearance in a higher court. Such is about the state of the cases as they now stand -- horrible to contemplate. Mr. Anderson was a man who stood well in the estimation of the people of the community in which he lives as an honest and upright man. We have enjoyed his personal acquaintance for many years, and are slow to believe that he is the guilty wretch he is charged with being, and until he has had a fair hearing we withhold any comments. There may be something behind the scenes that may change the character of the case entirely.

ROCHESTER SENTINEL, Saturday, January 24, 1874

The man ANDREW J. ANDERSON, heretofore arrested on a charge of incest, and recognized to appear before WILLIAM REESE on Wednesday of this week, failed to come to time., and his bond, one thousand dollars, was, in consequence, forfeited. There were three affidavits in all filed against him, two for incest and one for surety of the peace, but he was only arrested upon one of them. His whereabouts is at present unknown, but it is believed that he is concealed by some of his relatives within the County. We had hoped that the charge preferred against him was untrue; but his failure to appear at the time fixed for his preliminary hearing, is a circumstance strongly indicative of his guilt. His two daughters and their husbands are, in the meantime, living in constant fear lest he perpetrate some violence upon them. It is the duty of authorities to make vigilant search for him,, and it is hoped that no pains will be spared to secure his early arrest. Anderson is a man probably 47 years of age, slim built, above the average height, with black hair and heavy black beard, usually wearing a black slouch hat and black cloth dress coat, and is awkward in his gait.

NEW TRIAL. -CYRUS McCARTER, whom our readers will remember was convicted of assault and battery with intent to kill and murder one MARGARET WRIGHT, was, on last Saturday night, granted a new trial...

CIRCUIT COURT. -The Circuit Court adjourned on Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock, after receiving from the jury a verdict of "Not Guilty" in the case of the State vs HENRY RINEHART. Our readers will remember that Mr. Rinehart was one of the partners in the firm of KELLY & RINEHART, engaged in operating a flax mill at this place. The mill was burned the latter part of December, 1872, and Rinehart, together with two others, DOWNS and TUTTLE, were arrested upon a charge of arson.

The theory of the State was that the mill was over-insured, and Rinehart procured Downs and Tuttle to destroy it, so that he might get the insurance money. All three being indicted together, the case was dismissed by the State as to Downs and Tuttle, in order that they might testify against the other.

Tuttle testified that Rinehart hired him to do the burning, and he employed Downs to assist him. There was no pretense that Rinehart was at the fire, he being at the time absent in Ohio, and so his case hung wholly upon the evidence of Tuttle. The defendant took advantage of the bad reputation of Tuttle for truth and veracity, and introduced a large number of witnesses impeaching him.

The jury retired at about 11 o'clock on Monday night, and returned the above verdict at 1 o'clock the next morning.

So the mill is burned, and all three of the persons charged are at liberty. The attorneys were for the State, Messrs. ESSICK and SHRYOCK; for the defendant, Messrs. MARSHALL, KEITH, JAMISON and SLICK.

WAGONER BROTHERS have been running their SAW MILL for a few days with great success ...

We regret to learn that JOHN RAYSE of our village is going to remove to LINCOLN, where he has purchased an interest in a SAW MILL...

The CHRISTIAN CHURCH at Lincoln will give a grand festival at their new church in that place on Saturday evening of this week, the proceeds to be applied to paying for their building, which, we are told, is all for the sake of saving sinners. We expect to attend, and hope every one else will be there with their ladies.

AKRON NEWS

Miss ALICE WHITTENBERGER has been visiting her many friends here during the past week. MILT WHITTENBERGER, of Peru, has also been visiting his intimate friend.

DIED. -Mrs. THOMAS WHITTENBERGER of Peru, was buried here on Wednesday. Quite a large concourse of friends attended her remains to their last resting place. [See Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh, Fulton County, Ind. Cemetery Inscriptions, Akron Citizens Cemetery, Henry Twp: HULDAH W. WHITTENBERGER, wife of THO'S WHITTENBERGER, died Feb. 1, 1874, at age 47yr-11mo-8da.]

LON. RANNELLS and BILLY WALLACE were here on Saturday in attendance at the Institute. They expressed themselves as favorably impressed with the village damsels, and also with the dinner upon which they feasted at the MONTOUR HOUSE.

MYERS and NEAL were in town on Monday. They came to purchase leather from our tanneries which can not be excelled.

(Estray Notice) Taken up by the subscriber, living in Rochester Township, Fulton County, Indiana, on January 3, 1874, and reported to WILLIAM REES, a Justice of said township, one red and white spotted steer, supposed to be one year old last fall, medium size, no marks or brands perceivable. Appraised at $12. PHILIP BAKER.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Fulton County has but two Notaries Public -- SLICK and HOLMAN.

Since the 10th of March this county has reported to the Attorney General $180 as fines and forfeitures.

SAM KEELY, our genial County Clerk, spent a portion of this week in Indianapolis. I. W. WALKER, his deputy, attends promptly to the duties of the office during Mr. Keely's absence.

The remains of HULDAH, wife of THOMAS WHITTENBERGER, of Peru, were brought here on the noon express train on Tuesday, and from here were taken to Akron, and deposited by the side of loving friends "gone before."

A. F. ANTHONY, the popular restaurant man, is making arrangements to locate in the rooms recently vacated by HEILBRUN & WILE. He is giving the building a thorough renovation ...

As will be seen by a notice of dissolution in another column, the firm of LAUER & DEICHMAN has dissolved. Mr. Deichman goes to Chicago as a partner in a wholesale house engaged in selling piece goods ...

The family of our old friend, ANDREW ONSTOTT, living a little south of town, has been severely afflicted within the past few months. The two old persons live entirely alone, their only son being taken away by death a short time since. The old gentleman is palsied and the old lady has been languishing for a long time with typhoid fever. By the watchfulness and skill of Dr. HECTOR, and the kindness of neighbors to whom the thanks of the aged couple are extended, she is regaining her usual health and strength.

MARRIED. -On Sunday, Feb. 1st., 1874, at the residence of the bride's father, near Lincoln, by Rev. VAL. THOMPSON, Mr. IRA B. HURST and Miss ELLA J. HORTON...

-On Wednesday, at the Central House, by Rev. C. SKINNER, JOHN MYERS and ADALINE FERRENBAUGH, of Kewanna.

There is talk of a manufactory of fine coffins and CASKETS being established here. We do not need much of the wares of such a factory in this county, but there are other places that do... Our citizens should encourage all such undertaking that tend to the upbuilding of the town, for in them lies our hope of future greatness as a city.

DIED. -Mr. ISAAC JONES, one of Fulton county's oldest citizens, died and was buried at this place on Monday of this week. Mr. Jones was 90 odd years old, and although greatly enfeebled both in mind and body, he could, with telling accuracy, relate the incidents and exploits of the war of 1812, in which he was a faithful soldier. He was born in Kentucky, but spent a greater portion of his life in this State, and had lived to see the State developed from the days of the tomahawk and barbarism to the high order of Christianity and civilization it has since attained. Such a checkered and varied life, as he undoubtedly lived during his many days, must be filled with reminiscences that were pleasing to review, and the consciousness of having rendered valuable services to his country in its youth and feebleness, surely makes easy the couch of the venerable man who has now ended a useful life.

WAGONERS' STATION NEWS

We will commence by giving you a brief report of the grand festival given by the CHRISTIAN CHURCH AT LINCOLN in their new building on the evening of the 31st ult. We arrived there at about 6 o'clock, and found the room already filled with old and young of both sexes, all waiting for the grand supper to be placed on the table, which was soon done. Almost all the luxuries of both city and country was represented. We will not try to enumerate the good things, but will only say that the supper was a magnificent affair, capable of satisfying the appetites of over two hundred persons, besides a large amount being left, which was sold at auction. All seemed to enjoy themselves hugely, except one poor fellow, who was sorry that he could not eat more. After supper, music, both vocal and instrumental, was in order. Miss ELLA HORTON and Miss LIBBY THOMPSON played several splendid pieces on the organ, which was followed by a piece of vocal music by the LINCOLN SINGING CLASS, Mr. C. S. HORTON being leader, which was rendered in a splendid style. Then Mr. J. A. WERTS called on a number of his Hopewell class, who acquitted themselves in a style which showed that they understood music, after which Mr. T. M. BITTERS delivered a short address. Then the whole audience joined in singing a hymn, entitled, "We'll stand the Storm," which closed the entertainment.

Singing every Sabbath evening at the residence of Mr. NEWTON SWINNEY, just north of the Station. All peaceable persons are invited to attend.

Logan Street only one ahead! Main Street comes up with a little friend at the house of Mr. RHENO.

The POST OFFICE has again made its semi-annual move. It is now in the room of the grocery store of JOHN KILMER, on the corner of Main and Logan Streets.

BILL GEARING made a short visit to our place a few days ago. His first preliminaries were, "I am out of money and want some tobacco." We gave him his usual quid, ten cents worth, and then he was happy. When interrogated why he did not stay at the Poor House, he said he didn't want to stay with them crazy fellows.

Elder Mr. KENSIE, a former resident of this place, preached here on last Monday evening.

JOHN MYERS is not only married, but has gone to housekeeping. We call it sensible. Some people marry and spend their scanty means on a wedding tour, come back, and go to boarding.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

J. S. SLICK has so much improved in health that he will be able to attend to his professional business again in a few days.

DIED. -A young man by the name of BENJ. BISHOP, while on a visit from California to MARK MOORE in this vicinity, died and was buried at this place this week.

-Mrs. JOHN WAGNER and a child of GEORGE MILLER are among the departed ones in this vicinity this week.

-SAMUEL H. GATES, an old resident of Rochester, died at the residence of A. L. GOODRICH on Monday, and was buried on Tuesday.

-Mrs. AGNES ONSTOTT, wife of ANDREW ONSTOTT, living a few miles south of town, died on Thursday evening of this week after a long and protracted illness. Her funeral will take place today at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock, a.m., Rev. ANDREW BABCOCK officiating as clergyman.

A letter from Mrs. F. M. ASHTON at Lima, Ohio, to her friends here, is to the effect that her health is not improving. Mrs. H. B. JAMISON and WM. ASHTON started for that point yesterday to pay her a visit.

We are a little late with these announcements, but they are facts. WIB. TRUSLOW feels as gay as a lark and steps loudly, 'cause it's a girl, and weighs -- well, Wib thinks it weighs a ton. DAN. GOULD is equally as proud. It is of the same gender, and weighs just as much.

JOHNNY SHELTON with his family will leave Rochester on Monday, to take up his abode at Lafayette, where he has secured a situation that will yield him a good income. He has been a little unfortunate in business transactions at this place, yet he possesses energy enough to overcome the dead weights hanging on him and make a successful business man.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT, March 2, 1874, the full Board being present, consisting of JAMES MARTIN, THOMAS BARNETT and JOHN W. BLACK, Commissioners, DAN. AGNEW, Auditor, and S. R. MOON, Sheriff . . . (names mentioned): WM. NEWCOMB, SILAS J. MILLER, E. T. REED, GEO. B. STOCKBERGER, JAMES S. MILLS, WM. STURGEON, EDWARD B. POLLY, JOHN ELLIS, CHRIS. CAMPBELL, HIRAM WAGNER, JOHN BRYANT, A. C. HICKMAN, J. F. WILSON, J. G. TROUTMAN.

(Allowances): Dr. CLYMER, F. P. WAUGH, J. DAWSON, O. P. WAITE, A. N. NELLANS, ELAM & DAVIS, PHILIP BARKER, GEORGE SPRAGUE, ELLEN JOHNSON, BIBLER & BABCOCK, FERGUSON & ASHTON, SAMUEL HEFFLEY, JAMES WARE, J. A. BARNETT, WM. D. MOORE, E. A. ARNOLD, C. HAIMBAUGH.

Just before the Board adjourned last evening they rendered a decision on the petition of JOHN EDWARDS. On his petition there were 209 signatures. According to the last corporation vote only 198 were required of the 209 signatures. Commissioner Martin was in favor of striking off 14, Black 10 and Barnett only 6 as being illegal. Thus the permit of Edwards was secured by the decision of Commissioners Black and Barnett.

KEWANNA ITEMS, March 4th, 1874

DIED. -Feb. 25th, 1874, ELIZABETH, wife of SALATHIAL BROWN, aged 30 years, 11 months and 7 days.

Mrs. Brown has been afflicted with dropsy for one year or more, and during that time has had the care and treatment of the best physicians in the country, but all to no avail, she gradually grew worse until the last. She was a good, kind Christian companion and mother, loved and esteemed by all who knew her. A bereaved husband, four children, with many friends, are called to mourn her loss.

MARRIED. -Thursday, Feb. 26th, ADOLPH HUNNESHAGEN and Miss WILIMINA SMITH, all of this township.

J. S. WILLIAMS has bought property in Kewanna belonging to the LEITER estate, and has moved this week. RICHARD HOGAN has moved several loads of goods to a farm near Plymouth, belonging to C. H. REEVES, and had intended moving his family before this, but sickness prevented.

JAMES MAHAFFEY is erecting a castle on Logan Street, and will move in a few days.

An addition to the incorporation of Kewanna has been granted by the council.

Dr. HOWELL takes advantage of the laws of the corporation. He has no cows or hogs to run at large, so he turns his pony in the streets.

O. C. POLLEY, of Aubbeenaubbee Township, was in town a few days ago, circulating a petition to present to the Commissioners, asking aid in building a BRIDGE at the Leiter Ford.... it is the most important crossing between the Michigan road and Winamac. The main roads leading to that ford are the Plymouth and Logansport roads, with many branches that lead to that crossing. At present there is no bridge between Rochester and Monterey, a distance of over sixteen miles

The SPY of last week asks for information relative to Aunt RUTH YOUNG, living in this township. Mrs. Young is a native of Virginia. Her exact age is not known, and at present we have no means of finding out so as to answer correctly. From her memory of events and the information of aged persons of Virginia it is supposed that she is about one hundred and five years old. She remembers distinctly the cannonading of Yorktown in 1781, (she was not in the harvest field as reported, for the surrender was in the fall of the year) and counting her 12 years old at that time would make her about the age as given above. She is masculine in form, being about six feet high and wearing a number 12 shoe, and one day has possessed great power and energy. She has done plowing, chopping, harvesting and everything in the way of farming, and at present she possesses a knowledge of stock and farming equal to half of the farmers in the county. She has lived in this township about 30 years and has never been to our town but once. She is quite singular in appearance and manners, being shut out from society for so long a time. To a person not acquainted with her she would appear very uncouth and immoral, especially in her language, but those that are best acquainted with her say she is not intentionally immoral; but her raising has been such that we have to make great allowance for her. On the other hand, she is kind and charitable, not wanting to see any person suffer, also hates wrong and deception and loves justice and honorable dealers at all times. Her health and strength is remarkably good, and her memory of events is seldom excelled. She is a widow for the second time, her last husband, Mr. YOUNG, being dead some three or four years. One great ambition of her life is to be self-supporting, and thinks and cares as much for her cows and chickens as some people do of their children. We should have given a partial history of her life long ago, but she is very sensitive, and should she know that we have written this, she would think we had done her a great injury. -ELI LEITER

DIED. -On Monday morning, March 9th, 1874, Mrs. MARY ANN REYNOLDS, wife of CHAS. E. REYNOLDS, aged 17 years and 21 days.

Like an electric shock, the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Reynolds fell with crushing weight upon the hearts of the people of this community. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. STEIGLEITZ, and had won a place in the hearts and affections of all who formed her acquaintance by her gentle, amiable and loving disposition. It was but a few weeks since that she became the companion of Mr. Reynolds, the telegraph operator of this place. Together they started out on life's voyage, full of hope for the future, but the storm of disease overtook her, and she fell a victim to its wrath in the bloom of youth. Her loss is deeply mourned by the disconsolate friends and the entire community.

WAGONERS' STATION NEWS, March 10, 1874

MARRIED. -On Thursday, March 5th, by the Rev. J. F. WAGONER, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. TAYLOR McKEE and Miss EMMA NEES, both of Wagoner's Station.

-On Sunday, March 8th, by Rev. J. F. WAGONER, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. GEORGE SHINDLER and Miss EVANS, both of RABBITS' GLORY.

We visited FRED WERTS (the young man of whom we spoke of as being ill last week) this morning and were happy to see that he is fast recovering his former health. We learn that he is going to start for Indianapolis tomorrow to undergo an examination by the physicians in attendance at the Insane Asylum.

Our village has been made lively for a few days by a lawsuit which is pending between JAMES GOULD and DAVID COFFING, concerning some timber which stands on the line of a new road running through the land of Gould, which Coffing, as Road Supervisor, claims as belonging to said road. They have had one trial before 'Squire NEAL of Lincoln, in which Coffing came off best, whereupon Gould claimed a new hearing, which was granted.

ROCHESTER SENTINEL, Saturday, April 4, 1874

FIRES. ... -On Tuesday the dwelling of A. C. SHEPHERD was discovered to be on fire, caused by the burning out of a flue communicating the flames to the roof. The flames were quickly observed, and extinguished before any damage had been done, save the burning of a small hole in the roof. On Wednesday the alarm of fire was again raised, and this time it was discovered to be in the MAMMOTH BUILDING. The fire in this instance originated in the second story of the building, in a room occupied by NYE, the pop-corn man. He had had a pretty hot fire in his stove during the morning by which the platform under it took fire, although well covered with zinc. From that it was communicated to the floor, from whence it worked its way to a partition. Mr. Nye was absent from his room from 10 a.m. to 1 o'clock, p.m., during which time the fire was smouldering, ready at any time to burst out in a flame. Fortunately, it was discovered in time to prevent any serious damage. The building is a massive wooden structure, three stories in height, and is occupied as a drug store, grocery house, cabinet and furniture rooms, GOOD TEMPLARS' HALL, &c. Had the fire proved uncontrollable, we would, undoubtedly, have had the most extensive conflagration ever witnessed in Rochester.

DIED. -To-day, infant daughter of M. R. BRIGHT. We are not informed in reference to the nature of the disease.

On Thursday morning Uncle JESSE SHIELDS entered upon the twentieth year of his mercantile career. This is a good, long time for a man to be engaged in one pursuit at the same place, and is an evidence of his ability, for it requires a great deal of perception to conduct a business successfully for that length of time, especially one that is subject to as many fluctuations as the dry goods and grocery trade. Mr. Shields is one among the oldest settlers of this county, and his straight-forward manner of doing business has won for him the confidence and esteem of the whole community, which has been demonstrated by years of liberal patronage. As a politician of the Democratic faith, no man has pursued a more consistent course or fought more valiantly for the principles and doctrines of the party as taught by the fathers of the party than him. In this, as in his business transactions, the people recognized and appreciated his honesty and valuable services, and elected him to the highest place in the gift of the people of the county -- that of State Senator, which honorable position he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction of the people whom he represented.

CIRCUIT COURT ... McCARTER vs WRIGHT was taken up. This case is one for damages, laid at $10,000 by McCarter against Mrs. Wright and son for interference in his domestic relations, thereby causing his wife to abandon him. There is a new law firm in Rochester. Mr. T. F. PALMER, a graduate of Bloomington University, and a young man of promise, has associated himself with E. R. HERMAN in the practice of law. Mr. Herman is an old member of the bar, and we bespeak for the new firm a fair share of legal patronage.

Mr. I. WALKER is making arrangements to build a large fine brick residence on south Main Street. F. K. KENDRICK is pushing his two new buildings to a rapid completion. The new dwelling put up by D. W. LYON on Pearl Street is nearly ready for occupancy. The three acre out lot on the west line of the corporation, purchased by JOHNSON McCLURE, has been cleared of its forest timber, fenced, and a new house erected thereon, in which he now resides. The town is rapidly improving, and everything denotes a season of prosperity...

The greatest sensation of the week was caused by a runaway team on Monday morning. Esq. LEVI BURCH came to town early Monday morning, driving two spirited iron-gray horses attached to a spring wagon in which himself and two or three other persons were riding. In passing the crossing at the corner of Main and Pearl streets, one of the tugs came unfastened which frightened the team and they bounded forward across the street, where they came in contact with a dray loaded with beer kegs. The buggy pole had lost its moorings and the team became detached from the buggy. Mr. Burch, holding on to the lines, was dragged over the dashboard and fell with his head upon the ground, causing a very painful contusion. He was picked up and carried into an adjacent building, where he received prompt medical attention. Upon examination he was found to be severely bruised on other portions of his body but nothing of a serious character. The laughable part of the affair, was to see the mule attached to the dray "light out" with its load of beer kegs, rolling them the length and breadth of the street. It looked as though there had been some female crusaders around.

ROCHESTER SENTINEL, Saturday, April 25, 1874

The McCARTER-WRIGHT case, of which mention was made last week as having occupied a whole week of the Circuit Court, was concluded on Saturday, the jury returning a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, and awarded him $5 as the amount of damages sustained by him at the hands of the defendant. The amount sued for was $10,000, but the jury seemed to think the amount was too large by $9,995. We are not disposed to find fault with the verdict of juries, but in a matter of that kind if there were any damages sustained at all, it was greater than the amount awarded. We cannot believe that a person can be guilty of breaking up the domestic relations of man and wife and only damage the parties in the nominal sum of $5. But "sich is life."

Bloomingsburg is a thriving little village with its stores, shops and mills. The flouring mill of BOWMAN & NELLANS is worth of a word of praise for the choice flour it makes.

There is no saloon in Bloomingsburg ...

There are four grange lodges in this township doing a good business in the way of getting members ...

KEWANNA ITEMS, April 22, 1874

DIED. -Mr. ADAMS, a quiet citizen living in the north part of this township, died on last Sunday. He leaves several fatherless and motherless children.

DIED. -Last week Rev. ELLIOTT visited his old charge at Union Mills, in Laporte County, and while there he was called upon to preach the funeral sermon of JAMES LINDSEY, a pioneer of this county. As there are some facts connected with the history of the deceased, that are of interest to the citizens of this county, we give them as obtained from Mr. Elliott. It appears that Mr. Lindsey was a Kentuckian by birth, and came to this State in the year 1798, and settled in the southern portion of it. In 1814 he married Miss SHIELDS, their union being productive of twelve sons and five daughters. In 1821 he was chosen a member of the territorial Legislature of this State. In 1828 he removed to this county, and is said to be the first white settler thereof, and to have made the first improvements. For seven years he did the necessary blacksmithing for the Pottawattamie Indians, who inhabited this part of the country at that time. From here he emigrated to Nebraska, where he lost his wife, and then returned to Westville, in Laporte County, four years ago, where he died on Wednesday, April 15th, 1874, at the advanced age of 82 years.

On Friday morning of last week, old father YOUNG, living a few miles west of town, in this township, arose at an early hour, as is his custom, and emerging from the house, found upon the door-step a package which excited his curiosity. An examination disclosed the fact that it contained a new born child, wrapped in an old, soiled shawl. It had been left there during the night, and is undoubtedly the offspring of some misguided girl, who, to conceal her shame, abandoned her infant and left it with Mr. Young and his wife, two old persons living entirely alone. The morning light revealed the fact that it had been conveyed thither in a carriage, the track of which was ascertained to lead to town, but lost to sight before the original starting point was found. The child had not even been clothed, but was taken in and kindly cared for by the humane old couple, and is doing well.

Rees' office and intend to follow the suit to Henry township. The different saloons have been visited by them but they have not yet succeeded in inducing any of the keepers to close up. They are a determined little band, vigorous in their prosecution, but slack in their prayers.

On the same day, and about the same hour, that the Hoover school house burned in Henry Township, the dwelling of JACK McCLANAHAN, living just across the county line in Kosciusko County, was also destroyed by fire. Mr. McClanahan moved into that neighborhood at an early day, when not a stick of timber was missing from his large tract of land. He built a log cabin, in which he lived, working hard and prospering. A year or so ago he built a large, two-story frame house, furnishing it well, and had just commenced "living at home," when, in an evil hour, when he was temporarily absent, it took fire and burned down, together with much of its contents.

-BANK FAILURE. -What has heretofore been considered as one of the institutions of Rochester has collapsed, closed its doors, and instead of paying out it has "pegged out," and the FARMERS' LOAN AND DEPOSIT BANK, of which WILLIAM ASHTON was cashier, is now numbered among the things that were.

About four years ago Mr. Ashton came to this place from Lima, Ohio, bearing with him recommendations as a man of wealth and public enterprise. After casting about for some time to find a vocation suited to his taste and the best good of the people of this community, he engaged in the banking business, under the name of "Farmers' National Deposit Bank," since changed to the name of "Farmers' Loan and Deposit Bank." Being a man of pleasing address and good business tact, he soon won the confidence of the whole people of this county, and money flowed into his vaults on deposit in streams from business men, farmers, women and children, and all parties who had large or small amounts of money that they did not need for immediate use. Everything went along swimmingly, and Ashton's bank was the pride of the town.

Not a breath of suspicion was ever entertained of its weakness or inability to pay its depositors until quite recently. One week ago last Thursday, Mr. Ashton started for Chicago, leaving the bank in charge of the teller, with a limited amount of money for the transaction of one day's business. He did not return the next day as was expected, and, as a consequence, checks presented at its counter could not be paid. No great alarm was raised until Monday, when his continued absence aroused considerable suspicion that all was not right. On Tuesday, H. B. JAMISON, his legal adviser, received a telegram from him in Ohio, to meet him at Peru. Mr. Jamison, accompanied by a number of depositors, met him at that point, only to realize their worst fears that the bank had failed.

Mr. Ashton returned with the party Tuesday night, and on Wednesday morning a meeting of the heaviest depositors was called, to hear any explanation the cashier desired to make. He acknowledged his inability to pay his depositors, but was willing to make an assignment of all his property for the benefit of his creditors. Mr. JONATHAN DAWSON, CALVIN VANTRUMP and A. C. SHEPHERD were designated as parties to whom the assignment should be made.

Since that time these gentlemen have been actively engaged in taking an inventory of his real and personal effects. ... From the best information which we have been able to gather, the liabilities will be about $68,080, and the assets will not vary far from $45, 834. If these figures are not materially changed, and we do not think they will be, creditors will receive about 67 cents on the dollar.

DIED. -Tuesday, May 12th, 1874, at Walnut, Marshall County, Ind., Mrs. RUTH BITTERS, wife of JOHN N. BITTERS, aged 30 years and 12 days.

But a few short years and consumption, that fell destroyer, had wrought its work and cut off in the bloom of life a devoted companion and loving mother. Her funeral service was attended by many mourning friends, who deeply sympathize with the bereaved father and two little motherless daughters, but dying in the hope of a blissful immortality they say, "In humble submission we bow to the divine will of our Heavenly Father."

-In this city, on Wednesday morning, May 13, 1874, Mrs. L. E. STANLEY, aged 49 years.

Years ago the deceased was a resident of this place and the wife of J. J. SHRYOCK, now deceased. She then became a resident of Wabash and the wife of IRA M. STANLEY, now also deceased. The pleasant relations between the families and friends of her first husband has ever been maintained, and since the death of her late husband she has been a frequent visitor at the family of Col. K. G. SHRYOCK at this place. Two or three months ago she came to visit the Colonel and his family and her numerous friends at this place, but soon after her coming she was prostrated by disease from which she never recovered. Those who were best acquainted with her held her in high esteem as a true friend and Christian lady. Her funeral services were attended yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Col. Shryock, the services being conducted by Rev. LITTLE, of Wabash, Ind.

-At Dayton, Ohio, on Tuesday, May 12, 1874, Mr. J. L. McMAHAN, aged 31 years.

The death of Mr. McMahan causes the sympathetic tear to flow from the eyes of all persons who are acquainted with the trials and troubles through which he has passed and the immediate cause of his premature death. When the proud bird of liberty was shrieking and calling for assistance in the dark days of the war of the rebellion, he, a young man with a light step and a bold heart, girded on the weapons of warfare and sallied forth to do battle for his country. In that memorable battle at Chickamauga, where thousands of brave men fell, he received a wound, which, after years of terrible suffering, terminated his existence at the Soldiers' Home, at Dayton, at the time above stated. The readers of the SENTINEL are familiar with the description given of the wound received in his forehead, and of the surgical operations performed by eminent physicians of Chicago, and latterly of the operation by Dr. FITCH of Logansport. Everything was done for him that could be, yet his insanity became more and more violent, until it became necessary to send him to the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, Ohio, for treatment. His stay there of about three months was attended by no good results, and his once powerful constitution and manly form gave way, and he died in the greatest agony. His many comrades in arms at this place mourn their loss, while his wife, parents, and numerous relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their severe affliction.

DIED. -On Saturday, May 16, 1874, MARY, daughter of ENOCH and ANN M. STURGEON.

A greater pall or more impenetrable gloom seldom fell upon the minds and hearts of the people of this community than when the sad intelligence was whispered from one to another that Mary's spirit had fled from its earthly habitation to its heavenly home above. Like a budding flower which opens its leaves and sheds its rich fragrance all abroad, delighting the eye and sense of every beholder, so she, a happy, blithesome girl of sixteen summers was just springing into womanhood and the enjoyments afforded by kind friends and the associations and pleasures which this life vouchsafes to the pure and good, when death, the King of Terrors, laid its withering hand upon her loving form and snatched her from the fond embrace of kind parents and affectionate friends. Her young life was that of an exemplary Christian, and she an especial favorite among her large circle of friends and associates. Her funeral obsequies were attended on Monday by a very large concourse of friends and mourners. The Rochester Graded School, of which she had been a faithful student for many years, paid their last tribute of respect by a full attendance at the funeral. The services were conducted by Rev. SKINNER, formerly of this place....

-On Wednesday evening, May 20, 1874, SILAS A. TRUSLOW.

Death comes to the young and old. It pays no regard to sex, age, or rank. The deceased but a few days ago was enjoying the best of health, and his prospects for a long and useful life were quite flattering, but at the age of 19, when just stepping from youth to full manhood, he was stricken down with disease that in a few days ended his earthly existence. Silas was a model young man, whose example his former associates may safely follow. He was a faithful and consistent member of the order of Good Templars, and in token of their appreciation of his many virtues, they attended his funeral in full regalia and wearing the usual badges of mourning. His funeral services took place on Thursday at the M.E. Church, conducted by Rev. BECKNER. The parents and friends have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.

Afflictions come to all alike. About the first of April Mrs. JOHN ELAM with her three little innocents went to Valparaiso to visit friends and acquaintances. While there little FREDDIE was taken sick with the measles, and so violent was the attack that his life was soon despaired of and a telegram announced the fact to his father, who immediately repaired to that point, only to witness the last agonies of the child in death. He was an only son, and the affliction is a very grievous one to the parents.

The old store building which has stood for more than thirty years, and in which JESSE SHIELDS done business for about twenty years, was torn down this week. It was of the ancient order of architecture, and has long since ceased to be an ornament to the town. In it there has been more business done and more money handled than any house in town. Uncle Jesse says that if he was in good health, he would proceed to have a brick building put up in its stead.

Before the failure of the FARMERS' LOAN AND DEPOSIT BANK there was a fair building prospect for Rochester this season. The VANTRUMP brothers had just purchased the property on Main Street owned by JAMISON & CALKINS, and were about to proceed with the removal of the old buildings and the erection of large brick buildings designed for business houses. In this enterprise they were to be joined by JESSE SHIELDS, and three good, substantial business houses would have taken the place of the rickety shanties that now disgrace the street but for the failure of the bank. ISAAH WALKER and others would have put up fine dwellings this season, but having their means for that purpose deposited where they are not now available, all these improvements are indefinitely postponed. The financial disaster of the Farmers' Bank has seriously affected the business interests of Rochester, which is not likely to be overcome for some time.

The famous meat market of TRACY & SHIELDS will re-open on Monday morning at their old quarters ... They start out on the STRICTLY CASH SYSTEM, and by doing so they will be enabled to sell at very small profits ... Remember, their place of business is on Main Street, one door south of Balcony Hall building.

ROCHESTER SENTINEL, Saturday, May 30, 1874

[Letter from Lima, O., May 18, 1874, signed WM. ASHTON]:

Sir:-- I wish to say a few words through the SENTINEL. I left home feeling it my duty to seek rest and advice among my friends, and for a threefold purpose I did this -- rest, advice, and help in my emergency. You may question the fact, but, nevertheless, it is true that my health broke right down under the excitement. Such a shock I never had, and it nearly prostrated me, and rest could not be had only away from the excitement, and my warmest friends urged me to seek it.

When I started in business in Rochester, it was with a determination to make it my lifelong home. My friends generally opposed my moving there. I liked its beautiful situation, and resolved to become its citizen. Before leaving Ohio I had made a contract with A. J. HOLMES to go into the general hardware and agricultural machine business, but had scarcely moved into the place before the sad accident befell him, and his death ensued. Afterward I resolved to go into the banking business, and resolved firmly to do business on right principles, and have tried to do so. I never expected to be always out of debt, but did think that I would be able to so manage my business as to continue to meet the demands upon me, and honorably to acquit myself.

[NOTE: very lengthy explanation that Mr. Ashton took nothing with him to Ohio... contrary to rumor... and a statement that if the public had given him help at the time he needed it, the bank would not have failed. -Ed.]

DIED. -On Thursday, May 21, 1874, in Richland Township, at the residence of W. DUDGEON, of pleurisy, RACHEL MARCH, aged 71 years.

The deceased was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, Sept. 14, 1803, was married to JACOB MARCH in 1827. They emigrated to Cass County in 1853, where she has remained ever since. She united with the Lutheran Church at an early age, where she manifested her faith by her works by visiting the afflicted, helping the needy, and by lending a helping hand to all those in distress. At the time of her death she was visiting her daughter. Almost immediately on her arrival she took sick. On the first day of her sickness she made the remark that she had "come to visit them, for she was going on a long journey to Bethlehem." Her suffering was great, but she never complained. She leaves a husband and daughter to mourn their loss, who have the sympathy of their many friends. -T. J. ROBBINS.

DROWNING. -A sad case of drowning occurred at Plymouth last Sabbath afternoon. PERRY MEHRLING, Jr., a lad of about 16 summers, whose parents reside at this place was engaged as a clerk in a grocery and baking establishment at Plymouth. On the afternoon in question, he went with some boys of about his age to Yellow river to bathe. They went out upon the river in a skiff where it was upset and unfortunately for him he could not swim and was drowned in the presence of his comrades who offered but little assistance. His remains were brought to this place on Monday for interment. He was an only child, and the affliction of the parents is very great.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT. -In the whisky cases brought before Judge LONG of the Circuit Court, in which JOHN EDWARDS and FRED. BOSENBERG were defendants, AMOS SELBY was the prosecuting witness. Just before the calling of the causes for trial, the defendants, by the aid of ROBERT WALLACE, procured the absence of Selby by the use of money, so that he might not be a witness against them. Selby received from the above named parties the sum of thirty dollars, and with that for pocket change left on a midnight train to witness the races at Peru. The Prosecuting Attorney being apprised of that fact, had an attachment issued for him, which secured his immediate return, when he made a clean breast of the whole thing. The court, after hearing his evidence and that of the defendants, fined each of the three conspirators for spiriting away the witness and attempting to thwart the ends of justice, in the sum of fifty dollars each. The penalty imposed seems to be pretty severe, but when the legal processes of court are tampered with, it is but right that examples should be made of men who engage in such practices. In his remarks to the defendants, Judge Long intimated very strongly that the next occasion he had to punish any one for violations of that character that he would increase the fine and add imprisonment.

DIED. -On Wednesday evening, June 24th, 1874, at 7 o'clock, at the residence of JOHN P. MYERS, Mr. JAMES F. GRAHAM, aged 30 years, 8 months and 8 days.

The deceased was a young man well and favorably known in this place in years gone by for his industrious, sober and exemplary habits. When the roar of cannon and musketry was heard in the land he was among the first to the front to do his country service. Whilst in the army he contracted disease from which he never recovered. After returning from the army he took an overland trip to Utah, Colorado and California, with a view to recruiting his health. Returning a few years since he located at Logansport, where he remained until the past few months, when he came to visit friends in this place and vicinity. His health failed rapidly after coming here and his sufferings were intense, but were borne with Christian fortitude. At the time stated the messenger of death came and wafted his spirit home. He leaves a devoted wife, brothers, sisters and many loving friends to mourn his untimely death. He was a member of a lodge of the order of Odd Fellows at Logansport who visited him in his affliction, and in conjunction with the order at this place buried him in the rights and ceremonies of that institution in the Odd Fellows' graveyard at this place on Thursday at 4 o'clock P.M., the funeral services being conducted by Rev. BECKNER at the M.E. church.

Things are not lovely between the assignees of WM. ASHTON and WM. FERGUSON, a partner of Mr. Ashton in the dry goods and grocery trade. When Ashton made his assignment of real and personal effects, Ferguson entered into an agreement with the assignees that an inventory should be taken of the partnership property and that the business of the firm should be conducted as usual until all the liabilities of the firm had been met. An inventory was taken, and an appraised value put upon the goods that proved so unsatisfactory to Ferguson that he closed the doors of the store against the assignees and refused them any further controlling interest in the partnership business. A few days after he opened the house, and has since been selling the wares of the firm to whoever called to purchase and had the wherewith to pay. A legal proceeding has been instituted by the assignees to recover their right to the goods assigned to them by Ashton, and the case was to have been heard by Judge LONG, in chambers at Plymouth, on Thursday. The parties with their legal representatives met at that point at the time specified, but by the negligence of some one the necessary papers in the case had not been conveyed thither, and the hearing was deferred until yesterday. We have not been able to learn the result of the trial, nor who will hereafter have the controlling interest and sale of the personal effects of the late firm of FERGUSON & ASHTON.

Struck with the old gentleman's age and address, we engaged him in conversation, and learned that his name was SAMUEL ELLAR, his age 84 years, that he had been visiting friends and relatives in this and Kosciusko counties, and that he was then on his way home to Hagerstown, in Wayne County. He further informed us that he had been a soldier in the war of 1812, under HULL, and that he was present at the treaty with the Pottawattamie Indians on the banks of Lake Manitau, when there was not a stick missing on the ground on which Rochester is now located. He appeared to delight in recounting the exploits of his early life, and it was a pleasure to us to listen to the sayings of an old pioneer who had braved and done so much for the advancement of civilization of this once wild country.

ROCHESTER SENTINEL, Saturday, July 18, 1874

LETTER FROM NORTHERN INDIANA. Rochester, July 6, 1874. Correspondence Robinson (Ill.) ARGUS.

ROCHESTER is situated on the line of the I. P. & C. Railroad, and about midway between the two cities. [Indianapolis and Chicago. WCT] It has a population of nearly 3,000 inhabitants and is a growing town. Located in a rich agricultural county, and being 22 miles removed from a city of any considerable size, I do not see anything in the way of its continued growth. There is a good deal of wealth here, but unfortunately it is in the hands of a few who, having all they need for their individual wants, do not take much pride, or rather do not do much toward improving and extending the town. This, however, is more or less the case in every place, but thanks to an inevitable law of nature, this incubus will have an end.

Rochester does not aspire much toward a manufacturing town, yet it has two large foundries, two extensive carriage and wagon manufactories, a large steam planing mill, a heavy steam stove factory, three flour mills, &C. The town is regularly laid out, the streets are broad and kept clean, are well shaded, and the private residences are beautiful and charming in all their adornments. The people are sociable, hospitable and intelligent.

One mile east of town Lake Manitau is situated. It is something less in dimensions than Lake Michigan, although you cannot make Hon. MILO R. SMITH believe so. It is a popular place of resort for pic-nic parties, is a very beautiful body of water, and furnishes sport for the disciples of Isaac Walton. It is even said that the Hon. ED. CALKINS "offers a chromo to every fish that will bite at his hook." But then I do not believe this on Ed., for I know him to be a good fisherman.

There are two newspapers published in this place -- the SENTINEL and SPY. They represent extremes in politics, and the editors of the respective journals are brothers. It is a rare thing to find two brothers publishing papers of opposing politics in the same town. Both are good papers and their editors are gentlemen. The SPY does not seem to be afflicted with any particular policy of its own. The SENTINEL is bolder, has its opinions, fearlessly expresses them, and displays more editorial ability than its contemporary. Both papers are a credit and an honor to the community in which they are published, and deserve to be well patronized.

Several contemplated improvements in the shape of new buildings have been abandoned on account of a bank failure which took place here about two months ago. By this failure about seventy-five thousand dollars of the people's money "went by the board." It was a private banking concern, and its proprietor, after doing business here several years, enjoying the confidence of the people and receiving their patronage and support, collapsed with the suddenness and effectiveness of a punctured bubble, leaving behind him many curses and only limited assets. This financial crash, following so soon in the wake of the panic of last fall, has proven a serious blow to Rochester and Fulton County, and some time will be required to recover from it.

The post office here is managed by a lady, widow of a soldier in the late war. The office pays a salary of eleven hundred dollars a year, consequently is worth having. Mrs. E. J. RYLAND holds the office, while Miss MINNIE SHRYOCK, her sister, is the efficient and handsome deputy.

Rochester boasts of a learned Bar, the leading members of which are Col. K. G. SHRYOCK, JACOB S. SLICK, SIDNEY KEITH and CALKINS & JAMISON. These gentlemen stand high in their profession, and are conscientious lawyers, never taking a larger fee than they can get, and yet they think their talents have been indifferently estimated because they have not been sent to Congress or made road supervisors. Mr. Slick is quite young yet, but he is a man of fine ability and attainments, stands high in his profession and has a good practice. - - - Yours, K.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

The law firm of JAMISON & CALKINS terminated very abruptly on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. A. D. TONER, J. LEITER, and others from Kewanna were in town this week, but failed to call at our sanctum.

ERNSPERGER, JACKSON & CO., have closed their south store, and concentrated their stocks and forces at their old stand.

Mr. H. BOWMAN presented us with a lot of the finest cherries that we have seen this year...

F. K. KENDRICK has been appointed receiver for the firm of FERGUSON & ASHTON. An inventory of the stock is being taken.

JAMES O. MILLER and his sister, Mrs. DAN AGNEW, are off on a trip to Lake Superior, where they intend spending a few weeks during the heated season.

WILLIAM CARTER had a photograph taken of his fine residence last week. The cupola still maintains its position and is "too high" to suit the convenience of one of the visitors.

SHEPHERD deferred his visit East in order that he might be at home to entertain a distinguished visitor that put in an appearance at his home a week ago this morning. The boy is not yet named.

... MARRIAGE LICENSES ... granted since the first of July to D. D. DANA and MARY A. H. COLLINS, LEVI M. BUCK and MARY J. MILLER, CHARLES M. CLARK and ALICE DAVIS.

GUS MIESCH's saloon was burglarized on Friday night of last week. It was money the thief wanted and not whisky... One or two other burglaries were committed the same night.

Henry Township is taking the lead of most other townships in the county in point of educational interests. It already has a large number of good, substantial school houses, and the trustee is now contracting for the building of three more, all of which are to be built of brick.

One will be located near the RANNELLS farm, on the Akron road, to supply the place of the one burned a short time ago, one in the MILLER settlement, on the road leading from Akron to Gilead, and the other in the town of Akron. The one to be built at Akron will be a large two-story building, the lower rooms to be used for school purposes, and the upper room which will be built by private subscription, will be used for a town hall and the accommodation of the public generally. This spirit of enterprise speaks well for the citizens of that township.

MARRIED. -D. D. DANA and Mrs. MARY A. H. COLLINS were married at the bride's residence in this place an Monday evening, July 6, 1874, by Elder J. H. WAGGONER.

Mr. Dana claims brotherhood with Hon. CHARLES A DANA, editor of the New York SUN. Mrs. Collins is a poor but worthy widow. Together may they be rich in love and blessed with the good things of earth.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I understand, and from good authority, that the old BARRACKS on the west side of Main Street, at the north end, changed hands last week, Mr. JOSEPH SIDMORE being the purchaser, the consideration, five hundred dollars ...

Mr. DECKER is building a spacious dwelling on Mill Creek Street, in the north-west part of town, which, when completed, will add much to the appearance of that locality. . . . - - - PERAMBULATOR.

ANDREW V. HO'USE is happy. It is a boy, and was welcomed by Andrew on Thursday last to be housed under his roof.

The County GRANGE Council will meet at the Court House in Rochester on Thursday, August 13th. W. J. LEITER, Sec'y.

Mr. A. C. COPELAND, the banker, and Dr. BURKET, the dentist, started yesterday to Saratoga, where they will spend a few weeks in recreation during the warm weather ...

On Saturday night last the house of our townsman, WILLIAM P. BALL, was entered by a burglar, and over one hundred dollars abstracted from his pocket

An unfortunate accident occurred on Tuesday last on the line of the I. P. & C. Railroad near Denver, by which one WILLIAM TRUE, son of ISAAC TRUE of this place, was seriously injured. He was engaged at the time of the accident in loading a gravel car from an embankment composed chiefly of hard clay. An excavation had been made extending some four or five feet beneath the surface, which projected toward the car which was then being loaded. Mr. True occupied a position between this shelf of earth and the car, with his face toward the latter, when the embankment fell forward, plunging him against the car, causing a severe contusion of the lower part of the chest, seriously bruising the parts. The injured man, who is about 20 years of age, was placed on board the passenger train then about due, and brought to his father's house at this place. Drs. HILL and GOULD were called at once on his arrival, and under their skillful treatment it is believed he will soon recover.

GRANT LONG intends rearing a business house of his own, and will at once place one, 20x25, on the Beeber lot adjoining his residence. We like to see improvements made, no matter whether on a large or small scale.

MARRIED. -At the office of 'Squire REES, on Thursday, the 23rd inst., by his Honor, Mr. A. O. WISE and Miss EVA WILCOX, all of Rochester.

This young couple, by transgression or mismanagement, so surrounded themselves with circumstances that the world was about to discover what might otherwise have always remained their secret. It was not persuasion nor a yearning love that united these two hearts, but the strong arm of the law joined their hands and by uttered vows they became one in law. Such marriages are not generally very successful, lacking, as they do, two of the essential elements to a perfect matrimonial union, to-wit: free consent and God -- which is defined to mean love.

AUBBEENAUBBEE, FULTON CO., IND., July 17, 1874. -Mr. M. C. FURLONG & SON of Warsaw, Ind., have this day set up a gravestone for my child, also a monument for A. MULHOLLAND, and gravestones for MOSES KING and son, and two set for JOSEPH BRUGH, and it is but due to them to say that they are the most finely wrought and tastefully and best finished stones in the Leiter graveyard, and I cheerfully recommend Mr. Furlong & Son to be the men to deal with in the marble line. - - - JOHN ELLIS.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

J. H. BEEBER has gone to spend a few months in Kentucky.

I. W. BROWN and family have taken up their residence on south Jefferson Street.

WILLIAM TRIBBETT having purchased the residence of I. W. BROWN, will take possession of it in a short time.

The brick work for the new school house, near the RANNELLS farm, on the Akron road, will be commenced next week.

AUGUST DEICHMAN will return to the Fatherland in a short time, where he will remain until his failing health is improved.

EDWARD R. RANNELLS of Logansport called on us this week. Ed. has lost none of his corpulency, and his laugh is as hearty as ever.

JOHN R. SHOUP is adding much to the appearance of the northwest portion of town by the erection of a fine, large dwelling house.

Uncle JONATHAN MONTGOMERY, who has taken up his quarters during the hot season in the Court House square, has planted morning glories at the foot of a number of the young trees in the yard...

SAD ACCIDENTS. -Yesterday morning when the 9 a.m. freight train come in from the south, and was switching about making up the train, Mr. BASSET WEST, a brakeman and a young man of healthy and rotund proportions and the support of an invalid and widowed mother at Peru, had his fore-arm caught between the bumpers and the whole flesh literally torn from the bone, extending from the wrist to the elbow. The wound was immediately dressed by Dr. ROBBINS. Amputation will probably prove necessary. He was returned to his home at Peru yesterday, on the noon train.

-Another sad accident occurred in Newcastle Township, the particulars of which we have been unable to get, but from what we can learn JOHN B. BARKMAN was attempting to get rid of a large boulder on his place and dug a pit with a view of burying it. While in the pit, the stone rolled in upon him crushing both of his thighs in a horrible manner.

If there is a corner in heaven where deep gloom prevails and music is entirely excluded, some of our Methodist friends will be assigned that position -- when they get there.

CHARLES E. REYNOLDS writes us this week from Madison, Ind., where he has spent several weeks at the bedside of a sick sister. He intends to return to Rochester by the time the fall campaign is fairly inaugurated.

Mr. AUGUST DEICHMAN has taken a final farewell of Rochester. He left last Thursday on the noon train for Chicago, where he will spend a few days, when he leaves for New York to take passage on a Hamburg steamer. We wish him a pleasant and successful future in the Fatherland.

We are informed that Mrs. HOLMES, widow of the late A. J. HOLMES, deceased, received a lengthy letter from WILLIAM ASHTON, without date or place, expressing his regret at the turn events have taken, but making no offer to restore the funds in his hands belonging to the Holmes estate, of which he is administrator.

Mr. FERGUSON, of the late firm of FERGUSON & ASHTON, is now engaged (in lieu of other employment) in repairing the old steamer which has remained idle on the bank of the lake during the whole of the spring and summer. But a few days more will be required to put it in good working order, when all who wish a ride can, on proper application, be accommodated.

A local in the last week's issue of the SPY says that a watch was lost by one MARTIN, and a search warrant procured to examine the premises of MATHIAS HILEMAN, a member of whose family it was supposed had taken it. It is further said that a number of articles were found upon the search which established beyond question the reputation the family bears. We are authorized to say that no articles of any kind tending to arouse suspicion were discovered on said search, and that there is a fair prospect for a genuine slander suit.

DIED. -On Wednesday morning, August 5th, 1874, at his home in Rochester, of congestion of the stomach, Mr. ELI E. CRABILL.

Mr. Crabill came to this place in the early part of 1869, and engaged in selling the Dorsey Reaper and Mower, manufactured by A. Pritz & Sons at Dayton, O., in which business he continued until February last, when he was succeeded by Mr. J. W. DAVIS. He left his home about three months since to engage in selling a patent bee hive, but sickness drove him home, where death ensued about one week after his arrival. He leaves a wife and several children.

-On Saturday night last the wife of Mr. DAVID EDWARDS, living about two miles north of town, was suddenly attacked with heart disease, and died before any assistance could be procured. Her death was very sudden, and all the children being small, Mr. EDWARDS was obliged to leave the dead body while he summoned the neighbors. Mrs. Edwards was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her.

-We are called upon to record the death of Mrs. HARRIET WAGONER, wife of SOLOMON WAGONER, which occurred at 1 o'clock p.m. on Tuesday last. Mrs. Wagoner has been a resident of this county since 1854, having emigrated hither from the State of Ohio with her husband in that year. She was a native of Union County, Penn., and over 52 years of age at the time of her death, which was sudden and unexpected. On Monday evening, while engaged in milking, she was stricken with the palsy, and having reached the house, was placed upon the lounge by members of the family, where she remained without speaking until death ensued at 1 o'clock on the following day. Her funeral was attended at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. A. V. HOUSE officiating. Mrs. Wagoner's residence was one mile east of town, where she will be missed and mourned by her husband and nineteen children, of which she was the mother.

ON ACCUMINATIONS

BITTERS & SONS have finished laying the brick for the HOOVER SCHOOL HOUSE.

FRANK BITTERS returns to college in September. His brother, the "Judge," will take the conceit out of some of the students of the Rochester Graded School this fall.

E. A. ARNOLD deserves much credit for the large and substantial school buildings he is causing to be erected in this township.

If the editor of the SPY will call at the SENTINEL office we will lend him some of our a's and s's, so that he can call people asses more frequently. It gives his sheet a moral cast and accords well with his religious professions.

The SPY informs its readers that the SENTINEL never loses an opportunity to give the Methodist church a dark thrust. We are of opinion that the most damaging thrust that religious body has received in the last century occurred at the time when TEA MAJOR became a member thereof. It is said that he returns from service on each succeeding Sabbath and begins his editorial labors ere the last amen has died away, calling all who entertain adverse views such complimentary names as d --- d liars, asses, etc. Oh, consistency!

The new BAPTIST CHURCH at Yellow Creek, in Newcastle Township, will be formally dedicated to the worship of God on Sunday, August 23rd. A general invitation is extended to all.

Our young friend, J. P. NELLANS, of Bloomingsburg, is undoubtedly the finest pen and pencil artist in this county...

A carpenter named HILL, while engaged in shingling along the eaves of a house which is being erected by Mr. MILLIZER in Aubbeenaubbee Township, fell from a scaffold on Thursday morning and received severe injuries. Dr. I. E. WRIGHT of this place was at once called, and administered to the wants of the injured man. The doctor informs us that no bones were broken by the fall, but the head and shoulders received several painful contusions.

Daddy KUHN, as he is familiarly known by all who have ever visited Akron and stopped at the MONTOUR HOUSE, has recently come in possession of a small fortune of three or four thousand dollars by the death of a bachelor brother in Northampton County, P., aged 85 years. This little fortune received at this time while in moderate circumstances, and passing down the hill of life on the shady side of 80, will furnish many little enjoyments and comforts until the valley is reached and the journey ended.

PEARSON'S BRASS BAND regales itself on the placidwaters of Lake Manitau these moonlight nights.

By a chain of circumstances two of the law firms of this place have changed names. CALKINS & SLICK are associated together, and JAMISON & CONNOR have formed a copartnership in the practice of law.

Mr. S. B. NEWCOMB and family started this week for Davenport, Iowa. They go by private conveyance, and perhaps have the best outfit for that way of traveling that ever went from this place. Mr. Newcomb was regarded as an excellent citizen, and we are sorry to part company with him.

When we made mention last week of the ROCHESTER BRASS and STRING BANDS we were not aware that the original SILVER BAND had been re-organized and ready to play on any occasion on short notice. Rochester is well supplied with bands, and such, too, as will do themselves and the town credit on any occasion.

Last week a suit was instituted by JOHN F. ANGERMAN against HARRY FEECE, a young man from the country, for attempting to provoke an assault. It appears that Feece had been guilty of committing a nuisance in the rear of a saloon building and in plain sight of said Angerman's dwelling. Against such conduct Angerman remonstrated, when the young man applied some not very mild epithets to the aged Teuton, whereupon he repaired to 'Squire REES and filed his complaint. The trial occupied one day, and the jury deliberated a long time and were dismissed, they failing to agree. Another trial was had on Saturday, and the jury finally found that Angerman was provoked by the words, "d --- n liar," to the amount of 50 cents, and the young man's fine accordingly fixed in that sum. As the matter now stands the costs foot up $63.20, fine

50 cents; total, $63.70. Such is justice, according to the verdict of a jury composed of twelve of your fellow countrymen.

The fall and winter terms of our city schools will open on Monday morning with a full corps of teachers. The new and handsome school house in the southeast part of town is fully completed and ready for occupancy. Miss EMMA STERNER and Miss LU. LONG will take charge of the schools in that building ...

Mr. G. HOLZMAN has positively adopted the one price system. Every article is marked in plain figures, and under no circumstance will the above rule be broken.

The "devil" and all hands return thanks to DAVID EDWARDS for a lot of fine peaches.

The new Floral hall has just been completed on the Fair Grounds, and other improvements for the better display of articles put on exhibition.

An organ has been purchased for the use of the Rochester Graded School. About one-half of the funds for its purchase was secured by subscription, the balance to be paid by the Trustees.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE JOINT REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION ... of Kosciusko and Fulton met in mass convention at Sevastopol on Saturday, Sept. 12, 1874. (names mentioned): MILO R. SMITH, A. W. ELLIOTT, E. ZIMMERMAN, A. T. BITTERS, C. W. HOLMAN, JEREMIAH LEITER was nominated in joint convention by acclamation, J. S. SLICK...

DIED. -On Sunday, Sept. 13th, 1874, Mrs. CHARLOTTE MASTELLER, aged 22 years, 6 months and 16 days.

The deceased was a victim of consumption, and notwithstanding everything was done by kind friends to lengthen out the brittle thread of life, death claimed her as his own at an early day in life. But six months ago she became the wife of HERBERT D. MASTELLER, upon whom the affliction falls most heavily.

-On Monday, Sept. 14th, 1874, Mrs. FANNY BRIGHT, aged 78 years, 7 months and 20 days.

Mrs. Bright had almost lived her four score years and was a useful and Christian lady. Thirty-six years ago, when this country was comparatively a wilderness, she, with her yet living though aged companion, settled in Henry Township, where she resided to the date of her death. She was the mother of a large family, many of whom are located around the old homestead, and enjoy the comforts of early industry.

-On Saturday, Sept. 12th, 1874, JOSEPH, son of Mr. and Mrs. ABRAHAMS.

But a few hours illness sufficed to transplant this bud from earth to a realm above. His remains were conveyed to Laporte and deposited in the Jewish cemetery.

KEWANNA ITEMS, September 16, 1874

About four years ago JOHN URBIN built a very nice little business house on Logan Street. We had never been inside that building until last week. We spent a few minutes there and bought at least five cents worth of peanuts. The reason we had never entered his retreat was because he sold intoxicating liquors; but this summer he closed out his stock, and now keeps on hand groceries, provisions, candies, ice cream, lemondæ, &c., and invites the public to patronize him.

DIED. -On Saturday evening, Sept. 12th, MARY JANE, widow of the late SAMUEL DUKES.

Mrs. Dukes has been afflicted for some years with consumption, and at length it has completed its work, and another kind, Christian mother has been taken from among us. During her long affliction she bore her pain and suffering as only Christian mothers can, and has left an example of Christian fortitude that all would do well to follow and pattern after. Two orphan children, with many friends, are called to mourn the loss of a dear friend and kind mother, whose sphere on earth can never again be filled. - - - ELI LEITER.

(Notice of Dissolution) ... the copartnership heretofore existing between ELIZABETH ELAM and J. W. DAVIS, under the firm name of ELAM & DAVIS, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All claims due the late firm are payable to Elizabeth Elam, who will continue the business at the old stand, under the supervision of J. W. ELAM... Rochester, Ind., Sept. 17, 174.

ON ACUMINATIONS

Miss JACOBY, a very fine looking young lady of Bloomsburg, Penn., is visiting relatives at this place.

FRANK DILLON is not only a first-class blacksmith, but he handles the brush with great artistic skill.

MILT. WHITTENBERGER of Peru causes the young men of Akron to stand back and gaze with awe and admiration upon him and his elegantly matched blacks as he dashes through our streets at a 2:40 gait.

Mr. ONSTOTT's industry is equal almost to any emergency, but his strong right arm cannot manipulate the tin rapidly enough to supply the constant demand for fruit cans.

Our invalids, among whom are Dr. TERRY, ALEX. CURTIS and C. MAUDLIN, have betaken themselves to Three Rivers, Mich., to luxuriate in and imbibe the invigorating waters of the illustrious springs located at that place. BILL CURTCHER and IKE AULT will follow as soon as they can perfect their arrangements.

PROCEEDINGS OF ROCHESTER TOWNSHIP DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION... at the Court House on Saturday, Sept. 19th, 1874... Mr. WM. McMAHAN as President and A. T. Old father EDWARDS, who went to Kansas four years ago, has returned to this place after being eaten out of house and home by the pesky grasshoppers.

Fat hogs are remarkably scarce throughout the county, but CHARLES W. HOLMAN succeeded in picking up a car load of very fine ones after considerable riding, which he shipped from this point on Wednesday.

The extreme suffering of Sheriff MOON's little boy for the past two weeks was occasioned by the cruelty of some of his schoolmates of larger growth pushing him into a ditch and dislocating his shoulder. Parents and teachers, so far as possible, should do their utmost to prevent such rough sports of scholars on their way to and from school, whereby the smaller children are injured in person.

CIRCUIT COURT will convene on the fourth Monday in October, the same being the 26th day. The following persons have been chosen as Grand Jurors for that term: SAMUEL BEATTIE, JOHN BRANTHOFFER, SAMUEL FREAR, M. P. MERIDITH, C. H. ROBBINS, JOHN JOHNSON, JOHN EWING, S. H. FARRY, J. P. SMITH, JOHN W. DAVIS, JACOB PERSCHBACHER, JOHN AYDELOTT.

The dwelling house on the farm lying east of the lake owned by DAVID RADER, and occupied by CLAYTON CARR and his family, was destroyed by fire on Thursday. The family was at dinner at the time of the outbreak, but so rapid was the flames in their work of destruction that nothing save a few small articles were saved from the devouring element. The fire originated in a room used as a dry house for the drying of fruit.

Mr. JOHN McMICHAEL, the proprietor of the EAGLE FLOURING MILLS at LINCOLN, Ind., has placed us under obligation by presenting us with a sack of his choicest brand of flour ... He will soon establish an agency for the sale of his flour at this place...

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Rev. R. D. UTTER is now duly installed in his position at this place, and may be heard from each Sabbath.

A good umbrella was lost between town and the Fair Grounds during the fair by B. C. WILSON...

Mrs. E. J. RYLAND goes to Richmond on Monday to attend the marriage of Rev. Mr. GORDON and Miss BESSIE KIBBY, which will take place on Wednesday.

SAMUEL RUSSELL has returned from Kansas. We have not learned whether the grasshoppers eat him out or not, but one by one those who went west are returning to their starting point.

It might be inferred from what we said last week that JOHN McMICHAEL had purchased the LINCOLN FLOURING MILL. John would have us say that he is only "boss" miller ...

Mrs. SUSIE SMITH is said to have had the finest and most valuable specimens of flowers, plants on exhibition at Floral Hall, and the committee would gladly have awarded her the first premiums but lacking the varieties it was given to another.

Mr. DAN. VANTRUMP, of Missouri, formerly of this place, is visiting his brothers and old acquaintances of this county. He has been a resident of Missouri for several years, and is very partial to that State,

J. S. SLICK is the recipient of a very fine present from the hands of HARRY EDWARDS, who is a convict in the Michigan City State's prison. Said present is a beautiful arm-chair, and is the workmanship of his own hands. Harry, it will be remembered, in an evil hour abstracted from Wolf's jewelry case certain jewelry, and was sentenced to two years' hard labor for his folly. The present, we presume, is in token of his appreciation of Slick's masterly effort as an attorney to avert the sentence of imprisonment at Michigan City.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. The STAVE FACTORY Burned. Loss from $5,000 to $8,000.

Yesterday morning, between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock, the Stave Factory, situated in the southeastern portion of town, on the line of the I. P. & C. Railroad, and owned by CLARKE & WEAVER, was discovered to be on fire. At that hour in the morning very few people were astir, and being so far removed from the main portion of town, some time elapsed before the people could be alarmed, and the consequence was that, it being a wooden structure, filled with combustible material, it was beyond the power of human agency to save any portion of the buildings or their contents, so rapid were the flames in their work of destruction. In an hour the labor of years and the expenditure of thousands of dollars was swept away. The loss to the firm will amount to about $6,000, not a dollar of which was covered by insurance. The office, sheds and considerable material, all of which were somewhat removed from the main buildings, were saved; but the burning of the buildings and machinery is not only a severe loss to the proprietors, but to the community in general. Aside from the manufacture of staves, heading and spokes were manufactured in endless quantities, engaging the labor of 25 hands when running to its full capacity. The fact that this number of men are thrown out of employment at this season of the year, and the further fact that thousands of dollars have each winter been put in circulation among the farmers of this county for the pure chase of timber, which will now cease, makes it a disaster to the whole community that will be severely felt.

Messrs. Clarke & Weaver have no idea of how the fire originated. Usually they keep a watchman employed to guard against accident during the night, but the night in question was an exception to their usual vigilance. All that is worth saving from the ruins is being removed, but the proprietors have no settled purpose as to whether they will rebuild or not. It is to the interest of the citizens of Rochester to have the establishment replaced upon a more gigantic scale than the one destroyed, and whatever encouragement they need should be cheerfully given.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Rochester post office for the month ending Sept. 30, 1874: L. M. ALBRIGHT, Mrs. A. ANDERS, Antrim BEEKS, John BLUNK, Mrs. L. BOWMAN, Mrs. Mary BRUCE, D. S. DIED. -On Tuesday, Sept. 29th, 1874, in the eastern portion of this township, Mr. JOHN VANLUE, aged 29 years.

-On Tuesday, Sept. 29th, 1874, in Rochester, Miss (- - - -) HUNT, aged 12 years.

[NOTE: See Jean C. and Wendell C. Tombaugh, Fulton Co., Ind. Cemetery Inscriptions, Citizens Cemetery, Rochester Twp: ADELIA HUNT, dau. of E. & J. A. HUNT, died Sept. 28, 1874, age 12yr & 5mo)

-On Thursday, Oct 1st, 1874, LOLA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. GREEN, of this place, aged 14 months and 8 days. Funeral service yesterday afternoon by Rev. UTTER and Father FOOTE.

-On Monday, Sept. 28th, 1874, an infant of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. BROWN of this place.

-on Yesterday morning, Mrs. M. C. BROWN of this place. Funeral services to-day.

-On the 23rd of August, Mr. E. E. BROWN (of the firm of PECK & BROWN) aged 47 years.

Mr. Brown was engaged with a party of men, at the head of the river, in getting out railroad ties. On Saturday morning last, some of the party had felled a tree, and the jar of the tree caused an old rotten stub of a tree, which stood near by, to give way and fall, striking Mr. Brown about the hips, and injuring him so badly, that he died on the following day, Sunday. As the stub was falling, the men called out to him to get out of the way, and the deceased looked up, saw the tree coming directly upon him, but moved not until it struck him. When the men got to him, they thought he was dead, but finding his pulse yet beating, they resorted to such remedies as they had on hand, and succeeded in bringing him to consciousness. Upon being asked by his attending physician, Dr. LESTER, why he did not get out of the way, he replied, that "he could not move." All was done for him that could be, but of no avail. His remains were brought to this city on Monday last, the funeral took place on Tuesday at his home, on Cass St., and was largely attended by sympathizing relatives and friends. Mr. Brown has been among us four or five years, and by his social qualities, and manliness of heart, has won for himself many warm friends. Faults he may have had, who of us have not? He was a kind father, and a good neighbor. He leaves a wife, three children, and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Mr. ELIAS BROWN was formerly a citizen of this place, well respected by all who knew him, and the above notice of his sudden untimely death we find in a paper published at his late home in Greenville, Mich., which we copy for the benefit of his numerous friends at this place.

The fire wardens, consisting of MAX SILBERBERG, D. W. LYON and FRANK RICHTER, are making calls for the purpose of examining stove pipes and flues to know if they are perfectly secure against fire.

MARRIED. -On Sunday, Oct. 25th, by Rev. F. M. ELLIOTT, at the parsonage, Mr. DAVID HARTER and IONA LAHMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. BARNES gave their daughter JENNIE a very pleasant surprise and birthday party on Monday evening...

DIED. -Mr. JACOB BRIGHT, one of the oldest citizens of Henry Township, died at his residence on Monday, October 26, 1874, aged 54 years, 11 months and 26 days. He had been a resident of the county for 36 years, and shared in the toils and privations consequent upon locating in a new and almost uninhabited county. He will be remembered by his relatives and friends as an honest and upright man and exemplary Christian.

E. FLINN has opened in the Sergent building, opposite the Court House, a wholesale and jobbing liquor house. Having on hand the very best quality of all kind of Brandies, Wines, Whiskeys, &c., ... He has also a large stock of the finest brands of Tobaccos and Cigars ...

A CLEAR CASE OF BIGAMY. -common rumor says that there are a great many men who have a desire to possess more wives than one, but outside of Brigham Young's domain there are but few who dare to brave the vengeance of his first love or the prospect of wearing heavy but cheap jewelry furnished at States prisons by marrying another. But there are exceptions to the rule, and FRANK BEEVER in this case is the exception. Frank is a resident of this county, having lived in Newcastle Township a number of years, where he married an estimable young lady by the name of KESSLER, and by their union are possessed of two bright children. He prefixes Prof. before his name, which title, we presume, he claims by virtue of having peddled a patent medicine over this State and Illinois. He was also engaged in selling a patent washing machine for a time. He is also a painter, for it was while thus engaged at Mrs. NORRIS', a few miles south of town, that he became enamored of her daughter, a rather prepossessing lady of about 19 years of age. His story is that while there at work she took particular pains to make herself as agreeable as possible in his presence, and although he told her that he was a married man, she took no thought of that, but continued to lavish her affections upon him until in an evil hour a crime was committed. From that time on their attachment for each other became stronger, and an elopement was agreed upon. They stole away from the house, came to Rochester, and took the night train south with no definite point in view. They stopped at Peru until the next morning, when they went to Logansport and stopped at a private boarding house. Then they determined to get married, and by the aid of an attachee of the boarding house a license was obtained, although neither of the parties were residents of that county. A Justice of the Peace tied the knot and pronounced them husband and wife. After enjoying the sweets of married life for a season he began to reflect upon the enormity of the crime he had committed, and he resolved to return her to her mother.

Engaging a livery team for that purpose he did bring her home as the girl supposed to get her clothing, but once at home her mother detained her there. Beever having his charge off his hands, returned to Newcastle Township and stopped at JOHN CATES', after which he had an interview with his first wife, and was soon after arrested and lodged in the county jail on a charge of bigamy. The story as related is in substance as received from him by us. He feels very penitent and is quite despondent, so much so that on Thursday he threatened to take his life, and perhaps would have done so if he had been provided with a weapon. He insisted that he wanted to shave himself and desired to be furnished with a razor for that purpose, but his request was refused. It is not probable that his trial will take place at this term, and before another three months rolls round he may become reconciled to the probable fate that awaits him.

KEWANNA ITEMS, November 4, 1874

DANIEL HUDKINS will move to town as soon as the sign is right. What phenomena of the moon their sign is in we cannot say.

JOHN MYERS, our harness-maker, is as happy as a big sunflower, because he has a boy almost large enough (at least he thinks so) to help him in the shop.

Uncle ISAAC CANNON is now visiting his old friends in Connecticut. Before going he bought each of his daughters, daughters-in-law and grand-daughters a dress each, making in all about sixteen.

With the warmest sympathies of the entire community, J. LEITER and wife left for the Pacific coast on Tuesday of last week. He tenders his sincere thanks to his many friends, both Republicans and Democrats, for their earnest labor and support during the late campaign, almost overcoming a majority of 500 ...

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

WM. HEFFLEY is completing a new residence on South Street.

A telegram hastened MACK ASHTON to Lima, O., on Monday to see his wife, who is reported to be dangerously ill.

A suit between the First National Bank and GEORGE BEARSS for nearly $10,000 has been sent to Laporte on a change of venue.

P. O. JONES, the new Prosecuting Attorney, has been attending Court this week, and Mr. ESSICK has been relieved from that duty.

A $25,000 mortgage was foreclosed at the present term of the Circuit Court by STEPHEN TABOR of Logansport against LONG & MILLER, formerly of this place.

DEO HAUK, who married one of Rochester's fair daughters and set up in the jewelry trade at Topeka, Kan., has since returned and is now located at Logansport.

L.M. SPOTTS, our former townsman, has changed his residence from Palmyra, N. Y., to Lodi, Medina County, Ohio, and is engaged in contracting for railroad work.

MAX SILBERBERG rejoices and is exceedingly glad because it is a girl and will be a week old to-morrow.

JAMES BABCOCK, of Greenville, Mich., has been visiting his friends and relatives at this place this week. His appearance indicates that the bracing air of the Michigan Pineries agrees well with him.

Rev. DICKSON of Argos had been holding a protracted meeting at the SHEETS settlement in Henry Township when he was taken ill and died at the residence of a Mr. HARTMAN's on Tuesday. His remains were taken to Argos for interment.

[NOTE: See Wendell C. and Jean C. Tombaugh, Marshall County, Ind. Cemeteries, Vol. 2: Eld. BAYLESS L. DICKSON, May 5, 1818 - Nov. 3, 1874.]

Owing to the extreme illness of Mrs. JOHN GREEN, mother of our County Superintendent, he has been unable from constant watching at her bedside to prepare the programme and order of exercises for the Teachers' County Institute..

FRANK BEEVER, the bigamist, of whom mention was made last week, has been taken to Logansport for trial. His last marriage took place there, and according to the requirements of the statutes it is essential that he be tried where the offense was committed. Sheriff MOON escorted him thither before Esquire McGREGOR, before whom he waived an examination, and was sent to jail to await the session of the Circuit Court on the 16th. He acknowledges the commission of the crime, and only relies on the clemency of the Court to pass sentence upon him for a short time.

MARRIED. -On Thursday, Oct. 29, 1874, by Rev. JACOB WHITTENBERGER, at the residence of W. W. ANDERSON in Akron, Mr. PIERCE PONTIOUS and Miss LYDIA BOOKS...

-On Sunday, Nov. 1st, 1874, by the same, at the residence of ELY STRONG, near Akron, Mr. LAFAYETTE WILHOIT and Miss SARAH E. KITCHEN.

-On Sunday, Nov. 1st, 1874, by Rev. F. M. ELLIOTT, at the parsonage, Mr. JACOB J. WAGNER and Miss PERMELIA HEETER.

-At the Treasurer's office, Nov. 5, 1874, by Rev. A. V. HOUSE, JAMES R. DUGLAS and MARY A. MAHAFFY.

DIED. -On Sunday, Nov. 1st, 1874, CLARA ELLEN, daughter of JACKSON and CATHARINE MORRIS, aged 2 years, 7 months and 27 days.

-On Monday, Nov. 2, 1874, in Henry Township, Mr. ENOS SHEETS, aged about 55 years.

The deceased was one of the pioneers of this county, having moved from Ohio thirty-five (years) ago and settled upon the land which was his late home. Being a man of quiet and retiring disposition, he was not generally known, but among his many neighbors and friends he was known as a man of sterling integrity, quiet and unassuming in his manners, and generous in his hospitality. May he rest in peace!

-On Tuesday, Nov. 3, 1874, seven miles east of Rochester, Rev. BAYLESS L. DICKSON, aged 56 years, 5 months and 28 days.

He was a preacher in the Christian church, and had labored in the Master's vineyard for 20 years. His remains were taken to Argos, his home, on Wednesday, and buried by the I.O.O.F.

LOCAL AND MISCELUMOUS

A. T. METCALF, former proprietor of this paper, now resides in Buchanan, Michigan. Miss BELLE BARNES has just returned from an eight months' visit with friends in New York.

HEILBRUN & WILE have exported a lot of hides to Germany and hope to realize handsomely on them.

The Presbyterian church social will be held at the residence of Mr. H. D. WEAVER on Tuesday evening next.

The young folks had a lively hop at Music Hall last Saturday night and will repeat the same this evening.

WM. KINDIG of Henry Township has sold his farm and started this week for California. If he finds the Pacific coast to his liking he will return and remove his family there in the spring.

Peru had another jail delivery last week and among the number escaping was MILT. BUCKLY and FRANK WHITTENBERGER. Frank is an old jail bird and not easily confined. His last offense was that of stealing a horse. Fearing a trip to Michigan City, where he would get a fresh breeze off the lake, he undertook and succeeded in digging a trench from his cell to the outer wall of the jail and escaped. VINT. O'DONNELL was put upon his track, and, in company with JOHN P. MYERS of this place, proceeded on Sunday night to Claypool, a small station on the railroad north of Silver Lake, when they succeeded in capturing him. They returned him to Peru, and he is now again in durance vile. When caught he was in possession of plenty of money, and would soon been out of harm's way.

MARRIED. -On Nov. 12th, 1874, by Rev. SMITH, at his residence, Mr. TAYLOR CARR and Mrs. SARAH EATON, both of this county.

DIED. -At her home in Perrysburg, Ind., Nov 12, 1874, MARGARET A. SIMONTON, aged about 33 years. Funeral services at the Presbyterian church, Perrysburg, at 10 a.m., Nov. 12th.

MAGGIE was a child of affliction, but pain and disease, instead of producing the usual affect, seemed to bring out all the better qualities of her nature, so that where we would expect to find the fretful, querulous disposition of the invalid we found a gentle nature, made happy by a childlike trust in Him that "doeth all things well." Although possessed of but little bodily strength, she was not content to let her talent remain unimproved, but made music a study and the teaching of the same a profession, and many homes throughout the country where she has been loved and appreciated as a teacher will be saddened by the news that Maggie has gone to her long home.

-Mr. WM. CARTER received the startling intelligence on Sunday evening last that his oldest daughter, Mrs. ORA McCRAY, living at Greencastle, Ind., was at death's door and requested his presence. He repaired to her side immediately, but did not arrive there until the lamp of life had been extinguished. The deceased was about 27 years of age, well known and highly respected in this community. After her marriage to Mr. LEVI McCRAY she removed with him to his present residence, where they started together in life, full of hope and happy thoughts for the future. But alas for human hopes! Death called her home when in the full enjoyment of earthly blessings. Her funeral was largely attended by her many friends in her new home who appreciated her worth as a lady of culture and fine social qualities. The services were conducted by Rev. S. TALLMAN, under the auspices of Brick Chapel Grange, of which she was a member, and at which chapel cemetery is her last resting place.

LOST. On Saturday morning, Nov. 7th, 1874, either at Heilbrun & Wile's store or on the sidewalk between that point and Cowgill's residence, a leathern pocket-book ... JONATHAN MONTGOMERY. Rochester, Ind., Nov. 14, '74.

AUCTIONEERS. -WILLIAM TRIBBIT having resumed the profession as auctioneer, has formed a partnership with B. E. MORRISON, and the firm of TRIBBIT & MORRISON now hold themselves in readiness at all hours to cry sales and vendues in the city and any part of the country... Mr. Tribbit is well known as an auctioneer, and it is not worth while to make any comments. Mr. Morrison has been in our city for the past ten months and comes here highly recommended in the profession...

There is no better or cheaper place to buy good, fresh groceries than at BOSENBERG's grocery, in the north end of town. He has a large stock, and is selling all his goods at the very lowest figures.

FRED. BOSENBERG makes the best bread, and sells it the cheapest.

LIST OF LETTERS remaining in the Rochester post office for the week ending November 21, 1874: Peter APT, Miss Mollie APT, John M. NEWTON, Harry E. SCOTT, Richard SMITH. - - - Mrs. E. J. RYLAND, P.M.

DAN AGNEW is in receipt of a lengthy opinion given by Hon. CLARENCE A. BUSKIRK, Attorney General, in relation to the Trusteeship of Henry Township. He holds that MILO BRIGHT was eligible to the office notwithstanding that he was Postmaster at the time of his election, and could have taken the office of Trustee by resigning his position as Postmaster. He further gives it as his opinion that there is a vacancy occasioned by Bright failing to qualify. The matter of appointment will be referred to the County Commissioners at their next meeting.

DIED. -On Wednesday evening, Nov. 18, 1874, near Bruce's Lake, Mr. JOHN SWARTWOUDT, aged about 50 years. The deceased was buried at this place yesterday.

-On Monday, Nov. 15th, at Lima, Ohio, Mrs. EMMA ASHTON, wife of F. M. ASHTON.

For a number of years past Mrs. Ashton, resided at this place and enjoyed the warm personal friendship of her many associates. A few months since declining health induced her to return to her relatives and former home, when she died at the time and place stated of consumption.

DIED. -The messenger of death has again invaded our circle of friends and taken from our midst one of society's cherished idols. RICHMOND P. SMITH, aged 42 years, 8 months and 27 days, died November 30th, 1874. For thirty years he has been a resident of this county, most of which time he has been a citizen of this place, known to all as an orderly, unassuming and valuable member of society. He cared but little for the world's pleasures, preferring rather to apply himself to business, but was a pleasant, social and good man, ever ready to lend a helping hand for the amelioration of suffering humanity. From business he will be greatly missed by the whole community, but more especially by ERNSPERGER, JACKSON & CO., in whose employ he has been for the past seven years as chief bookkeeper. Masonry has lost one of its bright and shining lights, a faithful and devoted brother of Rochester Lodge, No. 436, and companion of Rochester Chapter, No. 90. His bereft companion has lost a loving and faithful husband, while an aged mother and brother mourn o'er his untimely death.

His funeral obsequies took place on Wednesday, attended by a large concourse of friends and the Masonic Fraternity, the services being conducted by Rev. A. E. BABCOCK at the M. E. Church.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

GUS. CORNELIUS has received an appointment as Notary Public, and is ready for any kind of business pertaining to that position.

CHARLES JACKSON has received the appointment of Express Agent for this place. Other parties labored hard to secure it but failed. We think the appointment well made.

Mr. CHARLES W. CAFFYN, the newly elected Auditor, has accepted a position in the Auditor's office, but does not assume its responsibilities until about the first of next March.

The dry goods of the firm of FERGUSON & ASHTON have been released from the restraining order forbidding their sale, and they are now upon the market again with Mr. F. K. KENDRICK as salesman and receiver for the late firm.

THOMAS BALL, of Henry Township, will sell off his personal property, consisting of horses, cattle, hogs, corn, hay, &c., on next Friday, Dec. 11th, and will become a citizen of this place. Mr. Ball is a worthy man, and will make a valuable citizen for Rochester.

LEROY ARMSTRONG, formerly a typo in this office, but for the past year has been roaming o'er the western wilds and on the Pacific coast, returned to this place and has engaged to teach the young ideas how to shoot in a school near Green Oak in this county. It is his first experience in that direction, but we venture to say that he will make a success of it.

At a regular meeting of the PROTECTION HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY, held on Tuesday evening last, the following persons were chosen as officers: BARNEY CORRY, Foreman; M. O. REES, Assistant Foreman; I. W. BROWN, Treasurer, and ROBERT GOULD, Secretary...

FIRE. -Last Monday night about 12 o'clock the slumbers of the people of this place were disturbed by an alarm of fire being sounded. Upon emerging from their couches and gazing eastward a bright light was discovered in the neighborhood of MYERS & GAINER's planing mill. Those who had been awakened rushed pell mell to the scene of disaster, but as they drew nearer to it, a dwelling house still farther east, and on the north side of the race, was found to be the prey of the fiery element. Being so remote from the business portion of town, the building was enveloped in flames and beyond rescue before any relief could be afforded. The dwelling was owned by FRED. PETING, a German citizen, and inhabited by PAUL MAY and his family. Mr. Peting can ill afford to lose his property, but much less Mr. May, who is a laborer on the railroad, and a man with several small children dependent upon him for daily bread, all of whom rushed frantically out of their home at the hour of midnight into the deep snow, without clothing or shoes, to see their home destroyed with nearly all its contents. Speculation as to how the fire originated is of no avail, or will it relieve the suffering family. To be driven out of doors at any time by fire is terrible, but at the dead hour of night, with a foot or more of snow on the ground, and scarcely sufficient clothing saved to cover the nakedness of a half dozen children, excites feelings of pity for those thus unfortunate. A subscription paper has been in circulation for the relief of this unfortunate family, but what success it has met we are not informed. If presented with it, remember that giving to the poor is but lending to the Lord, which is said to be a safe investment.

DIED. -In Kewanna, on Friday, Dec. 11, 1874, of typhoid fever, ALMIRA ADELAIDE, wife of H. PHILLIPS, aged 40 years, 2 months and 22 days.

The deceased was a native of this state, but moved to Missouri, where she was married to her surviving and afflicted husband in 1861. A few months later she, with her husband, moved to this place, where they have lived ever since. As a woman of refined taste and intelligence, there were few her equal. She was modest and unassuming, and her close attention to domestic life prevented a more noted appearance to the public. She was the mother of seven children, the youngest of whom is but a few months old. As a mother she was very kind and indulgent, and sought to train up her family in the way they should go. The loss of her to this community will be greatly felt, but much more to a family of seven children, all of whom are young and tender in years, and greatly need the care of a kind and loving mother. The bereaved husband and family have the warmest sympathies of the entire community, and should have the aid of all in their hour of bereavement and trial. -LEVI LEITER.
